NICHOLSON-MacDONALD WEDDING

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday, July 19th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Macdonald, Thistle and Shamrock, when their daughter Sadie Anna was united in marriage to Peter Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Nicholson, Hartville. The bride was tastefully decorated, wearing a two-piece street-length dress of Queen's blue crepe with matching floral head-dress and veil, the bride looked very lovely. Her only ornaments were a gold set-in turquoise stone bracelet with matching ear-rings, the gift of the groom.

Miss Jeanette MacDonald, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and was gowned in pale rose crepe with harmonizing accessories. Little Miss Alberta Todd, niece of the bride, gowned in pink and white, carried out the duties of flower girl. The groom was ably supported by his cousin, Mr. Lloyd Nicholson. During the signing of the register Mr. Donald Nicholson was singing the marriage hymn, "O Perfect Love". A sumptuous wedding supper was partaken of by some thirty guests, the table being centered with two beautiful wedding cakes artistically decorated and topped with miniature bride and groom.

Those assisting in serving were Mrs. D. J. MacDonald and the Misses Joyce Nicholson and Margaret MacDonald.

Rev. W. B. MacPhail proposed the toast to the bride, which was fittingly responded to by the groom. After the supper Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson, amid showers of confetti, left on a trip to New York, Boston and Quincy. During their two week stay they visited many friends and relatives. On their return they will make their home in Albany where the groom is employed as section foreman on the C.N.R. Prior to her marriage the bride was an efficient school teacher and also spent some years in Ottawa employed by the R.C.A.F. Headquarters.

All the little friends of Cedric Arsenault of Duvar are hoping for his speedy recovery. Cedric is at present very ill, suffering from a case of blood poisoning, in the O'Leary Hospital.

Friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. Frank Richard recently to congratulate Mary Richard on his 70th birthday. Though 70 years of age, he is in perfect health and takes an active part in any community affair. He was the recipient of many gifts. The evening was very well spent with wonderful music given by Mrs. Hector Richard, Howlan, violinist, and Freddie Jones, Plusville, as guitar player. Later a delicious lunch was served after which all returned home wishing Mr. Richard many more happy birthdays.

St. Anthony's Catholic Church was the scene of a pretty wedding recently when Rev. E. Robin united in holy matrimony Mary Leona, youngest daughter of Frank Richard of Duvar, to George Clements, adopted son of Mr. Emmanuel Clements. The bride looked lovely dressed in a floor-length white satin dress with sweetheart neckline and pointed sleeves. She wore a shoulder-length veil. The bridesmaid also looked lovely in a light blue floor-length dress with long full sleeves. The groom was attended by Elmer Richard of Howlan. After the marriage ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home where numerous gifts were given them, a proof of the esteem in which they were held in the community. The young couple will reside in Charlottetown where the groom is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Peters and daughter Gloria, from Salisbury Beach, Mass., were recent visitors to Mr. and Mrs. Guss Peters' Duvar. Also accompanying them was Charles S. Chaisson from Newburyport, Mass., and formerly a native of Miscou Island, N. B. They reported seeing many improvements on the Island but stated there were many tourists that were protesting the condition of the by-roads leading from the Western Road, now called Route No. 2. They have found the road from Alberton to Tignish in a terrible condition. Mr. Peters stated that there were many tourists from the U.S. wanted to come to the Island but when told about the road conditions and actually saw the red clay on the cars that had been here, it had discouraged them. They hope that the roads will be improved shortly so that they can have their many friends follow them on a visit here. Many Islanders want to visit every year but they find that their stay is not enjoyed due to the condition of the roads. Du-

C. W. L. MEETING

The first monthly meeting, after the summer recess of the Catholic Women's League was held in St. Mary's Convent on Tuesday evening, Sept. 9th, at 8 p. m. with 20 members present including two from the Souris River unit.

The President, Mrs. Mulia V. opened the meeting with the League Prayer. In the absence of the Recording Secretary, the corresponding Secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting. The Treasurer, Mrs. John J. MacDonald read the financial statement and reported a bank balance of $116.00 to the credit of the League.

Letters from Mt. St. Mary's and Precious Blood Sisters were received thanking the society for contributions received also a letter of thanks from Mrs. Alex Paquet. It was decided to purchase lamps for St. Mary's Hall to be used in case of emergency.

The President then gave a very pleasing account of the League Convention held in Charlottetown in August and expressed a wish that as many members as possible make an effort to attend the 1948 convention in order to appreciate the wonderful work accomplished by the League in P. E. Island.

A vote of thanks was tendered the President for her report by Mrs. Emmet Pierce. No further business the meeting adjourned with prayer.

HOUSTON-STEVENSON WEDDING

The marriage took place at the Christian Church Parsonage, New Glasgow, on Wednesday morning August 6th, of Miss Muriel Estie Jennie Stevenson, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Stevenson, Hazel Grove, to Mr. Lloyd George Houston, only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Houston of Mayfield. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Hayer.

The bride wore a queen blue crepe dress with large picture hat and coat to match and corsage of pink carnations. The bridesmaid was Miss Alma Rollings, an intimate friend of the bride. She was attired in lime green with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations. The groom was supported by Mr. Leith Orr. The groom's gift to the bride was a sapphire brooch, to the bridesmaid brilliant earrings, and to the groom a leather billfold.

The wedding party returned in the evening to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous buffet luncheon was served to upwards of fifty invited guests. The rooms were decorated in pink and white with a profusion of cut flowers and potted plants. Large vases of flowers were arranged on the table, centered with a beautifully decorated wedding cake, topped off with a miniature bride and groom.

After the bride had cut the first piece of cake it was cut by Miss Jennie Gass, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Harland Hill poured the groom, Lea Warren, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Revel Dickleson cut the cake. Those assisting in serving were Mrs. Harry Craswell, Mrs. Duncan Nicholson, Mrs. Aiden Buchanan, Mrs. Arthur Houston, Mrs. Stephen Bertram, Mrs. George Buchanan, and Mrs. William Houston. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Houston was entertained and lavishly showered with lovely gifts both at her own home and at New Glasgow, among them being a chest of silver from Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dickleson in whose store she was the popular and efficient saleslady for the past four and a half years. Mr. and Mrs. Houston will reside in Mayfield, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.
