Young Peoples Rally At Mt. Herbert

A successful rally of the Young Peoples Societies of the Eastern Presbytery Y. P. U. was held in Mt. Herbert United Church on Friday afternoon, November 8th. The afternoon session opened at 7:30 p. m. with a service of worship conducted by members of Cherry Valley Y. P. U. under the leadership of Mrs. Everett MacDougall. The delegates were welcomed to Mt. Herbert Church by Winston Wood of Mt. Herbert Y. P. U. Rev. W. I. MacDonald of Elmdale United Church responded.

The business period followed presided over by the President, Mrs. Ralph Raynor. The minutes of the Spring Rally were read by the Presbytery Secretary, Miss Doris Crawford and approved as read. Mrs. Sterling Wood was appointed on the Press Committee.

Mr. Fulton Robertson was appointed chairman of the Resolutions Committee with Rev. W. I. MacDonald and Winston Wood. Rev. D. W. MacPherson from this Presbytery was nominated to serve on the P. E. I. Camp Site Committee. There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Resolved that the Eastern Presbytery Y. P. U. in conference assembled express its thanks to the session and minister of the Mt. Herbert United Church for making it possible for us to have our rally in their church and for the comfort we have enjoyed during our session.

Resolved that we express our thanks to Rev. J. M. Fraser for his splendid leadership and address given to us in the theme this afternoon, also Rev. Ira MacDonald for so willingly coming with us and delivering a fine, intelligent and helpful message and to all others who helped to make our rally a success.

Resolved that we express our heartfelt thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Raynor for the cordial hospitality of their home and to Mr. MacPherson and Mrs. Fraser for leading our time of Recreation and to the Mt. Herbert Y. P. U. for sponsoring this Rally.

Resolved that the greatest need of our Protestant churches especially in work among youth is to distinguish the vast difference between materialism and spiritualism.

Whereas there is an increasing tendency to secularize the Sabbath and to regard it as a day of rest in which we refrain from all but works of necessity and mercy. Resolved we urge upon our youth the desirability of total abstinence as the ideal for all church members.

Resolved that all church members refrain from all games of chance such as punch board and all games which are based on the chance of getting something for nothing.

The Roll Call revealed a good representation of the various unions. A report of National Council was given by Miss Edna Fraser of Montague and Mrs. Ralph Raynor.

The guest speaker for the evening Rev. W. I. MacDonald of Elmdale brought a splendid message based on the theme, "Christian Stewardship." He said in part, "By results and systematic giving of our time, talents and abilities in the belief that they are not our own but a trust from God to be used in the benefit of mankind."

The Rally closed with the hymn No. 378 followed by the benediction by the Honorary President, Rev. A. S. Weil of Vernon.

In loving memory of John J. MacDonald, who died November 22nd, 1941. Those whom we love go out of sight, But never out of mind; They are cherished in the hearts of those they leave behind.

Sadly Missed by His Wife and Family.

W.M.S. Celebrates 50th. Anniversary

On Sunday evening, October 27th the Women's Missionary Society of the Clyde River Baptist Church celebrated its 50th anniversary in the form of a Thanksgiving service. Mrs. Hugh MacMillan was its first president. Associated with her were Mrs. Alexander MacNeill, Mrs. Annabella Murray, Mrs. Donald MacNeil as officers. Mrs. John A. Murray and Mrs. Charles MacLean. During the service the present president, Mrs. Donald MacNeil, presided. Following a period of worship Miss Reta Crews read the history of the society. It was followed by the roll call and the congregation members and those who have gone to various localities to live. During the reading of the names of the departed ones the congregation arose. Two minutes silence was observed after which Mrs. Colin Fraser offered prayer and Mrs. Robert Macdonald sang "No Night There."

Honorable mention was made of Mrs. Charles MacLean, a charter member and Mrs. Colin Fraser, who gave fifty years of service to the W.M.S. in the form of floral bouquets presented by Mrs. George Gillespie after which the congregation joined in singing "Blest Be the Tie that Binds."

Mrs. A. E. Todd, the guest speaker of the evening gave an impressive address on "Stewardship." She ended it very fittingly with singing the hymn "Building Day by Day." The service closed with the benediction, offered by Rev. A. E. Todd.

A generous Thank-offering which included contributions in memory of loved ones was received.

A basket of beautiful flowers was placed in the church by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacMillan in memory of Mr. MacMillan's mother, the first president of the Society who presided in this capacity for fifteen years. Mrs. Heber MacPhail was organizer for the evening.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home where upwards of 100 well-wishers and dinner served. This pleasant duty was in charge of the bride's sister, Mrs. Murdoch McLeod. Later the happy hours were whiled away in singing and dancing. Those assisting in dispensing hospitality were: Pouring, Mrs. Wilfred Currie, Mrs. Angus Gilmore, Mrs. Garth Murray, Mrs. Sam Martin who were assisted by neighbors and friends.

After the reception and hearty congratulations the bride and groom said farewell and left by plane yesterday on a honeymoon trip.

Stewart-Furness Nuptials

Soft lights in a prettily decorated church made a lovely setting for the marriage in the Vernon River United Church on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. Beryl Frances Furness, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Furness, Vernon Bridge and Mr. Harold Preston Stewart of Eidsa, son of Mrs. H.M. Stewart, Charlottetown. The Rev. A. S. Weil, officiated.

The bride was most attractive in her gracefully flowing ivory satin wedding gown, on the Princess lines with sweetheart neckline and finger-tip veil which draped from a coronet of orange blossoms. With silver accessories, the bride carried an exquisite arm bouquet of chrysanthemums and wore a double string of pearls the gift of the groom's mother.

The groom was given in marriage by her father and was attended as bridesmaid by Miss Anne Furness and Miss Evelyn Stewart, who wore lovely gown of pink dotted Swiss net over satin with matching veils and carried pink carnations.

The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Phyllis Furness who wore salmon tulle with contrasting accessories and carried mums in an arm bouquet.

The groom was supported by his friend Dr. Howard Locke, of New Glasgow, N.S. The guests were ushered by Mr. Fred Furness and Mr. George Burnett.

During the reception Mrs. James Gillis sang the lovely nuptial solo "Because." She was accompanied by Mrs. A. S. Weil who also played during the church ceremony. Lohengrin's wedding march by Wagner, "Oh Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride's mother, Mrs. Furness was groomed in American Beauty silk crepe with black sequin trim and matching gloves and corsage.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Stewart chose a most becoming dress, black satin crepe with satin trim and fuchsia, accessories and corsage of cream roses.
