Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The goose race to be initiated by the management of the City of London on Dominion Day, was the most popular attraction for ladies and children at the State Fair held at Syracuse N. Y. last year. The race will be square heel and toe for cash prizes.

The picnic season will be inaugurated on Dominion Day (Monday) by the S. S. City of London with a goose race and other sports at Hick's wharf, East River. Ample time will be allowed to visit friends, pick wild flowers and enjoy the sports. All entries free. No charge to witness all the fun. Steamer leaves at 2.00 p. m. Round trip only 25c.

The annual meeting of Fredericton school District, No. 223, was well attended. The representatives expressed themselves as well pleased with the progress of the school and the teacher. N. S. J. Murray was re-elected for the ensuing year. Fifteen dollars was voted for supplement for the teacher and $25 for running expenses. The school trustees are the following: William Morrison, G. W. H. Savenson, J. A. Outillie, secretary.

The hearts of the feminine contingent of the audience at the presentation of "A Royal Slave" which comes to the Opera House, June twenty-seven will flutter when the magnificent gowns worn by the actresses are seen in all their gorgeousness. She wears six altogether, a different gown in each act and two in the first act. It requires a handsome, statuesque woman like Miss Eunice Murdoch, who assumes the role of the Countess, to display these gowns to advantage.

The marriage of Miss Ida May Chapman to H. F. Roy Hicks took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Wesley and Mrs. Chapman, Moncton, on Wednesday. An informal reception was held immediately after the ceremony, and after partaking of a luncheon the young couple left for P. E. I., where the honeymoon will be spent. The bride's going away gown was brown with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks will make their home in Dorchester. The numerous and costly presents received testify to the popularity of the couple.

Praks Bros Co's wharf presented a busy appearance all this week. On Monday the S. S. Bonnav sta. discharged and loaded a general cargo for St. John's Nfld. via the Sydney. S. S. Coban discharged a full cargo of reserve running coal, Schmorning Star discharged a cargo of lumber and deals, Schor, Stanley Mac discharged a cargo of steamed coal, and the Helen Shaffer arrived yesterday morning from New York with a cargo of anthracite coal in egg and chestnut sizes. She begins discharging this morning. The S. S. Shannon, Enterprise and a steam dredge were all supplied with bunker coal.

At Nictaux Falls, on May 14, the death occurred of sister Catherine Geddes, aged seventy-eight years. Sister Geddes was a daughter of the late R. V. D. C. McPhail of P. E. Island. In her early youth she accepted Christ by faith and united with the Baptist church of which she remained a most faithful and worthy member. Her first husband was G. O. Smith by whom she had six children, Mrs. Pleman Hicks, Mrs. James Dann, Gilbert Smith, all of Lynn, Mass., Judson Smith of St. John, Colia Smith of Nictaux Falls and Thomas Smith of Feerdele Wash. Sister Geddes was of Scotch descent and was very interesting to converse with. During her last illness which was long and trying, no word of murmuring or complaint escaped her lips.—Exchange.

On the evening of the 18th June the home of Robert Andrews, at Ebenezzer, was the scene of an interesting event, when his daughter Viola May, was united in marriage to Richard Stead of Westley River. At 8.30 the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Winifred Dejes. The bride was attended by Miss Sarah E. Andrews of the groom, while Alfred Andrews brother of the bride supported the groom. The bride was prettily dressed in white, landsdown with applique and chiffon trimmings and carried a bouquet of maiden hair ferns and bride's roses. The bridesmaid was neatly attired in cream cashmere and lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. After the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. G. A. Belyea, the bridal party was entertained to a sumptuous repast, and the evening was spent in social intercourse enlivened with vocal and instrumental music, until the wee small hours, when the happy couple, accompanied by a number of friends departed for their future residence at Westley River. The bride was the recipient of a number of costly, useful and beautiful presents.

The Guardian prints all the HOME and other news, and has the SWEET honorant pleasure of being the HOME paper for Prince Edward Island.

Wm. J. and Mrs. Warren, New Glasgow were in the City yesterday.

Any good city girl with a fair education desiring to learn a type setting should apply at Guardian office.

Miss Elma M. Rogers, of Prince Edward Island, who has been spending a week in Moncton, has returned home.

A. Pickard & Co. have chartered the scho. Joseph McGill, Capt. D. B. B. to load hard coal at New York for Charlottetown.

Anyone having farms or city properties for sale are requested to write or call on the Secretary of the 200,000 Club, Arthur L. Beer, Charlottetown.

The Guardian is indebted to J. A. Coover, formerly of P. E. I. but now of Murphy, Crozier & Co., Winnipeg, for a late copy of the Winnipeg Free Press.

The gold medal awarded at the closing exercises of the Union Commercial College, was presented by A. M. Fraser, Halifax, the well known agent for the celebrated Smith Premier Machine.

In response to several inquiries The Guardian desires to state that the management and control of the proposed running race, scheduled to take place July fourth, is entirely in the hands of Dr. Ledwell and his assistants, to whom all matters should be referred.

The progress of any firm is always read with interest especially in the Province in which the members are doing business. A. Horne & Co's carriage, harness and implement emporium, which is known to every household in Prince Edward Island, is steadily gaining in popularity owing to the immense strides made each year in the quality and up-to-date improvements noticeable in the lines they import. A visit to their large and airy warehouses on Kent Street will well repay the intending purchaser, and a good idea of the lines carried can easily be formed by a glance over the firm's page at which appears in this issue.

The Guardian of June twelve contained a clipping from a western paper to the effect that Sister Borromea a teacher at St. Clements Catholic School, Duluth, Minn., had been boldly abducted shortly afternoon on the previous day. In this connection it will be interesting to Guardian readers to know that Mrs. D. H. Haslam, formerly of Cranford but now of Duluth and whose husband is a native of Springfield, was nursed by the above lady in St. Mary's Hospital two years ago while there undergoing treatment. Sister Borromea was formerly Miss Minnie D'gile, and it is suspected that her father and brother had something to do with the kidnapping, as when the two men entered the room in which she was sitting at her desk she called one of them "father." It is known that her immediate relatives strongly objected to the lie which she had chosen. It will also be interesting to learn that one of Miss D'gile's brothers, who is since dead, was married to a Miss Blundell, sister of Charles Blundell, whose wife was formerly Miss Blanche Howatt. The latter is now visiting her parents at Summerside.
