

THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Office in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnstone, Agent, and in Souris, A. J. McDonald, Agent.

The latest news, first of all.

A meeting of the Royal Scarlet Chapter (Union District) will be held at McKinnon's Hall, Montague, on Friday, Aug. 19th, at 7 o'clock p.m.

The executors of the last will and testament of Peter A. McIntyre late of Souris notify all persons indebted to the estate of the deceased to make payment at once at the office of Fraser & McQuaid, solicitors, Souris, as will be seen by ad which appears in this issue.

The following additional entries have been received for the Free-for-all horse race to take place in Montague, Saturday 20th. These entries arrived too late for publication with the others as they were sent to Montague: Queen Marie, J. P. Irving, Cape Traverse; Axel, P. J. Conroy, Tignish; Baby Logan, Christopher, Tignish.

All amounts for Guardian advertising and subscriptions in Montague and vicinity should be paid to W. A. Johnstone, agent, and in Souris and vicinity to A. J. McDonald, agent. 1-10drft.

The following are the Souris market prices—Oats, per bushel, 50 cents; potatoes, per bushel, 50 cents; hay, per ton, 10 dollars; butter, per pound, 22 cents; eggs, per dozen, 15 cents; beef, per pound, 6 1/2 cents.

In Montague yesterday dealers were paying forty-two cents a bushel for oats, sixteen and one-half cents a dozen for eggs, eight dollars a barrel for herring, eight dollars a ton for loose hay and ten dollars for pressed.

In Aid of Campbellton Fire Sufferers

A grand entertainment in aid of the sufferers of the Campbellton fire will be held in Howes hall, Brackley Beach, on the evening of Thursday the 18th. A magnificent program is in preparation, and those who have charge of it will spare no pains to ensure a most enjoyable evening. The guests of the Brackley Beach hotel are taking an active part in the affair. Mrs. Cartwright of Ottawa will preside at the piano. Miss MacLaren, of Toronto, will sing and Miss Viola Shaw, of Boston, will render some selections on the violin. Miss Northy and Miss Cameron, also Miss Sellar, of Somerville, Mass., will give a reading, and Parker Hooper, of Charlottetown, the well-known singer will favour the audience with some of his popular songs. There are a number of other features on the program. Ice cream, cake, home-made candy, etc., etc., will be served during the evening. The object of the entertainment is a noble one and ought to draw a full house. It is not sectional but it is the intention to take a broad view of the matter. It is the hope that large numbers of people, not only from the city, but also from the adjacent districts will generously assist, by their presence in making the affair a grand success. Should Thursday be wet the concert will be held on the following evening. The object is so laudable it is felt that the admission fee of twenty-five cents will be considered moderate. 8-17d11. 8-16dr21.
