

One Dose
Often a single dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral at bedtime will completely control the night coughs of children. It is a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine, entirely free from alcohol. Made only for diseases of the throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs. Full formula on each label.

Ask your doctor to tell you, honestly and frankly, just what he thinks of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Then do as he says.

The Dutchman's Honeymoon drew a good assembly of the lovers of comedy to the Opera House last evening and gave them hours of solid fun. The Honeymoon itself is full of ludicrous situations, comic escapes and laughable dialogue while between acts half a dozen humorous, vocal and dancing specialties were much enjoyed. Special scenery aided the capable artists of the company in presenting the mirth-provoking play with full effect.

The Canadian Magazine for October is a good number of this beautiful and popular Dominion serial. Among the many titles in the table of contents are The Dufferin Family, by Margaret E. Henderson; J. A. Macdonald (editor of Toronto Globe) by Prof. Adam Short; Deer of British Columbia by Allan C. Brooks; The Irony of British Rule in India by Sain M. Singh; The Special Correspondent by J. E. B. McCready; Canadian Art by J. A. Redford; and five short stories. The illustrations of the Canadian are always excellent.

The King's County Exhibition opens in Georgetown today. There is not a very large number of exhibits in the Drill Shed so far, but those that are displayed are of the very best quality. There is a particularly large showing in the household class. The number of contestants for the prizes in bread, cakes, etc., are every indication that King's County should not be overlooked by ambitious bachelors who contemplate matrimony. The entries in the live stock will not all be in until this morning. It is anticipated that all these classes will be well represented. At twelve o'clock the exhibition will be formally opened by Lieutenant Governor McKinnon and the horse races are labeled to begin at one o'clock p. m.

One of the most exciting boat races of the season was held yesterday afternoon when the different lobster boats of the Province went over the regular course in the Charlottetown Harbor. A very heavy wind prevailed during the race which started about two o'clock and the contest was a close one from start to finish, the best time of any race this year being made. Many spectators from different points along the course were witness and many excited remarks could be heard from all sides. The first place was secured by Hazel M. owned by Ernest McInnis of this City who finished in two hours and forty-five minutes, while the Mayflower owned by Jack Corniol, City, was a close second, being only nine minutes behind. The Maple Leaf owned by Mr. Lund of St. Peter's Island made a good third she being only four minutes behind the Mayflower. The promoters of the race are to be congratulated on the success of their undertaking.
