CARE OF VENETIAN BLINDS

Aristocrats of the shade world are Venetian blinds... ready to welcome, shut out, or softly filter sunlight and view... investments carefully cared for. Here are a few tips that will add years to their efficiency and loveliness: To lift entire shade, first adjust slats to horizontal position, then raise slowly with firm pull on lifting cords. Raising

To lower shade, ease it down gradually in tilted position, wears cords usually rather than with a sudden pull and flop. Rough treatment strains fixtures at top which support shade and enclose mechanism. To distribute surface fading or soiling, frequently shift slats from up-tilt to down-tilt, and for thorough cleaning, wash slats with "all-purpose, extra-soapy suds" and chamomile. Always pull the cords with strictly clean hands. Be careful to distribute wear on cords, which comes from their being caught in locking device, by varying heights at which shade is adjusted. If shade catches, or goes up and down unevenly, chances are that the slats project irregularly at ends. With a ruler, tap lightly against projecting slats. These free cords which run through holes of slats.

NOVELTY PILLOWS EASY TO MAKE

Would you like to add something new and interesting in the way of pillows to your sun room or sleeping porch deck? And ones that can be whipped up in a spare moment by an inexperienced hand? Buy small, inexpensive rag rugs at the dime store. Fold once, fill with kapok or balsa or pine needles, and sew edges together with heavy thread and long stitches. Such pillows are practical because they're sturdy, comfortable and can be easily laundered by unsewing and rinsing out the rag rug in rich suds then float the dirt away and keep the colors gay and bright.

'Help Wanted' Advertisements

Under the new government regulations which became effective on September 4, it is still permissible to publish over an advertiser's own name "Help Wanted" advertisements for domestics; farm help; teachers; nurses and probationers; fishing and trapping help, and for students employed after school.
All other "Help Wanted" advertisements, however, must be submitted by the advertiser to the National Selective Service office, Unemployment Insurance Commission, I. O. O. F. Hall, Richmond Street, and on receiving the officer's approval the advertisements can then be inserted in The Charlottetown Guardian.

WHY COULD YOU GOT ON YOUR SERVICE UNIFORM? I'LL BET YOU WERE THINKING OF COMMANDO BILL.

DESERTED VILLAGE—Pedestrians had their brief day when thousands of motorists were stymied by the ban on passenger-car driving in the 17-state east coast area. Pictured above is the scene in Times Square—"Cross-Roads of the World"—which, on the last Saturday before Christmas, normally would be jammed with traffic.
