The family of the late Mrs James Pickard desire to thank all friends for the many kind expressions of sympathy received in their recent bereavement.

The many friends of Mrs. P. D. Howatt and Mrs. John Rogerson, Crapaud, who have been ill will be pleased to learn that they are both much improved.

Mrs. A. E. Williams' many friends will be glad to know that she has returned from Montreal where she had been for some two months undergoing medical treatment, very much improved in health.—Moncton Times.

The Guardian has received from Geo. E. Hughes, druggist, an aluminum tooth-brush holder, good for the whole family, which for attractiveness and use would be hard to excel. It is offered as a premium with Ingram's Zedenta for the seth.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Every thing should be addressed to The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I., and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "Editorial," or "News," according to the contents.

Two junior teams, named the Wolves and the Amateurs, played a game of hockey on Government Pond Saturday morning. The result was a score of 4 to 2 in favor of the Amateurs. The Wolves were: Large, McKenzie, Riggs, Steel, Stover, Ross and Crosby. The Amateurs were: Nicholson, Diamond, Handrahan, Steel, Flynn, Ryan and Vessey.

On Wednesday night Miss Annie Edwards, of London, England, opens in engagement at New Wonderland, as illustrated song singer. Miss Edwards who has been singing at the Nickel Theatre, St. John, N. B., has just closed a most successful engagement and comes here well recommended. The Nickel of St. John, like the New Wonderland of Charlottetown, engages only the best talent. Everybody should hear her on Wednesday night and see the big picture program.

The W. M. S. of the Methodist Church, Sackville, N. B., held their annual mite box opening on Monday afternoon in the vestry of the church. Mrs. Dawson, president of the society, occupied the chair. Mrs. Fred Dixon, superintendent of mite boxes, gave an interesting address. Miss Hazel Tait, of Mount Allison, gave a reading, which everyone appreciated, and Miss Patterson, also of the Ladies College, sang very sweetly the Song of Trust. Mrs. Charles Stewart also contributed a solo. The proceeds of the boxes amounted to over $20. At the close of the program refreshments were served and a pleasant time enjoyed.—St. John Telegraph.—Mrs. Dawson is well known here.

On Monday evening, Feb 7th, a number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of John Edward and Mrs Monaghan of Hillsboro, Lot 48, when a happy evening was spent in dancing and singing. While dancing was going on in the early part of the night a good supper was being prepared by Mrs Monaghan in her up-to-date style and was heartily partaken of by the guests present. After ample justice had been done to the refreshments the crowd repaired to the dancing room till the wee small hours of the morning when songs were rendered by Peter Dunn, Miss Lucy Gauthier, and Mrs Peter Gallant, after which the company dispersed much pleased with the night's enjoyment they had at the home of Mr and Mrs Monaghan. Com.

Schaefer, and Roy Colling was appointed to make the necessary arrangements for the dinner. Up to the present time the names of forty-five former P. E. Island men have been secured, and it is expected that the greater part of these will attend the dinner. It has been an interesting address. Miss Hazel Tait, of Mount Allison, gave a reading, which everyone appreciated, and Miss Patterson, also of the Ladies College, sang very sweetly the Song of Trust. Mrs. Charles Stewart also contributed a solo. The proceeds of the boxes amounted to over $20. At the close of the program refreshments were served and a pleasant time enjoyed.—St. John Telegraph.—Mrs. Dawson is well known here.

the Crapaud Dramatic Club played in the Hampton Hall Friday evening last before a full house. The play entitled The Valley Farm was again put before the people and when the curtain fell on the second act the applause sounded as though it came from a highly pleased and appreciative audience. Between the first and second acts The Old Oaken Bucket was sung as a quartette by Drs. Boyer, Black, Houston and A. G. Venning. Between the second and third acts Miss Helen Smith gave a solo which was encored. Between the third and fourth acts Perry Robble sang a solo entitled "Poor John" which was also encored. When the play had been finished and the curtain fell on the last act the applause could not be stopped until the curtain rose and the eleven actors joined with them in singing the National Anthem.

A Splendid Showing of Snappy Styles In Spring Clothing For Men

Just arrived fresh from the manufacturers hands—a dashing assortment of new spring clothing full of dash and go which well dressed men want— Their presence is a pleasing respite from the sombre colored and heavy garments of winter, a sight of them is as refreshing as a spring breeze.

We are not going to try to describe them in detail suffice to say, they are made in the smartest of the new spring styles and each garment is a master-piece of the clothing making art.

You've read and heard a lot about what is to be fashionable for spring wear, but now is the first opportunity to see the most favored styles. A word about prices are actually only half what any really good tailor will charge you. If you are some tailors customers just come in and let us show you through our stock, your own eyes—your own judgment—will convince you of the truthfulness of our claim.

Spring Wash Fabrics

First Showing of Tub Goods radiant with the Colorings and Beauty of Spring.

The song of the spring time is in every beautiful coloring and enchanting weave of these new goods.

They seem to tell the story that winter is not for long and a single glance at them will start visions of the new dresses for summer and what they shall be.

Newmuslins, Anderson's and other makes of fancy gingham, print cottons, fancy Foulards and other high grade weaves, are here, all in the colorings and weaves, upon which fashion has put her seal. Handsome fabrics as good as they are beautiful.

These early arrivals have been most alluringly priced so much so in fact, that we doubt if you will be able to resist their double appeal to your sense of beauty and to your purse. Come and delve among these exquisite goods for which the tub has no terrors. Buy or no buy, you will be made welcome.
