

Says Union Jack is Out of Place

QUEBEC, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Rev. Joseph Perland, Parish Priest of St. Roch's Church in Quebec's lower town, said in an interview today that the Union Jack "is out of place in French-Canadian churches and never again will I allow it to enter my church."

FOR ADDED WARMTH Tiles set at a slight distance from exterior walls of early Roman buildings kept interiors warm and dry by allowing air to circulate between the layers.

Scout News and Notices

Attention Scouts and Cubs of P.E.I.

After a lapse of several weeks, this Column is now back again, reporting the doings of Troops and Packs to Scouts and Cubs all over the Island.

By the first of October, most Troops and Packs will be back in the swing of scouting (someone told us that when Scouting was spelled with a small "s", it included Cubbing, so when you see the word "scouting", you'll know Cubbing is included.)

After the energetic and inspiring Camps that were held this summer, Scouts and Cubs and Leaders should be in fine fettle to swing into a grand season of scouting. From what we can pick up, a lot of the leaders have interesting and varied programs lined up for you with a lot of work, and a lot more fun and adventure.

Governor-General's Visit This is the first public appearance of Scouts and Cubs for this season, and while no Troops or Packs have organized themselves into meeting yet this fall, a goodly attendance of FULLY UNIFORMED Scouts and Cubs is expected to turn out ONLY Scouts and Cubs in FULL uniform will meet at the Market Square at 9:45 Monday morning, the 23rd of September.

Lord Rowellan's Visit Lord Rowellan, who as you all know is the Chief Scout of the British Empire, will be on the Island October 22nd, 23rd, and 24th, and we will keep you informed on the plans for his program, so in the meantime, Scouts and Cubs, start reading this Scout Column... YOUR COLUMN... regularly on Saturdays...

Camp Qualla-Walla News One of the most successful Scout Camps held on P. E. I. this year was held at Camp Qualla-Walla South Shore from August 22nd to September 3rd. This was the eighth registered Scout camp held on the Island this year.
