MALPEQUE

Miss Beatrice Campbell of Burlington, spent the week end with friends in Malpeque.

Mrs. Clifford Rogers and Lon Wendall, of Linkletter, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arch. Woodside.

Miss Ida Toombs, Stenographer at Peter MacNutt and son, spent the week end her home in Rustico.

Messrs. Elmer Dunning and Wm. Ready, of Charlottetown, were here on Thursday on a business trip.

The races under the auspices of the Malpeque Driving Club were not held on Wednesday, but have been postponed waiting better ice conditions.

The young people of Lot 14 United Church, who purposed giving the play entitled "The Folly of His Crime" in Malpeque Hall, were unable to fulfill their engagement owing to sickness among their number.

Mr. Wesley Coles of Spring Valley, who had the contract of moving the house owned by Mr. James MacKinnon, Malpeque Corner, is to be congratulated on the manner in which the work was done. The house is now placed north of the "Forge" where Mr. Edward Manderson formerly lived.

The young people of Princetown United Church, numbering about fifty-three in all, were royally entertained by the young people of Lot 16 United Church in their hall on Thursday evening, March 21st. A splendid programme was carried out, contests, games and music were enjoyed, and a delicious repast was partaken of. A vote of thanks was moved by Mr. W. C. Donald, seconded by Mr. Frank Bearsto and conveyed to the entertainers for the social evening, which had passed so pleasantly.

The Ladies Aid of Keir Memorial Church held a successful social evening on Tuesday, March 19th, in Malpeque Hall. Mr. Charles Woodside presided during the rendering of the programme. A contest followed and was much enjoyed. Ice cream, sandwiches and cake were served and the amount of about thirty dollars was realized. The following is the programme:

Instrumental music—Mr. Charles Woodside and Miss Mae Belle Woodside.

Reading—Miss Jean Craig.

Trilo—Misses Adele and Cora Champion and Mary Hickey.

Reading—Miss Cora Champion.

Duet—Messrs Charles Woodside and Parmenius Phillips.

Reading—R. H. Abbott.

Instrumental music—Miss Mae Belle Woodside and Mr. Charles Woodside.

What proved to be a very regrettable accident occurred during the drive to Lot 16 on Thursday evening. Mr. Ralph Bryenton, leaving somewhat later than the rest of the party endeavored to overtake them, thereby losing a valuable horse. Although the accident greatly lessened the zest with which the young people would otherwise have entered into the enjoyment of the evening, yet the old saying "There is nothing so bad but that it might be worse" held true. For it is pleasing to report that at least none of our young people were missing on their return, and Ralph was here to receive a glad welcome among the others. M

Mount Stewart Notes

Mrs. Hugh Sheehan and family have the sympathy of the community on the death of their husband and father who departed this life on March the twenty second (22) and whose funeral took place to St. Andrew's Church where services were by his pastor Rev. A. P. McEllan, after which the remains of the kind and loving father were tenderly laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

The Misses Bessy McAnsey and Violet Affleck are visiting their aunt at Morell.

The Misses Mary McDonald and Bessie McLeod, teacher's here, attended the teacher's meeting in Charlottetown on Friday, March 22.

Mr. J. J. McIntyre, Prohibition Officer in Charlottetown, spent the week end at his home here.

EVERY 3000 MILES
..... change your grease!
THE first thing about lubrication is to realize that changing the grease in your transmission and differential is just as important as changing your oil. Changing your oil regularly will take you only half way along the road to correct lubrication—changing your grease will complete the trip.
Eliminate imperfect lubrication and you eliminate 75% to 80% of the cause of repair bills. Worn out grease means imperfect lubrication and the safest precaution is to have your grease changed regularly every 3000 miles. Don't forget that "One pound of fresh grease added to 4 pounds of worn grease, equals 5 pounds of old grease."
When you change be sure you get WHIZ GEAR GREASE—for WHIZ GREASE is all pure lubricant.
