In Memoriam

MRS. ANNIE ELIZABETH LARGE
There passed away on December 19th, 1946, in Conway, Annie Elizabeth Large in her sixty-fourth year, widow of the late Harry Large.

Her friends were legion near and far because of her warm friendship, fine personality and christian character. Besides she was a devoted mother and sister and a devoted daughter of the Lord.

HAZELBROOK SCHOOL CONCERT
On Friday evening, December 20th, interested parents and friends enjoyed an excellent Christian program in Hazelbrook School when the pupils presented their annual concert under the direction of their teacher, Miss Sue Jones. The school was nicely decorated and a beautiful lighted Christmas tree laden with gifts for teacher and pupils occupied one corner. Mr. Harold Carver capably acted as chairman, presiding at the organ.

Exercise, "The Mystery" by seven pupils.
Recitation "Santa's Drum" by Billy Coody.
Recitation "My Dolly" by Catherine Pippy.
Dialogue, "Who Took the Pie?"
Duet, "My Kalush Sweetheart" by Glen and Douglas Drake (encored).

We have seen in our day that men paid too big a price when they turned against their country as did Joyce, commonly called Lord "How Haw". Just for a handful of silver some do strange things. This is how one writer expresses his mind concerning a man: "The Lost Leader" whom he regarded as deserter in a certain field: "Let him never come back to us, There would be doubt, hesitation and pain. Forged a praise on our part—the glimmer of twilight, Never glad confident morning again."

In-Council a new plan of patrol duties was adopted. The meeting ended with a short campfire, when Miss Estelle Haines, Lieutenant, spoke to the Guides on Canadian citizenship. The Guides were pleased to welcome some new recruits, and they are looking forward to good Guiding in 1947.

The WEEK at S. D. U.

Greetings! Greetings particularly to the present senior class. This is your year. (The class of '47 has come into its own.) In the years past, that must seem like only yesterday, those two figures didn't mean much but now they step right up and tower over you.

Everyone is back from the holidays looking not too much the worse for wear. By now most of the bill sessions are over and everyone has been fairly well informed on what everyone else did over the holidays. With term exams only two weeks away you can almost hear the fellows shifting into high gear.

As a matter of fact, there is very little to report this week. The only society which has been active to any extent is the new debating society which held its first debate (in its eliminations for inter-collegiate debating) on Monday, Jan. 6th. The topic "Resolved that the Nuremberg trial was justified" was argued by Mr. Feunally Howlett and opposed by Mr. Willford Driscoll and Mr. Daniel Driscoll. Mr. Preston Hammill, who was to have supported Mr. Howlett, was unfortunately confined to his bed. Rogers, for further elimination debates will be held, and we'll have something on them as they come off.

In hockey the Saints have come off to a win with the Legion for first place in the City League. Two wins in as many starts did the trick. On Tuesday, Saints outplayed P.W.C. to the tune of 8-1. It was really a thriller which brought memories of the series with P.W.C. of a few years ago. Elmer Blanchard started for the Saints, getting five goals. Oart turned in his usual stellar performance, and it was really a pity that he would go to Reg. Rogers, for reasons which will be obvious to anyone who saw the game.

On the second game, played Thursday evening against the Regulators, we have a score, 10-4 for the Saints. Ah, there's good news tonight (apologies to G.H.). Intra-mural hockey is in full swing at the college. The rink is packed every evening and competition is keen. This year each class is being a separate team. It is a little early for speculation, but from where we sit on the boards, it looks like a ruger season.

There were a few old Saints around the holiday season. Soak O'Hanley '42 and '46, studying medicine at McGill; Vince Murganhan '45 at St. Augustine's in Toronto; Dick Ledwell '49 now at MacDonald College in Montreal; Donald "Duck" MacDonald '46 at McGill studying medicine, and A.C. MacAdam '46, now teaching at Loyola.

Speaking of graduates, we saw an old friend of past and present Saints on the street the other day in person of Major "Bennie" T. A. Major, who was practically an institution around the college when he was here, commanded the St. Dunstan's Contingent of the C.O.-T.C. during the war. He is at present working with the Department of Transport.

Well, that's about it for this week. Not much, but then I have to study some too.

Recitation "My Stocking" by Audrey Pippy.
Dialogue "The Sick Child." by Ludlow Carver.
Flag Drill by Intermediate pupils.
Recitation "Santa's Question" by Velma Myers. Solo "Silent City Sue" by Douglas Drake (encored).
Pantomime, "My Old Kentucky Home" by Ernest Pippy.
Recitation, "Mother's present" by Hazel Myers.
Chorus "Old Saint Nicholas".
Intermission sale of apples.
Darkey song, "Kingdom Comm'n".
Exercise, "Holiday Chores".
Dialogue "Here Comes the Bride" Solo, "Santa Claus Com'n" by Douglas Drake and Eunice Dixon.
Pantomime, "Home Sweet Home" by Rene Wood.
Recitation, "Mother's Fool" Lorne Graves.
Camp-fire singing.
Rena Wood, "Dad's Quiet Evening".
Solo, "Silent Night" by Glen Drake, Alma Myers and Eunice Dixon.
Dialogue, "Advice to the Lovelorn".
Solo, "You Played Love On the Strings of My Heart" by Douglas Drake (encored).
Chorus, "Good-night".
Santa Claus then arrived on the scene, much to the merriment of the younger set and presented and pupils with many nice gifts followed by the National Anthem.

Well, that's about it for this week. Not much, but then I have to study some too.

Veterans' Training - News and Views

Eight veterans of World War II will graduate from the Plumbing, Pipe-Fitting and Sheet Metal Course conducted at No. 1 C. V. T. School, Charlottetown, on 18 January 1947. They are: Carlyle J. Cahill, Southport; Colin E. MacDougall, East Royalty; Plus Gullant, 25 Park St., Charlottetown; J. E. MacKinnon, c/o St. Dunstons University; Vernon J. O'Brien, 75 Douglas St., Charlottetown; William E. Pierce, Souris; Herbert J. Stewart, Georgetown; Ernest St. John, Souris.

For ten months past these veterans have been doing intensive practical training in Plumbing, Heating and Sheet Metal Operation. Starting from the ground up they began by making themselves familiar with the tools of the trade, their use, care and maintenance. Following this they undertook simple operations such as making pipes, joints, threading, etc. More difficult jobs were done as training progressed and the men became more proficient. Many projects were carried out culminating in a complete steam heating job at the C. V. T. Agriculture Building and the Experiment Farm. In addition several complete jobs were done in and about the city, all of which were praised highly by the owners concerned.

Mr. Mathew Lee and Mr. Samuel Martin, their instructors, have expressed themselves as being eminently pleased with the progress of these students. They have no hesitation in recommending them and their work to the general public of Prince Edward Island. It is pleasing to note that all these are going to work immediately. Some are taking employment while several others intend opening their own business in their home areas.

Canadian Vocational Training wish them every success in the future and shall follow their progress with interest.

Here we would like to bring to the attention of our veterans that a new class in Plumbing, Heating and Sheet Metal will begin on Monday, 27 January. Several candidates can still be accepted. To those who are thinking of taking this type of training we say: "There is no time like the present. Consult D.V.A. immediately."

A new class in Agriculture is slated to begin on 13 January. We are gratified to have several new candidates, but we could accept several more on either this date, or 10 February, the next opening date. This month the students in Agriculture will cover the following subjects: Dairying, Poultry, Horses, Plant Insects and Plant Diseases, Farm Bookkeeping, Credit Union, Co-operatives and Farm Study Groups. Visits will be made to the larger establishments in the area. Lectures will be given the class by recognized experts on each subject. Special educational films will be shown. Next month the subjects covered will be: Soils, Farm Crops, Farm Management, Sheep, Beekeeping, Vegetable Growing, Farm Sanitation. All veterans interested are requested to make early application.

Veterans, this is the final year in which you may secure approval for training under the provisions of the Rehabilitation Act. At the end of the war has been proclaimed officially—December 31, 1946. If you remember, the Act states that you must apply for Vocational Training within one year of discharge, or within one year of the cessation of hostilities—now named December 31, 1946. So, if you intend to take training apply now. The facilities which are being provided on the joint Dominion-Provincial plan will gradually diminish, therefore, the longer you delay your application the more difficult it may be to obtain training for you.

Perley A. Raynor has completed training in Plumbing & Heating with Bevan Bros., Charlottetown, and is now employed with that firm.

Among trainees recently placed for T. O. J. are the following: Donald Ross, who is taking up Insurance work with Crowe, Life, P. J. A. MacDonald and Robert E. Gallant doing Refrigeration work with Palmer Electric and John M. Thisel, 38A Reserve Street, Charlottetown.

Mr. F. W. Boyles, the Polytechnic, who has trained several Opticians recently took on another veteran—Earle M. Smith. Mr. Boyles reports that this veteran and Horace E. Carmichael, who is also training there, are both doing good work in this highly specialized trade.

J. J. MacDonald is another C. V. T. trained veteran doing Shoe Repair work in the City. "Jim", an original member of the famous P. E. I. Highlanders is located on Upper Queen Street. He is in business with Mr. Turner, who has been established there for some time. Mr. MacDonald was well trained in the busy Baxter Shoe Shop located in Summerside. He is a capable, conscientious workman. Your patronage will be appreciated by him, Mr. Turner, and Canadian Vocational Training.

Inquiries regarding Canadian Vocational Training should be addressed to Mr. D. N. Bell, Supervisor of Counselling, D. M. A. Building, Charlottetown. Name, Rank and NUMBER should be stated.

READY For you to take over, —SON!

Yes... ready and waiting for stronger hands to take over the heavy tasks which the older folk have carried through the long years of war... Everything is in good shape. Dad has seen to that. The fine heritage created by his own labour and prudence is protected, too, by a SUN LIFE insurance policy which will, should he die, take care of the mortgage and any indebtedness normal to good farming operations... Yes, Dad made a good job of planning for the well-being and security of his family in generations to come.
