Don't make any engagements for next Thursday night. Remember that is the night of the concert in Hartz's Hall, and you can't afford to miss it, considering the drive, etc.

I. O. G. T.—Pownal District Lodge, No. 3, I. O. G. T., will meet in annual session in Campbell's Hall, Pownal, on March 25 h. Business session will open at 1.30 p. m. All lodges in the District are requested to send a full representation. There will be a public meeting at night in the Pownal Hall to which everyone is invited.

THE Boston correspondent of the St. John Sun notes the death at Dorchester district, on March 8 h, of Mrs. Jennie Stailing, widow of Richard Stailing, aged 90 years. 10 months, formerly of St. John and P. E. I., and in Somerville, on March 5th, Mary McKenna, wife of James McKenna and daughter of the late John Farrell, of P. E. I.

NEXT Friday night, March 2nd, in the Skating Rink, there will be a night of Junior Hockey. Admission only 10c. The Anchors will play the Y. M. C. A. club and the West Kent will play the Junior Abegweits. There will be no fooling and these youngsters, they always play the game for all it is worth. These are the coming hockeyists of our city and it will be worth while to see them play.

THE Loyal Crusaders had a royal time last evening with Orient Division of the Sons of Temperance. The Division room never was so crowded. The programme consisted of temperance songs, recitations and a first class dialogue. At the close short complimentary addresses were given by Messrs Mellish, Crabbe, Ross and Hodgson, after which the 95 children present renewed their pledge of total abstinence and the meeting closed in due form. Miss Annie Elliott made an excellent organist.

A LARGE and fashionable audience assembled at the Opera House last evening to witness the thrilling four act drama, A Celebrated Case, presented by the B. I. S., under the distinguished patronage of the Lieut. Governor. The scene of the prologue of this play took place in the village of Montagne, supposed to be the day after the battle of Fontenoy. The scene of the remaining four acts was laid near Toulon, France and the different actors took their parts admirably. Mr. William Brown, who was the hero of the evening; Mr. P. J. Trainor who personated Count D. Aubeterre and Miss Ida Doyle each acted with exceedingly good effect. Mr. Patrick McQuillan kept the audience in continuous laughter during his every appearance. Little Rosa Ryan showed good talent in the part taken by her, and in fact all performed very creditably. Prof. Vinnicombe's orchestra rendered several sweet Irish melodies and the League of the Cross Band also furnished some appropriate music during one of the scenes. The management are deserving of congratulations for the manner in which this play was presented and no doubt a full house would greet them on another appearance.

YESTERDAY morning at 9.30 a large number of the B. I. S. and the A. O. H., preceded by Galbraith's and the League of the Cross Band, left the B. I. S. hall on Kent Street, paraded down Queen and along Richmond to Great George, thence to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, where solemn High Mass was sung by Rev. A. P. McLellan, of St. Dunstan's College, assisted by Rev. Dr. Monaghan as Deacon, and Rev. Dr. Curran, as Sub Deacon. Rev. Dr. Morrison was Master of Ceremonies. His Lordship Bishop McDonald occupied a seat on the throne assisted by Father Clarke, of Boston, and Rev. J. C. Macmillan of Cardigan. At the close of mass the Papal benediction was given to all present. The sermon of the day was preached by Rev. P. D. McGuigan, who took for his text Esther. VI-7: "Honor is he worthy of whom the king (or kings) hath a mind to honor." After service the procession, in charge of Chief Marshal Connolly, of the Benevolent Irish Society, who was mounted on horseback, reformed and paraded the following streets: Up Great George to Richmond, along Richmond to Queen, up Queen to Kent, along Kent to Prince, down Prince to Water, along Water to Queen, up Queen to A. O. H. hall, where that society separated, the B. I. S. proceeding to their hall on Kent street.

BAND at the Rink this afternoon.

THE Stanley did not leave Pictou yesterday, owing the thick weather.

THE mother's study class will meet at the Kindergarten rooms this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

THE provincial legislature will open on April 17th. This was decided upon by the Executive yesterday afternoon.

MR. A. DOWN, who has been suffering with la grippe for some days, is improving slowly, but is still confined to his house.

MR. J. K. McINNIS, mayor of Regina, and editor of the Standard, is in the city, a guest at the Leland.—Manitoba Free Press, Mar. 10th.

ABOUT one hundred of the P. W. C. students celebrated St. Patrick's yesterday by taking in the sights, attending the services in the Cathedral and filling the air with their college yells.

THE ice boats left Cape Tormentine at 11.20 o'clock yesterday morning and arrived on this side at about 5 p. m., bringing 43 bags of mail and leaving 11 behind. There was no crossing from this side as all the boats were at Tormentine. The mail arrived in this city about 10 o'clock last night.

ON Monday evening the young Endeavorers of the First Methodist church invite their friends to an old time social in the schoolroom of the church. The names of the performers have already been announced. The program is an excellent one; and ice cream and cake, and home-made candy will be on sale during the evening.

THE Provincial Government is having two new vaults placed in the Land Office in the Provincial Building, which are to be used in connection with the Department of Agriculture, which department will take the place of the Land Office, about to go out of existence. The steel doors for the vaults have been ordered from Toronto and the work will be completed in about three months time.

3 lots of manufacturers, samples of Blouses "no two alike" marked to sell quick at Sentner, McLeod & Co's.

Everyone talking about the pretty new Spring Goods at Sentner, McLeod & Co's store, and no wonder for we can safely say that never before in the history of Charlottetown has there been such a handsome display of spring novelties at this season of the year. Orders for Easter Hats and Bonnets are coming in rapidly and "Miss Murnyan who has just returned with her head brim full of new ideas" from visiting some of the most fashionable millinery resorts is now prepared to fill all orders in first-class style. All work guaranteed. Sentner, McLeod & Co.

Fashions form — Charlottetown's Fashion Bureau — "MY STORE"

We invite every lady to visit our store, walk through, examine the new things in every department and our staff will be pleased to show you whether you buy or not—Sentner, McLeod & Co.

Charlottetown's beauty spot is the name given to Sentner, McLeod & Co's Dry Goods Store by a St. John lady who recently spent a few weeks in our city.

This week is no exception to the rule as the artistic arrangements of new Spring goods of all kinds remind one of the balmy days of June rather than the bleak winds of March.

Complexion. This is the worst month of the year on complexion. Sentner, McLeod & Co. have received the new things in veilings for Spring.

"The handsomest goods I ever saw in Charlottetown" is what a lady said to her companion while walking through Sentner, McLeod & Co's store, yesterday. "What a change has taken place, she remarked." Only a few weeks ago everything in this department was furs, but now you see such lovely Blouses, Wrappers and Skirts and the Millinery Department is now filled with handsome new Straw Hats."

Miss Murnyan who has just returned from abroad where she has been attending the Millinery openings and taking instruction from Mlle Belanger is now prepared to take orders for Easter Millinery. We have just opened six cases of Millinery including the new things for Trimmings in American, English and French Novelties. Sentner, McLeod & Co.

If you want style, value and assortment, visit Sentner, McLeod & Co's Blouse Department.

The subject under discussion last night at the P. W. C. Debating Club was "Which power is the more useful at the present time, steam or electricity?" The debate was opened by Mr. W. Tanton taking the side of electricity. Mr. O. Horne replied taking the side of steam. A large number of speakers took part on each side, and their speeches showed considerable elocutionary and reasoning talent. There will only be one more debate before the Easter holidays.

MR. MICHAEL McMAUS of New Haven, met with a very serious accident on Wednesday last. While at mudding he was holding his horse by the head when the animal became frightened at something and started to run away. Jumping upon him and tramping on his head and body, the beast so injured Mr. McMaus that he now lies in bed in a critical condition. Drs. Conroy of Charlottetown, and Murchison of New Haven, are attending the wounded man. At latest reports yesterday he was doing fairly well.

THE special train from Cape Traverse, left there at 3.25 p. m. yesterday and was detained by snow on the track, only reaching Emerald at 8 o'clock last evening and arrived in this city at 10 p. m. She left on return shortly afterwards with the mail for the Capes.—The train from the west which only got as far as Alberton on the previous day, reached Tignish yesterday at 1.30 p. m. She left Tignish at 2.35 and owing to snow-drifts in the cuttings between Tignish and Bloomfield did not reach here until about midnight. The train from Charlottetown was two and a half hours late in arriving at Tignish. All the other trains on the P. E. I. railway had no difficulty. The track is now all clear.
