—BUSINESS IMPROVEMENTS Messrs H. O. Bowness and James E. Murphy, Carpenters, Kensington are busily engaged in re-modeling their Carriage and Farm Implement show room on Commercial street, Kensington. This branch of business is now conducted by Mr. James F. Proffitt which, with his other multifarious duties, will more intensely engross his time. Large show windows have been inserted and spacious doors installed. This amplification will furnish sufficient space to display as the stock deserves, the excellent line that his Company is able to place on the market. He will also enlarge his own private office, thus making it convenient to accommodate a private office in the rear. This necessity for increased room shows how his prosperous business is increasing.—Y

—COMMUNITY PAYS TRIBUTE.—The community of Caspimpee and vicinity was shocked beyond measure on Wednesday evening July 14th, when it became known that Mr. Charles Vickerson had been drowned in the stream at Douglie's Bridge. Mr. Vickerson was the Government engineer on the new road which is being built through this section. He was returning on Wednesday from a trip to Charlottetown, when something went wrong with his car causing it to go over the bridge. No one witnessed the accident, and it is believed that the body was in the water almost half an hour before it was discovered. Coroner Peter O'Leary was called by telephone and an inquest was held at Mr. Newman Oliver's near by. The jury gave a verdict of accidental death. After the inquest the body was taken to the home of Mr. Russell Leard, where Mr. Vickerson had been boarding and during the night a number of kind friends made the necessary arrangements for having the remains sent on the morning train to Charlottetown. At 6 a. m. a short service conducted by Rev. W. S. Godfrey was held at the house, and following this the remains were conveyed to Alberton to meet the 7.15 train. Mr. Vickerson was a young man of exceptional qualities, and though he had been in the western part of the island only five weeks, his kind, sincere, pleasant manner won for him many friends. The men who worked under his supervision on the road loved him, and strong men wept when they heard the sad news of his death. His brilliant record as a student was no known in this community until after his death, for there was nothing boastful in that noble, unselfish nature all who were associated with him felt that it was a privilege to have known such an ideal type of young manhood even for a short time, and their heart-felt sympathy goes out to the mother and brother who are left to mourn.

held the stage alone; and then they drop to silence almost simultaneously as they began to sing. When the full choir of black birds and thrushes commences, followed in quick succession by other smaller singers, the chorus fitsly dominated by the mistle-thrush and beaten into rhythmic bars by the changeless cadence of the cuckoo. "When the sparrow joins in later his work-day chirp seems to remind you that you want your breakfast."

TO RELIEVE PAIN AND BACKACHE

Women May Depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I had heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that when I realized I needed to take something to relieve my pains and backache, and to help build me up I began to take that. I had been sick off and on for years and barely weighed a hundred pounds, but now I have had such good results that I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to every one."—Mrs. J. J. BIEBER, 3069 18th Ave. South, Minneapolis, Minn.

Finds a True Friend "Every woman who values her health should be proud to have a true friend like the Vegetable Compound," says Mrs. W. E. Shaw, 8227 Walnut Street, Chicago, Illinois. "I had female weakness so badly that I could not stand on my feet. Half of my time was spent in bed and I had pains in my back which were unbearable. I tried everything I could think of to help myself, and when a friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began taking it at once. I recommend it without hesitation."

—ONLY $9.95 for women's all wool serge suits in navy and black at Sinclair's. 2890-25-21.

—UP FOR VAGRANCY—A man claiming Philadelphia as his home town and who deserted from a circus which visited the town three years ago was up before Stipen Henry Wyatt in the Police Court at Summerside on Monday morning on a charge of vagrancy and was given until 2 p. m. on the same day to get out of town. He got.

—BRIDAL SHOWERS—A large number of lady friends of Miss Elizabeth Pope were on Monday afternoon at the residence of the Misses Green and tendered her an extensive miscellaneous shower in anticipation of an interesting event in which she will be the central figure at St. Mary's Church, Summerside on August 1st. Miss Pope will again be showered by her friends on Wednesday evening at the residence of the Misses Hunt.

—FIRE LOSS—Mr. Leslie Tait the Raleigh man, in Kensington had the misfortune on Sunday night to be visited by a slight fire which, though not extensive in itself, was the cause of considerable loss to him. How the fire originated has not been explained, and the loss of some valuables seems to indicate that there is some thing in the matter that would warrant further inquiry. A more effective organization of fire-fighting force seems to command itself, not so much in the actual work of fighting the fire as in the care of the property saved. It is useless to save valuables and afterwards find that they are missing. Every house holder has an interest in this.—Y

IN MEMORIAM

MR. REIGH LLEWELLYN.

The untimely death of the late Reigh Llewellyn has called forth a profound sympathy not only in the community of Gaspeaux in which he lived but in the surrounding country. It is seldom we are called upon to chronicle such an unfortunate accident at which a brilliant young life was ended at the early age of sixteen years. The deceased was the youngest son of Mr. Sydney Llewellyn and was of a quiet disposition, loved on the road loved him, and strong men wept when they heard the sad news of his death. His brilliant record as a student was no known in this community until after his death, for there was nothing boastful in that noble, unselfish nature all who were associated with him felt that it was a privilege to have known such an ideal type of young manhood even for a short time, and their heart-felt sympathy goes out to the mother and brother who are left to mourn.

The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. McDonald. There are left to mourn besides a grief-stricken father and mother one brother, John and one sister, Lottie, besides a large number of friends and relatives. The pall bearers were Messrs. George Graham, Claude Graham, Douglas Graham, cousins of the deceased and William P. Steele, Alex. McKenzie and Lester Steele. To the bereaved family The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

Since you left us dearest Reigh Time is speeding fast away But to us it makes no difference For your memory with us stay. Many tears for you have fallen Since you left us here below But we know you were here calling Or you would not have to go. (Patriot please copy.)

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

Mrs. Clayton G. Houston Dear Mrs. Houston:—We, the members of Mayfield Women's Missionary Society, wish to convey to you a message of sympathy in the great loss you have sustained in the death of your husband. We feel that words of ours can be of little comfort at this time. God alone can comfort you, and bestow His peace upon you in such a way as will enable you to say: "His death will all things well." We wish also to extend our sincere sympathy to your son Wilbert who would direct him to his Creator in the days of his youth, who knows our sick and narrow, who has led us there, and keep the Lord make His face to shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee. The Lord lift up the light of His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. Signed on behalf of the W. M. S. MRS. BLAIR ANDREWS MRS. HAROLD L. TOOMBS Stamp affixed to genuine packets.

Women's Vigil To Hear the Nightingale (BY Dominion News Service) LONDON, July 25.—Of 53 ramblers who spent a night in the Surrey woods to hear the nightingales and the "opening chorus" of dawn, nearly half were women. The night was cold and cheerless, but for over eight hours—from 11 till nearly 7.30 the next morning the party tramped hill and dale, and, as recorded in the current number of "Country Side," there was "not one but is keen to come again next year." Nightingales are, this year, much less numerous than in previous seasons, it is stated, only 19 being recorded by the party, as against 52 last year in the same few miles of woodland. The ramblers, however, came across one prince of songsters "all by himself in an old chalk-quarry not far from Newland's-corner, where music was heard coming all the way far to hear. "There is," comments the writer "something dramatic in the thought of that lone singer in the wooded hills, filling his ample throat of rough-hewn chalk with the first faint light that precedes dawn, and, as recorded in the current number of "Country Side," there was "not one but is keen to come again next year." Nightingales are, this year, much less numerous than in previous seasons, it is stated, only 19 being recorded by the party, as against 52 last year in the same few miles of woodland.
