Hoot GIBSON
"Galloping Fury"

CAPITOL TOMORROW

Fighting, smiling, riding, rooting Hoot in a lickety-split tale of speed and romance that will leave you breathless. What a thrill when Hoot snatches his beautiful sweetheart from the horns of a snorting, wild-eyed bull. What riding when Hoot races with time to the rescue of his lovable old foreman. What laughs when the leather-necked cowboys doll themselves up with beauty clay. What a picture. Only Peter B. Kyne could write such a beaut.

Y. P. P. GROUP MEETS.—The Young People's Progressive Group of Cavendish and North Rustico continues to have its usual interesting meetings. One new feature was added in December when it was decided to have half an hour of Bible Study during the Devotional Period each night; this consists of questions given the previous week and discussion on the various answers and is proving quite successful. An interesting program in December consisted of a paper entitled "Canada since Confederation," and a "Know Canada" contest. On December 21st an enjoyable social evening was held at the home of Mrs. Gaudet, 241 Euston Street, where the group played "Santa Pals" to several poor children and has contributed to various charitable organizations. It is now looking forward to a successful year in 1928.

SOCIAL EVENING — A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gaudet, 24 Euston Street, on Friday, 6th inst when a card party was held in honour of their son, Euclid, previous to his return to St. Joseph's University, Memorial, where he is in the arts course. A large number of young people, friends of Euclid, were present. The earlier part of the evening was agreeably spent by the company at cards. Shortly after eleven o'clock a delicious lunch was served, after which the merry young people all repaired to the large and well-appointed drawing room, where a few hours were delightfully spent in vocal and instrumental music. Mrs. Gaudet, who is a talented musician presided at the piano, the greatest number of the guests joining in the music. Thus the hours were joyfully whittled away, and the time for the guests to take their leave arrived all too soon. Mr. and Mrs. Gaudet

For Scalds or Burns.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is a standard remedy for the prompt treatment of scalds and burns. Its healing power quickly soothes the pain and aids a speedy recovery from the injury. It is also an excellent remedy for all manner of cuts, bruises and sprains, as well as for relieving the pains arising from inflammation of various kinds.
