

FILMS DEVELOPED AND PRINTED
ENLARGEMENTS PHOTOGRAPHS
Craswell Studio
137 Great George St.

Investment Bonds
Government, Municipal and Corporation Bonds Bought and Sold. Particulars on request.
A. E. MacNEILL
137 Pownall Street
Phone 704-L

Electors Notice
To the Electors of Ward Three, Ladies and Gentlemen:
At the request of a number of the electors of Ward Three, I have decided to nominate as a candidate for Councillor in the coming civic election. Realizing the fact that our taxes are now high enough economy will be my watchword.
Should you promise to honor my election I promise to do my utmost for the benefit of our city and Ward Three especially.
Respectfully yours,
F. R. McLAIN

CURLING
Tuesday night at the Curling Club the senior challenge trophy of P. T. Watkins' curling team, last year's holders.
Skip Gordon Hughes apparently had his eye on the silverware as his stone wielders never worked to better advantage and throughout the contest had things all their own way, and it took as long as 100 minutes to decide the winner of the coveted mug changes over.
The following are the teams:
Victors Vanquished
Dr. McIntyre C. C. Toombs
A. Scott
G. G. Hughes
Skip
W. Taylor
W. F. Spillert
R. E. Spillert
F. T. Watkins
Skip

WRIGHT TROPHY COMPETITION
The following are the skip results of the last two matches played in Wright trophy competition:
January 29th
Houston—15 Ebers—9
Hyndman—9 Beyer—3
Hughes—10 W. A. Stewart—12
McLain—13 Leigh—6
Titus—7 D. B. Stewart—8

February 1st
Grant—4 Spillert—13
Prowse—8 Moore—5
Black—13 Watkins—10
Titus—7 Beyer—10
McNeil—9 Hyndman—8
Scott—6 Goodwill—9

The following are the skip scores made in last Saturday's Bonspiel. It may be noticed that the Easterners are leading with a total score of 156 to 146—two bonspiels. The final tilt will take place next Saturday, with the usual supper and other festivities.
The Scores.
East West
Spillert 10 Ebers 9
Ligh 15 Prowse 2
Whear 17 Watkins 5
Goodwill 10 D. B. Stewart 9
Fraser 10 W. A. Stewart 9
Moore 8 Hyndman 10
McLain 11 Beyer 11
McMillan 11 Houston 5
Hughes 4 McKinnon 16
Total—93 Total 75
Last week's scores were: East 63; West, 71; making in all a total of 156 East; 164 West.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
FOR ALL KIDNEY DISEASE
RHEUMATISM
BRIGHT'S DISEASE
DIABETES
GRAVEL
4087 THE PRINCE OF WELLES ST.

Sun Spots Blamed For Atlantic Storm
(Canadian Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Sun spots are given as the cause of the severe Atlantic storm by Captain N. Johnson, commander of the liner Columbus, which docked here yesterday, 36 hours overdue from Bremen. The ship had continuous bad weather with 30 foot waves and violent gales.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS
One Insertion ..... 10c per line of 5 words
Four Insertions ..... 35c per line of 5 words
Eight Insertions ..... 70c per line of 5 words

Miscellaneous
JNO. A. McDONALD, LAND SURVEYOR, HORMANVILLE. 7106-9-1-1m
FOXES ESCAPED - FROM MY ranch Friday, Jan. 29th, male and female. Both registered Canadian National. Anyone seeing the foxes or can catch them alive please notify by phone at once. Identification letter E. D. L. right ear. Reward offered.—Russell Cox, Morell. 7522-2-2-31

For Sale
FOR SALE—TWO COOKING ranges with reservoirs. Apply 89 Rochford St. 7544-2-4-21
FOR SALE—PLOT OF LAND with building on Main St., also plot with buildings corner of School and Nelson St., Montague. Apply to John Wightman, 6 Sherwood Rd., Weymouth, Mass. 7849-1-21-41

Grownups Invited to Tobogganing Party
Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. all the grownups are invited to a tobogganing party by the local "Y". The party will either walk out or drive whichever the participants desire.
A number of toboggans are provided but if you have one not working bring it along.
Come one come all, the more the merrier and give this excellent and invigorating sport a boost.

Exceptional Bowling
Last night on the Y. M. C. A. Alleys the following score was made by Mr. F. B. Conrad:
1 2 3 4 5
30 75 120 161 191
217 247 277 304 330

Totals that give over the three hundred mark, as all bowlers are aware, are made only seldom. Mr. Conrad is a member of the "Y" team, which bowls in the International Tournament on the fifteenth and if he can be taken as a criterion of the remaining members of this aggregation, there can be no doubt but the "Y" bowlers will hold its own in the coming contests.

THE MARKETS
(Canadian Press)
OTTAWA, Feb. 3.—Six cars of states fresh have arrived on the Toronto market during the last three days. States fresh are selling on the Toronto market today at 39 cents. Toronto to market, wholesale extras 45 to 46, firsts 41 to 42, seconds 33.
Montreal, an easier feeling prevails on this market due to the heavier receipts of fresh. There is a steady demand for supplies for immediate consumption. One car of Manitoba fresh arrived this week. Manitoba and Saskatchewan markets remain unchanged. Edmonton steady, receipts light. Dealers are paying country points, extras 25, firsts 25, seconds 20. Poultry is unchanged. Vancouver fresh firm, prices country points extras 30, firsts 28, jobbing extras 33 to 35, firsts 21 to 23, seconds and pullets 26 to 28. Halifax, N. S. no local fresh arriving this week.
MONTREAL, Feb. 3.—The domestic cash grain was again quiet today, the demand being restricted to odd lots while prices were firm. The tone of the flour market was about steady and prices were unchanged with little business done. The winter wheat market showed no developments. Business was somewhat limited in character with prices about steady and unchanged. The tone of the market for mill feed continues steady and prices show no change. Little business was done on the haled hay market, prices being about steady and unchanged. There was no further development in the fresh egg situation, the price being about steady with little business done. Storage eggs were weaker scoring a decline of one cent to 3 cents per dozen. Sales of extras in a jobbing way were made at 35 cents firsts 27 cents and seconds 22 cents per dozen. The market for Quebec potatoes remains unchanged with prices as quoted yesterday. The under tone to the butter market remains very firm with prices unchanged and little business passing. The cheese market showed no change with prices the same as yesterday.

PERSONALS
Mr. Frank Tremere, Hampshire, was a visitor to the City yesterday.
Mr. Alex. McDonald, formerly of Dorchester, Mass., who is spending a few weeks on the island visiting his father, returned to West Roxbury, Mass., on Saturday.
Mr. Harry Moore, Milton was a passenger on the express train last evening to enter the P. E. Island Hospital for an operation for appendicitis. He was accompanied by Mr. Wallace MacNeill.

CHALLENGE
We, the Windjammers do hereby challenge the Cornwall Polar Bears to a friendly game of hockey to be played on the Cornwall rink as soon as possible Saturday evening preferred. Answer through this paper.
MAURICE BLOK (Capt.)
LINE UP
Goal—W. MacEwen
Defense—Goss, Blok
Forwards—Holl, Squarebriggs, Caronell.
Subs—Inman, MacMillan.

Challenge
We, the Windjammers do hereby challenge the Cornwall Polar Bears to a friendly game of hockey to be played on the Cornwall rink as soon as possible Saturday evening preferred. Answer through this paper.
MAURICE BLOK (Capt.)
LINE UP
Goal—W. MacEwen
Defense—Goss, Blok
Forwards—Holl, Squarebriggs, Caronell.
Subs—Inman, MacMillan.

Challenge
We, the Windjammers do hereby challenge the Cornwall Polar Bears to a friendly game of hockey to be played on the Cornwall rink as soon as possible Saturday evening preferred. Answer through this paper.
MAURICE BLOK (Capt.)
LINE UP
Goal—W. MacEwen
Defense—Goss, Blok
Forwards—Holl, Squarebriggs, Caronell.
Subs—Inman, MacMillan.

Challenge
We, the Windjammers do hereby challenge the Cornwall Polar Bears to a friendly game of hockey to be played on the Cornwall rink as soon as possible Saturday evening preferred. Answer through this paper.
MAURICE BLOK (Capt.)
LINE UP
Goal—W. MacEwen
Defense—Goss, Blok
Forwards—Holl, Squarebriggs, Caronell.
Subs—Inman, MacMillan.

Central Guardian
PROF. G. D. STEEL LECTURES this evening in the Caledonian Hall, Subject: "Letters of Charles Lamb." 7550

LEAVES FOR MONCTON.—Mr. P. W. Turner leaves this morning for Moncton where he has been called to confer with the General Sales Manager of the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company whose product his firm handles for the Maritime Provinces. He will be absent several days.

NEW LONDON CHARGE.—Services in the New London Charge in connection with the Presbyterian Church in Canada will be conducted Sabbath next, 7th inst., by the Rev. George Cameron, who will preach at Clifton, 11 a.m., Long River, 3 p.m. and Geddie Memorial 7 p.m.

MR. H. C. CHRISTIE NOW WITH PATTERNS.—Mr. H. C. Christie, of The Patterson Candy Co., Ltd., Toronto, arrived in the city last evening. Mr. Christie was formerly long associated with the Cowan Company and resigned last month to accept representation in the Maritimes of the Patterson Candy Co., one of the most successful and enterprising firms in their line of business.

MAKES GOOD SHOWING.—Miss Mae Gardiner, the O. D. E. Bursary holder for Prince Edward Island, who is attending third year classes at Prince of Wales College, has made a splendid showing in her mid-year examinations. After completing her course at Prince of Wales, Miss Gardiner will carry on her studies at some university in order to secure her B. A. degree. The Bursaries granted by the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire are of the value of $300 a year for four years, and are awarded to the children of men in the great war. As a war memorial to the men who served their country in the time of need, what could be more fitting than to provide for the education of their children, who would otherwise be deprived of such an advantage owing to the supreme sacrifice of their fathers. Miss Gardiner is the daughter of the late Alfred Gardiner, of St. George's, P. E. Island, who lost his life in the Battle of Arras in 1918. The committee who have these Bursaries in charge would appreciate any information about eligible candidates for same. Address all communications to the O. D. E. Provincial Education Secretary, Box 476, Charlottetown.

PERSONALS
Mr. Frank Tremere, Hampshire, was a visitor to the City yesterday.
Mr. Alex. McDonald, formerly of Dorchester, Mass., who is spending a few weeks on the island visiting his father, returned to West Roxbury, Mass., on Saturday.
Mr. Harry Moore, Milton was a passenger on the express train last evening to enter the P. E. Island Hospital for an operation for appendicitis. He was accompanied by Mr. Wallace MacNeill.

PERSONALS
Mr. Frank Tremere, Hampshire, was a visitor to the City yesterday.
Mr. Alex. McDonald, formerly of Dorchester, Mass., who is spending a few weeks on the island visiting his father, returned to West Roxbury, Mass., on Saturday.
Mr. Harry Moore, Milton was a passenger on the express train last evening to enter the P. E. Island Hospital for an operation for appendicitis. He was accompanied by Mr. Wallace MacNeill.

PERSONALS
Mr. Frank Tremere, Hampshire, was a visitor to the City yesterday.
Mr. Alex. McDonald, formerly of Dorchester, Mass., who is spending a few weeks on the island visiting his father, returned to West Roxbury, Mass., on Saturday.
Mr. Harry Moore, Milton was a passenger on the express train last evening to enter the P. E. Island Hospital for an operation for appendicitis. He was accompanied by Mr. Wallace MacNeill.

PERSONALS
Mr. Frank Tremere, Hampshire, was a visitor to the City yesterday.
Mr. Alex. McDonald, formerly of Dorchester, Mass., who is spending a few weeks on the island visiting his father, returned to West Roxbury, Mass., on Saturday.
Mr. Harry Moore, Milton was a passenger on the express train last evening to enter the P. E. Island Hospital for an operation for appendicitis. He was accompanied by Mr. Wallace MacNeill.

PAARDEBURG MEETING.—The meeting of the South African Veterans, adjourned from last Thursday is being held in the City Building at 8 o'clock tonight.

Church Bowling League Organized For 1926
At a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. last night the Church Bowling League decided to start on its winter and spring schedule next week.
Eight teams are entered, Trinity United Church, two teams; Baptist St. James, Zion, St. Paul's, St. Peter's, and Central Christian.
Games to be rolled Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays at seven and eight thirty p. m.
The full schedule and rules adopted for 1926 will appear in tomorrow's paper.
The schedule for the first week is as follows:
Monday, February, 8th, 7 p. m.—St. Peter's vs. St. James.
Monday, February 8th 8.30 p. m.—Trinity vs. St. James.
Tuesday, February, 9th, 7 p. m.—Baptist vs. Trinity 2.
Tuesday, February, 9th 8.30 p. m.—Zion vs. Central Christian.
Thursday, Feb. 11th, 8.30 p. m.—St. Pauls, vs. St. James.

Emp. Boys Class of 'Y' Hold Tobogganing Party
Last night the Employed boys class and their girl friends held a very enjoyable party at the slide. They gathered at the slide at eight o'clock, assisted in the necessary equipment and away they went, arrived out there in the best of spirits, enjoyed the sliding for over an hour then returned to the "Y" where they did ample justice to cocoa and sandwiches.
All enjoyed it and it is the unanimous opinion that they will all be there when they have the next.

Western Guardian
—K. OF C. BANQUET.—Over 100 Knights of Columbus and their ladies assembled at the K. of C. Home, Summerside last night for the sixth anniversary of the inception of Council No. 2070 in Summerside. The celebration took the form of a banquet and the members of the entertainment committee served a sumptuous repast in the council chambers.
After full justice had been done to the inner man a toast to the King was proposed and responded to by singing God Save the King. The toast to His Holiness the Pope was responded to by Rev. J. J. McDonald who gave an interesting account of his recent visit to the Eternal City. The toast to Our Order was responded to by Rev. J. P. Arsenault in an excellent speech. The toast to the ladies was spoken to by Mr. J. E. Dalton in a pleasing and splendid manner.
Other numbers on the program were choruses sung by the whole assembly and vocal solos by Rev. J. P. Arsenault. Grand Knight J. J. McNally presided and among those present were the honored guest of the evening, Rev. J. J. McDonald, Rev. J. A. McDonald, Grand River, Rev. Father Edgar Gallant, Alaska, Rev. Wm. McEwen, Summerside, and many lights from out of town. The banquet hall was gaily decorated and the waiters who were the members of the entertainment committee were attired in white uniforms presenting a very attractive appearance. The singing of the National Anthem brought this most successful affair to a close.

Still King
Hon. J. W. Edwards, M. P., for Frontenac—Addington in the course of his remarks on the Address in reply to the speech from the Throne, said: "In my mail the other day I received a letter from a lady who is apparently taking some interest in public affairs. She expresses her view in regard to the general situation in a few verses, which shall place on hand, as a matter of diversion anyway."
Still King
I have a song I want to sing
About a little man named King,
Who had a great and lofty aim,
To write upon the book of fame,
In letters big and black, his name.

Still King
In politics he found his place;
And won in an election race,
To Ottawa this hero came
"Ah, now", said he, "I can acclaim
I am not only King in name."
In Ottawa he tried his brain
But all his efforts were in vain,
Four years passed by, (I tell with shame)
The country seemed to have gone lame,
The King in King was all in name.
Said he "It is not hard to see
I need more men if I would be
A King", And so election came
The Meighen forces took good aim
And left King shorn of all but name.
But did this squelch the little King?
Oh no. He saw the Baron Byng,
And promised with no thought of shame,
To still pursue his lofty aim
By doing nothing just the same.
Mr. FAFAUD: May I ask the name of the lady?
Mr. EDWARDS: Since the question has been asked, Mr. Speaker I will give the name of the lady, the lines which I have just quoted were written by one of several very clever daughters that I have.

Still King
In politics he found his place;
And won in an election race,
To Ottawa this hero came
"Ah, now", said he, "I can acclaim
I am not only King in name."
In Ottawa he tried his brain
But all his efforts were in vain,
Four years passed by, (I tell with shame)
The country seemed to have gone lame,
The King in King was all in name.
Said he "It is not hard to see
I need more men if I would be
A King", And so election came
The Meighen forces took good aim
And left King shorn of all but name.
But did this squelch the little King?
Oh no. He saw the Baron Byng,
And promised with no thought of shame,
To still pursue his lofty aim
By doing nothing just the same.
Mr. FAFAUD: May I ask the name of the lady?
Mr. EDWARDS: Since the question has been asked, Mr. Speaker I will give the name of the lady, the lines which I have just quoted were written by one of several very clever daughters that I have.

Still King
In politics he found his place;
And won in an election race,
To Ottawa this hero came
"Ah, now", said he, "I can acclaim
I am not only King in name."
In Ottawa he tried his brain
But all his efforts were in vain,
Four years passed by, (I tell with shame)
The country seemed to have gone lame,
The King in King was all in name.
Said he "It is not hard to see
I need more men if I would be
A King", And so election came
The Meighen forces took good aim
And left King shorn of all but name.
But did this squelch the little King?
Oh no. He saw the Baron Byng,
And promised with no thought of shame,
To still pursue his lofty aim
By doing nothing just the same.
Mr. FAFAUD: May I ask the name of the lady?
Mr. EDWARDS: Since the question has been asked, Mr. Speaker I will give the name of the lady, the lines which I have just quoted were written by one of several very clever daughters that I have.

Still King
In politics he found his place;
And won in an election race,
To Ottawa this hero came
"Ah, now", said he, "I can acclaim
I am not only King in name."
In Ottawa he tried his brain
But all his efforts were in vain,
Four years passed by, (I tell with shame)
The country seemed to have gone lame,
The King in King was all in name.
Said he "It is not hard to see
I need more men if I would be
A King", And so election came
The Meighen forces took good aim
And left King shorn of all but name.
But did this squelch the little King?
Oh no. He saw the Baron Byng,
And promised with no thought of shame,
To still pursue his lofty aim
By doing nothing just the same.
Mr. FAFAUD: May I ask the name of the lady?
Mr. EDWARDS: Since the question has been asked, Mr. Speaker I will give the name of the lady, the lines which I have just quoted were written by one of several very clever daughters that I have.

Imperial Fox Biscuit
(Continued from Page 1)
Experiments were made with the same formula last year and it was found very satisfactory. Ranchers can be assured that in Imperial Puppy Meal they have a complete food with milk, and an evening feed of a little meat.
We feel it our duty to mention here the fact that since the factory has been in operation in Charlottetown, it has been under the supervision of Mr. Leigh Warren, whose courtesy and strict attention to business have won him many friends. Up till last July the management was in the hands of Mr. J. K. Ross, who resigned to establish a factory in Ontario. Since that time Mr. M. R. Bethune, who has been identified with the company for several years as its book-keeper, has carried out the duties of manager to the entire satisfaction of the directors and patrons of the Company.
An impression has been spread abroad that the Imperial Biscuit Company pays large dividends. This is not correct, as only two dividends have been disbursed in the five years of its existence. In 1924 and 1925 no dividends were paid, the profits being used to improve the plant. During 1925 operations, owing to the high cost of flour and other materials, the net earnings were very small, considering the output. But as mentioned before the matter of profits is not the object of this Company. They consider it their duty to provide the very best food possible to the ranchers of Prince Edward Island and other parts, but particularly to those of Prince Edward Island, at the lowest possible price, consistent with quality, and safety factors, so that the Company can endure.
Friends of the Imperial Biscuit Company, Ltd. must be absolutely sure that no matter what happens, the quality of the biscuit will not be cheapened.
The election of officers for 1926 resulted as follows:
President, Mr. W. Chester S. McLeod, M. L. A.
Vice-President, Mr. W. K. Rogers, Summerside.
Directors, Mr. B. G. Rogers, Summerside, Mr. Ray Clark, Union Road; Mr. Gordon MacMillan, Cornwall; and Mr. Leigh Warren.
Secretary Treasurer, Col. D. A. MacKinnon, D. S. O.

Says Locarno Steel Trap
(Continued from Page 1)
whether they affect his person or his property.
"Under constitutional authority we tax everything, but we confiscate nothing. It is not through selfishness or wastefulness or arrogance, but through self-denial, conservation and service, that we shall build up the American spirit. This is the true constructive economy, the true faith on which our institutions rest."

Says Locarno Steel Trap
(Continued from Page 1)
whether they affect his person or his property.
"Under constitutional authority we tax everything, but we confiscate nothing. It is not through selfishness or wastefulness or arrogance, but through self-denial, conservation and service, that we shall build up the American spirit. This is the true constructive economy, the true faith on which our institutions rest."

Says Locarno Steel Trap
(Continued from Page 1)
whether they affect his person or his property.
"Under constitutional authority we tax everything, but we confiscate nothing. It is not through selfishness or wastefulness or arrogance, but through self-denial, conservation and service, that we shall build up the American spirit. This is the true constructive economy, the true faith on which our institutions rest."

Says Locarno Steel Trap
(Continued from Page 1)
whether they affect his person or his property.
"Under constitutional authority we tax everything, but we confiscate nothing. It is not through selfishness or wastefulness or arrogance, but through self-denial, conservation and service, that we shall build up the American spirit. This is the true constructive economy, the true faith on which our institutions rest."

Says Locarno Steel Trap
(Continued from Page 1)
whether they affect his person or his property.
"Under constitutional authority we tax everything, but we confiscate nothing. It is not through selfishness or wastefulness or arrogance, but through self-denial, conservation and service, that we shall build up the American spirit. This is the true constructive economy, the true faith on which our institutions rest."

Says Locarno Steel Trap
(Continued from Page 1)
whether they affect his person or his property.
"Under constitutional authority we tax everything, but we confiscate nothing. It is not through selfishness or wastefulness or arrogance, but through self-denial, conservation and service, that we shall build up the American spirit. This is the true constructive economy, the true faith on which our institutions rest."

Says Locarno Steel Trap
(Continued from Page 1)
whether they affect his person or his property.
"Under constitutional authority we tax everything, but we confiscate nothing. It is not through selfishness or wastefulness or arrogance, but through self-denial, conservation and service, that we shall build up the American spirit. This is the true constructive economy, the true faith on which our institutions rest."

Says Locarno Steel Trap
(Continued from Page 1)
whether they affect his person or his property.
"Under constitutional authority we tax everything, but we confiscate nothing. It is not through selfishness or wastefulness or arrogance, but through self-denial, conservation and service, that we shall build up the American spirit. This is the true constructive economy, the true faith on which our institutions rest."

MARY PICKFORD IN RAGAMUFFIN ROLE
The saucy, mischievous imp who is beloved by millions throughout the world is back on the silver screen.
Mary Pickford has forsaken the ruffled laces and bejeweled gowns of costume plays and has returned to the type of role that made her famous.
"The World's Sweetheart" is again the curly haired, frank playing impetuous Irish lassie in "Little Annie Rooney" her latest United Artists Corporation production which opened a two days run at the Prince Edward yesterday evening. "Little Annie Rooney" starts with a fight and ends with a fight in between are laughs galore, a tear or two, much suspense and many heart throbs. It's an ideal story for Mary Pickford and her characterization of Little Annie is one of genuine stardom, played as no other actress could play it.
The story is one of the slums of New York, an epic of those crowded, musty thoroughfares on the East Side, where men, women and children in motley array swarm like ants in an ant hill.
Little Annie is one of a million there. She is the leader of a gang of boys which is continually getting into battles with a rival gang.
While still a child Annie is plunged into a melodramatic life by accidents that first sober the impulsive girl, then bring out the heroic qualities so often found in children of the slums.
"Little Annie Rooney" is from an original story by Katherine Hennessey. The title is familiar through the old time song of that name, but there has never been a book nor a story of "Little Annie Rooney."
William Beaudine, who was a property boy at the old Biograph studio in the day when Mary Pickford was an extra there, directed the picture.
A notable cast, including William Haines, Spec O'Donnell, Volio Vale, Eugene Jackson, Carlo Schipa, Gordon Griffith, Walter James, Hugh Fay, and many others are seen in support of Miss Pickford.
"Little Annie Rooney" is Miss Pickford's best picture in her eventful screen career. It is the type of picture which should please everyone, has been given a sumptuous production by Charles Roshe and Hal Mohr is beautiful throughout.
An excellent musical setting of old songs in keeping with the atmosphere of the picture by the Mr. Waggoner was a feature of the program, also the overture "The Last Rose of Summer."

MARY PICKFORD IN RAGAMUFFIN ROLE
The saucy, mischievous imp who is beloved by millions throughout the world is back on the silver screen.
Mary Pickford has forsaken the ruffled laces and bejeweled gowns of costume plays and has returned to the type of role that made her famous.
"The World's Sweetheart" is again the curly haired, frank playing impetuous Irish lassie in "Little Annie Rooney" her latest United Artists Corporation production which opened a two days run at the Prince Edward yesterday evening. "Little Annie Rooney" starts with a fight and ends with a fight in between are laughs galore, a tear or two, much suspense and many heart throbs. It's an ideal story for Mary Pickford and her characterization of Little Annie is one of genuine stardom, played as no other actress could play it.
The story is one of the slums of New York, an epic of those crowded, musty thoroughfares on the East Side, where men, women and children in motley array swarm like ants in an ant hill.
Little Annie is one of a million there. She is the leader of a gang of boys which is continually getting into battles with a rival gang.
While still a child Annie is plunged into a melodramatic life by accidents that first sober the impulsive girl, then bring out the heroic qualities so often found in children of the slums.
"Little Annie Rooney" is from an original story by Katherine Hennessey. The title is familiar through the old time song of that name, but there has never been a book nor a story of "Little Annie Rooney."
William Beaudine, who was a property boy at the old Biograph studio in the day when Mary Pickford was an extra there, directed the picture.
A notable cast, including William Haines, Spec O'Donnell, Volio Vale, Eugene Jackson, Carlo Schipa, Gordon Griffith, Walter James, Hugh Fay, and many others are seen in support of Miss Pickford.
"Little Annie Rooney" is Miss Pickford's best picture in her eventful screen career. It is the type of picture which should please everyone, has been given a sumptuous production by Charles Roshe and Hal Mohr is beautiful throughout.
An excellent musical setting of old songs in keeping with the atmosphere of the picture by the Mr. Waggoner was a feature of the program, also the overture "The Last Rose of Summer."

MARY PICKFORD IN RAGAMUFFIN ROLE
The saucy, mischievous imp who is beloved by millions throughout the world is back on the silver screen.
Mary Pickford has forsaken the ruffled laces and bejeweled gowns of costume plays and has returned to the type of role that made her famous.
"The World's Sweetheart" is again the curly haired, frank playing impetuous Irish lassie in "Little Annie Rooney" her latest United Artists Corporation production which opened a two days run at the Prince Edward yesterday evening. "Little Annie Rooney" starts with a fight and ends with a fight in between are laughs galore, a tear or two, much suspense and many heart throbs. It's an ideal story for Mary Pickford and her characterization of Little Annie is one of genuine stardom, played as no other actress could play it.
The story is one of the slums of New York, an epic of those crowded, musty thoroughfares on the East Side, where men, women and children in motley array swarm like ants in an ant hill.
Little Annie is one of a million there. She is the leader of a gang of boys which is continually getting into battles with a rival gang.
While still a child Annie is plunged into a melodramatic life by accidents that first sober the impulsive girl, then bring out the heroic qualities so often found in children of the slums.
"Little Annie Rooney" is from an original story by Katherine Hennessey. The title is familiar through the old time song of that name, but there has never been a book nor a story of "Little Annie Rooney."
William Beaudine, who was a property boy at the old Biograph studio in the day when Mary Pickford was an extra there, directed the picture.
A notable cast, including William Haines, Spec O'Donnell, Volio Vale, Eugene Jackson, Carlo Schipa, Gordon Griffith, Walter James, Hugh Fay, and many others are seen in support of Miss Pickford.
"Little Annie Rooney" is Miss Pickford's best picture in her eventful screen career. It is the type of picture which should please everyone, has been given a sumptuous production by Charles Roshe and Hal Mohr is beautiful throughout.
An excellent musical setting of old songs in keeping with the atmosphere of the picture by the Mr. Waggoner was a feature of the program, also the overture "The Last Rose of Summer."

MARY PICKFORD IN RAGAMUFFIN ROLE
The saucy, mischievous imp who is beloved by millions throughout the world is back on the silver screen.
Mary Pickford has forsaken the ruffled laces and bejeweled gowns of costume plays and has returned to the type of role that made her famous.
"The World's Sweetheart" is again the curly haired, frank playing impetuous Irish lassie in "Little Annie Rooney" her latest United Artists Corporation production which opened a two days run at the Prince Edward yesterday evening. "Little Annie Rooney" starts with a fight and ends with a fight in between are laughs galore, a tear or two, much suspense and many heart throbs. It's an ideal story for Mary Pickford and her characterization of Little Annie is one of genuine stardom, played as no other actress could play it.
The story is one of the slums of New York, an epic of those crowded, musty thoroughfares on the East Side, where men, women and children in motley array swarm like ants in an ant hill.
Little Annie is one of a million there. She is the leader of a gang of boys which is continually getting into battles with a rival gang.
While still a child Annie is plunged into a melodramatic life by accidents that first sober the impulsive girl, then bring out the heroic qualities so often found in children of the slums.
"Little Annie Rooney" is from an original story by Katherine Hennessey. The title is familiar through the old time song of that name, but there has never been a book nor a story of "Little Annie Rooney."
William Beaudine, who was a property boy at the old Biograph studio in the day when Mary Pickford was an extra there, directed the picture.
A notable cast, including William Haines, Spec O'Donnell, Volio Vale, Eugene Jackson, Carlo Schipa, Gordon Griffith, Walter James, Hugh Fay, and many others are seen in support of Miss Pickford.
"Little Annie Rooney" is Miss Pickford's best picture in her eventful screen career. It is the type of picture which should please everyone, has been given a sumptuous production by Charles Roshe and Hal Mohr is beautiful throughout.
An excellent musical setting of old songs in keeping with the atmosphere of the picture by the Mr. Waggoner was a feature of the program, also the overture "The Last Rose of Summer."

MARY PICKFORD IN RAGAMUFFIN ROLE
The saucy, mischievous imp who is beloved by millions throughout the world is back on the silver screen.
Mary Pickford has forsaken the ruffled laces and bejeweled gowns of costume plays and has returned to the type of role that made her famous.
"The World's Sweetheart" is again the curly haired, frank playing impetuous Irish lassie in "Little Annie Rooney" her latest United Artists Corporation production which opened a two days run at the Prince Edward yesterday evening. "Little Annie Rooney" starts with a fight and ends with a fight in between are laughs galore, a tear or two, much suspense and many heart throbs. It's an ideal story for Mary Pickford and her characterization of Little Annie is one of genuine stardom, played as no other actress could play it.
The story is one of the slums of New York, an epic of those crowded, musty thoroughfares on the East Side, where men, women and children in motley array swarm like ants in an ant hill.
Little Annie is one of a million there. She is the leader of a gang of boys which is continually getting into battles with a rival gang.
While still a child Annie is plunged into a melodramatic life by accidents that first sober the impulsive girl, then bring out the heroic qualities so often found in children of the slums.
"Little Annie Rooney" is from an original story by Katherine Hennessey. The title is familiar through the old time song of that name, but there has never been a book nor a story of "Little Annie Rooney."
William Beaudine, who was a property boy at the old Biograph studio in the day when Mary Pickford was an extra there, directed the picture.
A notable cast, including William Haines, Spec O'Donnell, Volio Vale, Eugene Jackson, Carlo Schipa, Gordon Griffith, Walter James, Hugh Fay, and many others are seen in support of Miss Pickford.
"Little Annie Rooney" is Miss Pickford's best picture in her eventful screen career. It is the type of picture which should please everyone, has been given a sumptuous production by Charles Roshe and Hal Mohr is beautiful throughout.
An excellent musical setting of old songs in keeping with the atmosphere of the picture by the Mr. Waggoner was a feature of the program, also the overture "The Last Rose of Summer."

MARY PICKFORD IN RAGAMUFFIN ROLE
The saucy, mischievous imp who is beloved by millions throughout the world is back on the silver screen.
Mary Pickford has forsaken the ruffled laces and bejeweled gowns of costume plays and has returned to the type of role that made her famous.
"The World's Sweetheart" is again the curly haired, frank playing impetuous Irish lassie in "Little Annie Rooney" her latest United Artists Corporation production which opened a two days run at the Prince Edward yesterday evening. "Little Annie Rooney" starts with a fight and ends with a fight in between are laughs galore, a tear or two, much suspense and many heart throbs. It's an ideal story for Mary Pickford and her characterization of Little Annie is one of genuine stardom, played as no other actress could play it.
The story is one of the slums of New York, an epic of those crowded, musty thoroughfares on the East Side, where men, women and children in motley array swarm like ants in an ant hill.
Little Annie is one of a million there. She is the leader of a gang of boys which is continually getting into battles with a rival gang.
While still a child Annie is plunged into a melodramatic life by accidents that first sober the impulsive girl, then bring out the heroic qualities so often found in children of the slums.
"Little Annie Rooney" is from an original story by Katherine Hennessey. The title is familiar through the old time song of that name, but there has never been a book nor a story of "Little Annie Rooney."
William Beaudine, who was a property boy at the old Biograph studio in the day when Mary Pickford was an extra there, directed the picture.
A notable cast, including William Haines, Spec O'Donnell, Volio Vale, Eugene Jackson, Carlo Schipa, Gordon Griffith, Walter James, Hugh Fay, and many others are seen in support of Miss Pickford.
"Little Annie Rooney" is Miss Pickford's best picture in her eventful screen career. It is the type of picture which should please everyone, has been given a sumptuous production by Charles Roshe and Hal Mohr is beautiful throughout.
An excellent musical setting of old songs in keeping with the atmosphere of the picture by the Mr. Waggoner was a feature of the program, also the overture "The Last Rose of Summer."

MARY PICKFORD IN RAGAMUFFIN ROLE
The saucy, mischievous imp who is beloved by millions throughout the world is back on the silver screen.
Mary Pickford has forsaken the ruffled laces and bejeweled gowns of costume plays and has returned to the type of role that made her famous.
"The World's Sweetheart" is again the curly haired, frank playing impetuous Irish lassie in "Little Annie Rooney" her latest United Artists Corporation production which opened a two days run at the Prince Edward yesterday evening. "Little Annie Rooney" starts with a fight and ends with a fight in between are laughs galore, a tear or two, much suspense and many heart throbs. It's an ideal story for Mary Pickford and her characterization of Little Annie is one of genuine stardom, played as no other actress could play it.
The story is one of the slums of New York, an epic of those crowded, musty thoroughfares on the East Side, where men, women and children in motley array swarm like ants in an ant hill.
Little Annie is one of a million there. She is the leader of a gang of boys which is continually getting into battles with a rival gang.
While still a child Annie is plunged into a melodramatic life by accidents that first sober the impulsive girl, then bring out the heroic qualities so often found in children of the slums.
"Little Annie Rooney" is from an original story by Katherine Hennessey. The title is familiar through the old time song of that name, but there has never been a book nor a story of "Little Annie Rooney."
William Beaudine, who was a property boy at the old Biograph studio in the day when Mary Pickford was an extra there, directed the picture.
A notable cast, including William Haines, Spec O'Donnell