Horse Races At St. Stephen

ST. STEPHEN, Sept. 16.—That the St. Stephen exhibition is getting bigger and better every year and that the people are always waiting for it was quite evident when more than twelve thousand passed through the gates.

The park was packed to capacity and a real afternoon's sport was witnessed by lovers of horse racing and baseball. The 2.23 class had eight starters and every heat was a race. The 2.11 class was won by Lady Grattan but was pushed hard all the way by Touz and Anna S. In the 2.16 mixed Little Peter proved too much for Royal McKinney and Lucky Strike and won in straight heats.

Following is the summary:

Grand Circuit. SYRACUSE, September 17.—Edward F. (Pop) Geers, veteran harness driver, suffered painful injuries when thrown from his sulky in the first race of the Grand Circuit card on the state fair track here this afternoon. The veteran driver drove Wiki Wiki to finish in second place in the 2.18 trot and just as the horse crossed the finish it stumbled and fell, throwing Geers heavily to the track. Geers sustained a severely sprained shoulder and wrist but hopes to be able to resume his driving at the Columbus meeting opening on Monday.
