BULGARIAN (Continued from page 1) Bulgaria, he said, Germany claimed. Philoff said, that her task temporarily aims at safeguarding the peace of the Balkans. Soviet Attitude Bewildering The day of celebration served to stress the Bulgarian man-in-the-street's bewilderment at Soviet Russia's attitude over what has happened in his country. Wreaths were placed on the statue of Tsar Alexander who, with his imperial Russian armies, was Bulgaria's "liberator" from the Turks. Last week Communist peasant leaders urged their followers to oppose Nazi invasion by a campaign of propaganda and non-cooperation but cautioned against "forceful opposition." Now, however, most of these leaders are either in concentration camps or hiding in the hills. Prince Edward To Show "Four Mothers" Starting Today One of the happiest events of the winter film season takes place today, when "Four Mothers," latest of the Lemp family film stories, begins an engagement at the Prince Edward Theatre. As in the earlier stories, "Four Daughters" and "Four Wives," the cast is headed by Priscilla, Rosemary and Lola Lane, Gale Page, Jeffrey Lynn, Eddie Albert, Claude Rains, May Robson, Frank McHugh and Dick Foran. In "Four Mothers," however, there are some cast additions. Lola is the mother of twin girls, portrayed in the film by Barbara Ann and Ariene Lane. Priscilla's baby girl is played by Beverly Quintanilla, who made her debut as a baby in "Eddie Cantor's" "Perry Little Mothers." Gale Page's little daughter is played by Sharon Van. The new story, written by Stephen Morehouse Avery, and suggested by Fannie Hurst's book "Sister Act," takes the Lemp family through a family crisis that combines drama, bathos and humor in pretty much the same proportion that they occur in most families. For fun and humor, there are the babies, four one-year-olds, for drama, there is the financial crisis when the Florida real estate development into which the whole family has put their money fails. For bathos, there is the loss of Father Lemp's job at the Music Foundation, but this is more than made up for when he is invited to conduct the Beethoven festival in Chicago. To those who have followed the series, this newest adventure will come as a delightful treat, but newcomers to the Lemp family stories will also find "Four Mothers" a most interesting story that stands on its own. William Keikhey directed the film production. Included on the program are two short subjects, a Broadway Brevity and a Musical.

British take Important pass In Eritrea CAIRO, March 2 (AP)—British soldiers cloing in on Italian forces making a strong stand at Cheren, Italian Eritrea, have captured an "important pass" covering the approach to that vital junction point. British general headquarters announced today. The Royal Air Force aided the besiegers of Cheren by attacking enemy positions in the neighborhood. The air command aid in an accompanying communique. Cheren is the key to Asmara, capital of Italy's oldest colony and 43 miles from the scene of the fighting. British authorities also announced progress in operations in Ethiopia, where the native followers of Emperor Haile Selassie are cooperating in harassing the Italians, and in Italian Somaliland. The general headquarters communique said the troops in Ethiopia proceeded along the road to Gondar. "In the Gofjam (district) patriot (native Ethiopian) forces inflicted considerable losses on the Italian garrison at Burye which attempted a sortie with cavalry and infantry," the communique added. "Signs are apparent of further withdrawals of Italian posts in this region. With Mekele, capital of Ital-

CONFEDERATION LIFE INSURANCE. L-9789 STREETS BRING GRIEF TO MOTORISTS Charlottetown streets, especially the intersections, were bringing grief to motorists over the weekend. Many cars were stuck when wheels drapped into deep tracks. In some cases willing pedestrians assisted the luckless motorists but sometimes when no help was forthcoming a low car was called into action. Several more days of warm weather will improve conditions however.

ST. JAMES CHURCH Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather there was a good congregation at the morning service yesterday conducted by the Rev. Dr. Kier Fraser. He chose for his sermon the parable of the Foolish Virgins, and emphasized five defects of good people. The Anthem by the choir was "A Song of Peace" (Sibelius). In the evening Dr. Fraser dealt with some of the difficulties that try the faith of Christians, and how to overcome them. The anthem was Semper's "If Ye Love Me Keep My Commandments."

Missionary Tells of work In Formosa The Rev. Hugh MacMillan, missionary and general secretary of the Student Christian Movement, was the guest speaker last night at the regular student assembly in the service. The service was at St. Paul's Anglican church, the Rev. A. LeDrew Gardner assisted. Mr. MacMillan, president of the S.C.M. Unit at Prince of Wales College, described his work in Formosa and the work of the S.C.M. generally. He urged the local organization to send representatives to the March 10th meeting at University. He spoke also at a S.C.M. study group meeting at the Baptist church in the afternoon.

TURKS RESTRICT (Continued from page 1) into that vital zone. Presumably, however, it was a counter-action to Saturday's developments which put Bulgaria solidly in the Axis orbit and opened the Bulgarian frontier to Germany's legions. The Dardanelles and Bosphorus are of great military importance because they are the gates between the Mediterranean Sea, already a major theatre of the war, and the Black Sea, which Germany has reached through her occupation of Rumania. It was a weekend busy with diplomatic activity at Ankara with President Inonu keeping in close touch with his cabinet. The cabinet, with Inonu presiding, held an extraordinary session from late Friday night to the early hours of Saturday morning, presumably considering Bulgaria's new membership in the Axis three-power pact. Turkey is linked with Bulgaria in a two-week-old treaty of non-aggression and with Britain in a pledge of mutual assistance in the event of an act of "aggression" leading to war in the Mediterranean.

FORCER CATCHER DEAD NORCROSS, Ga., March 2 (AP)—Ivy Wingo, 50-year-old former big league baseball catcher, died here today. He played with the St. Louis Cardinals and Cincinnati Reds and was regular catcher on the Reds' world championship team of 1919.

RAMBLERS DOWN HORNETS PITTSBURGH, March 2 (CP)—Philadelphia's Ramblers, battling for a playoff spot in the American Hockey League, won their seventh game in eight starts Saturday night by scoring three goals in the last period to defeat Pittsburgh Hornets 3-1. The triumph put the Ramblers only two points away from a tie for third place in the league's eastern division.

LOOK OUT FOR YOUR LIVER Buck it up right now and feel like a million! Your liver is the largest organ in your body and most important to your health. It pours out bile to digest food, gets rid of waste, supplies new energy, allows proper nourishment to reach your blood. When your liver gets out of order food decomposes in your intestines. You become constipated, stomach and kidneys can't work properly. You feel "rotten"—headachy, backachy, dizzy, dragged out all the time. For over 35 years thousands have won prompt relief from these miseries—with Fruit-A-Tives. So can you. Try Fruit-A-Tives—you'll be simply delighted how quickly you'll feel like a new person, happy and well again. 25c, 50c.

British Planes (Continued from page 1) in a brief communique. The night's work was described as "successful." The Nazis pounded scattered sections of Britain Saturday night, killing some persons, but doing little damage. One German bomber was destroyed over Scotland and its crew captured. In the midst of the customarily terse communique of the Air Ministry, its news service gave this picture of devastation wrought on Cologne by the R.A.F. "On both sides of the Rhine and on wharves along its banks huge industrial buildings were ablaze. In the midst of the night there often were explosions and in one fire which burned a dark and sultry red there were explosions every 20 seconds." In Saturday night and early Sunday raids on England, the Air and Home Security ministries said an east coast town was attacked and a number of houses damaged. "There also was considerable enemy activity in other parts of the country and damage was done in several places—but was not very heavy at any of them. Casualties were few. The number of non-combatants killed, but a small number of persons were killed." The joint report announced

Maritime Catholic Students convene At St. Dunstan's With the Maritime Regional Convention in full swing, five of the seven phases of Student-Leadership under consideration at the conference presented was "Concrete College Action" by Raymond Riley, of the Canadian Federation of Catholic College Students, already have been dealt with. On Saturday the first paper presented was "Concrete College Action" by Raymond Riley, of St. Joseph's University. This was followed by a paper by Edmund Morris of Dalhousie University on the "Problems of Newman Clubs," another paper by Rod MacMullin of St. Francis Xavier University on the "Role of the Student in the Co-operative Movement," and a fourth paper by George Hodgson of St. Joseph's University on "Student-Faculty Co-operation." All papers were followed by a lively discussion of the subjects dealt with, and many useful recommendations were made.

Rod MacMullin, in the introduction of his paper, paid the following tribute to the Regional Libraries of Prince Edward Island: "We have heard of the regional libraries that you have in Prince Edward Island and know that it is a great tribute to the leaders and the people of this part of our country. It is a very important part of our adult education movement—one that is absolutely necessary, and which I hope will continue to succeed and spread and give the people the necessary foundation to build a better social order." On Saturday morning the visiting delegates were guests of the St. Dunstan's students at the S.D.U.-P.W.C. hockey game.

Sunday morning's session opened with Solemn High Mass which was attended by visiting delegates. Rev. J. E. Haney, Ph.D., celebrated the Mass and was assisted by Rev. G. J. Harrington, Ph.D., as co-celebrant, and Rev. W. F. McGinnis, C.S.C., D.D. A very inspiring sermon was preached by Rev. E. L. Burns, S.J., Ph.D., who emphasized the paramount importance of the Christian Leadership as a solution to present-day problems. Right Rev. Msgr. J. Murphy, D.D., D.P.F., assisted in the solemn Mass. The Rev. W. F. McGinnis, C.S.C., D.D., presided in the evening was Rev. W. F. McGinnis, C.S.C., D.D. A very interesting paper was given on Sunday by Rev. J. E. Haney, Ph.D., on "Sunday at St. Thomas University in which he dealt very ably with the problem of vocational guidance in the college. The afternoon sessions were devoted to executive and committee meetings of the Regional Council of Catholic Colleges. St. Dunstan's was selected as the site of the next convention. War Savings Drive Making Excellent Progress In Prince Co. From Prince County comes encouraging reports of the activities of the different War Savings Committee.

In Summerside Mr. Peter G. Clark, Chairman, says that canvassers have done good work. There are still some pledges to come in but the total number reported to Ottawa on Friday night was in excess of Summerside's quota. This is a very creditable showing especially in view of the fact that old pledges reported were not counted. The 900 odd pledges reported were all new. Mr. J. A. Bernard, Chairman, who is Chairman for that district has forwarded a satisfactory report to Ottawa and has requested from Charlottetown further supplies. Mr. Howard Clark, Chairman for Alberton also reports a good response from the people. The same report comes from Tyne Valley where Thomas Nibbet is Chair-

In Memoriam We do not forget you Ledwell, we loved you too dearly. For your memory to fade our lives like a dream. Are a pleasure to recall when our hearts mourn sincerely. For those who dwell when it seldom is seen. As time goes on we miss him more. The blow was hard, the shock severe. To part with him we loved so dear so quick, so quiet was the end. His sudden death surprised us all. Though his smile has gone forever. And his hand we cannot touch. We shall never lose sweet memories. Of the one we loved so much. His smiling way, his pleasant face. Are a pleasure to recall when we think of him. He had a kindly word for each. And died beloved by all. Some day we hope to meet him. To clasp his hand in the better land. Never to part again. His faint last words. We would like to have heard. And breathed in his ear one last parting word. Only these who have lost are able to tell. The pain of the heart in not saying farewell. Inserted by his Mother, Father and Family.

In Memoriam In loving memory of our dear son, Everett Heber Gamble, who passed away March 3rd, 1937. Our hearts still ache with sadness. The eyes shed many a tear. God alone knows how we miss you. As there dawns another year. Inserted by Father, Mother, Sister and Brothers. L-322-3-3-11.
