

YESTERDAY'S STOCK AND BOND QUOTATIONS

MARKET GOSSIP

NEW YORK, June 19.—With the market showing a steady undertone, stock trading slumped down to professional week end operations yesterday.

Miscellaneous

MONTREAL, June 19.—Barley Canadian western No 3 40; oats feed No 1 30; flour spring wheat patents firsts 4.25; four seconds 4.20; four barrels 4.10; flour winter wheat patents choice 2.65-2.70; flour white corn 4.00; flour ton 37.25; shorts ton 15.25; middling ton 22.25; rolled oats bag 90 cents 2.70; hay No 2 per ton car lots 11.00; cheese Ontario 0.95-0.95; cheese Quebec 0.94-0.92; butter No 1 finest 10.15-10.14; eggs fresh specials in cartons 25; eggs fresh extras in cartons 24; eggs fresh firsts in cartons 20; potatoes No 1 North Carolina barrel 5.25; No 1 Bermuda crate 1.75; local white, per 80 pound bag 45-50; flour closed steady. Closing bids: Jan 50; Feb 56.8; March 57.6; April 58.3; May 59.1; June 59.6; July 59.1-52; Aug 59.3; Sep 59.2; Oct 57.58; Nov 57.1; Dec 55.2-53.

LIVERPOOL

Cotton spot good business done. Prices 5-6 cents higher. American middling fair 5.25; strict good middling 4.81; good middling 4.44; strict middling 4.30; middling 4.31; strict low middling 4.14; strict ordinary 3.94; good ordinary 4.14.

PRODUCE

MONTREAL, June 19.—Receipts of butter and cheese at Montreal continued to increase last week while egg receipts were again lower. Arrivals were 10,000 cases of eggs, 22,000 boxes of butter, 45,000 boxes of cheese. Prices of all three of these commodities firmed during the week. The butter market gained 1/2 cents per pound to close at 10 1/2 to 10 3/4 cents for extra or less of no quality. Cheese advanced a straight half cent closing at 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 cents for Ontario and 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 cents for Quebec. The higher prices being for colored. Eggs closed at 18 1/2 to 19 cents for mixed, 18 1/2 to 19 cents for seconds, for domestic and new potatoes only moderate and prices remained steady at recent levels.

The Montreal Curb Market

Table with columns: Stocks, High, Low, Close. Includes entries for Bank of Montreal, Canadian National, etc.

New York Curb

Table with columns: Stocks, High, Low, Close. Includes entries for Am. Cyan, A. S. Power, etc.

E. R. BROW 146 Richmond St., Charlottetown. Fire, Life, Accident, Sickness and Plate Glass Insurance at Lowest Rate. Agent at Summerside, Lloyd Lewis

NOW DISCHARGING One Carload Broken Muffets for FOX FEED. MUFFETS (Whole wheat) is superior because irradiated. Contains abundance vitamin C, so essential to healthy growth foxes. A Product of—Quaker Oats Company. WHOLESALE DISTRIBUTORS for CHARLOTTETOWN R. E. Mutch & Co. Ltd.—DeBlois Bros, Ltd.

Montreal Market Sidelights

MONTREAL, June 19.—The absence of stimulating news, and that lessened trading interest are associated with the advent of real summer weather, combined to make the Montreal market extremely dull during Saturday morning's trading. Stocks moved within a narrow area, suggesting some degree of stability, but their movements failed to indicate any change for the better in the business situation.

WHAT THE STOCK MARKET DID

Table with columns: Number of advances, Number of declines, etc. Includes entries for 130 83, 120 311, 112 112, 302 506.

Grain Market

WINNIPEG, June 18.—(By the Canadian Press)—Pulled down at the start by extreme weakness of Liverpool futures, the Winnipeg wheat market rallied during the balance of the brief week end session, today making up all but small fractions of the decline.

MINING STOCKS

Table with columns: Toronto, Ont., June 18.—Mining sales close. Includes entries for 3200 C. Research, 1000 B. Hilltop, etc.

CHICAGO

CHICAGO, June 18.—Wheat prices established new all-time bottom records today, showing a fall of 14 cents a bushel inside of a month, more than 20 per cent loss.

BONDED WHEAT

NEW YORK, June 18.—Bonded wheat closed 3 1/2 c. Close: July 49; Oct 51.

Stock Exchange Foreign Exchange

Table with columns: Stocks, High, Low, Close. Includes entries for Air India, Al Chemical, A. S. Rig, etc.

DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS HEADACHE INDIGESTION BILIOUSNESS CONSTIPATION

CENTRAL GUARDIAN

FISH AND POTATOES — The schooner "Silver Bell," Capt. Jordan, from Murray Harbor, P. E. I., is at Trenton wharf with a cargo of fish and potatoes, this being her second trip here this season, says the New Glasgow News.

O. R. T. VICE-PRESIDENT — Mr. J. J. Trainor, of Charlottetown, who is acting third vice-president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, who had been in Montreal on business in connection with the brotherhood, has returned home.

POLICE COURT — At the Police Court Saturday morning, a drunk in charge of motor car was remanded until today, a vagrant was fined $5 and costs or 5 days, an offender against the Prohibition Act was fined $500 and costs of six months.

HOME ON HOLIDAY — Miss Marion Hooper of Milton, who has been spending the past winter in Detroit, Michigan, has arrived in Strabourg, Sask. to visit her brother Mr. Jas. G. Hooper. Miss Hooper has already met many Islanders and reports crop prospects are good owing to the recent heavy rains.

SAD NEWS — The bowing up of the tanker Cymbeline at Montreal with the loss of 25 lives, is not without its effect here. Mr. Alex Corbett of the dining room staff of the Canadian National Hotel received the sad news that his father was among the victims of the disaster. Mr. Corbett left Saturday morning for Montreal.

CONVENTION IN MONCTON — The Y's Men's Clubs are holding their annual Maritime District Convention in Moncton Thursday and Friday of this week. The meetings will be presided over by N. D. MacLean, District Governor, the convention closing with the District Governor's Annual Banquet at Shediac Inn, Shediac, N. B., on Friday evening. Among the Inter-annual officers who will be present at the convention are Henry Grimes of Lawrence, Mass., International Secretary, and New Thompson of Belleville, Ont., Past International President. There are Y's Men's Clubs all over the world and will meet for their eleventh annual International Convention August 21 to 25 at Detroit, Mich., and Windsor, Ont., and will be presided over by Richard H. McCleery of Washington, Iowa, International President.

BRILLIANT RECITAL — The members of the Waterville Women's Institute met for their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Edward Boylan on May 10th. President presiding, meeting opened with Gramophone selection and 7 members answered roll call with a collection. Business arising out of correspondence pertaining to institute was discussed. It was decided that $1.00 be sent to Red Cross Society. A committee was appointed to fill out questionnaires to be forwarded to the different Conventions. A letter of sympathy was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Wisner and Family. The School Committee reported school room in need of cleaning, same to be attended to at a later date. Mrs. Edward Boylan and Mrs. Harry Mortimer were appointed delegates to attend the annual convention in Charlottetown. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Wisner. Meeting closed in the usual way. A delicious luncheon was served and a vote of thanks extended the hostess.

NOVENA CLOSURE — At the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer yesterday morning, Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan, D.D., assisting him were Rev. Father Enright, Deacon of Honor; Rev. Dr. Murphy, of St. Dunstan's and Rev. Wm. Treanor, of Boston; The Deacon of Mass was Rev. Father John Sullivan, master-deacon, Rev. Father Francis, Master of Ceremonies, Rev. Dr. McMahon, Assistant Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Eric Robin. The sermon was impressive and devout. Retreats were given by Father Treanor who was conducting the Novena on the Charity of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. The Mass was sung by the mixed choir, assisted by an orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Alex MacLean, organist. Yesterday evening the Novena was brought to a close by Father Treanor in the presence of His Excellency the Bishop, who presided at the Throne. A large congregation, taxing the capacity of the church, was present. Congregational praying and singing was followed by the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. At the close of the Benediction the congregation sang, Holy God We Praise Thy Name.

PERSONALS — Mr. and Mrs. James Paton returned from Halifax on Saturday night. Miss Helen Skerry Steele left Saturday morning on a three weeks visit to her aunt Mrs. Wilbur Hayes, Brighton, Mass. Miss Bessie B. Beer has arrived home from West Newton, Mass., to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Beer.

DISPUTE OVER WAGES — Considerable commotion was occasioned on Saturday evening by a number of men employed at the excavation of the Prince of Wales College proceeding in a body to interview the contractor, Major D. A. MacDonald, for an explanation why their wages had not been paid. It has been customary since the inauguration of employment relief work for wages to be paid weekly, and the men were under the impression that they would receive their wages on concluding their work on Saturday. The explanation given by the contractor was that the work being carried on in three shifts continuously, all the payables could not be made up on Saturday, and those whom it was intended to retain on the job the following week were asked to wait for their wages until Monday. A number of workmen expressed dissatisfaction with this arrangement and the police were subsequently called to disperse a crowd which had gathered at the scene of the altercation.

DISPUTE OVER WAGES — Considerable commotion was occasioned on Saturday evening by a number of men employed at the excavation of the Prince of Wales College proceeding in a body to interview the contractor, Major D. A. MacDonald, for an explanation why their wages had not been paid. It has been customary since the inauguration of employment relief work for wages to be paid weekly, and the men were under the impression that they would receive their wages on concluding their work on Saturday. The explanation given by the contractor was that the work being carried on in three shifts continuously, all the payables could not be made up on Saturday, and those whom it was intended to retain on the job the following week were asked to wait for their wages until Monday. A number of workmen expressed dissatisfaction with this arrangement and the police were subsequently called to disperse a crowd which had gathered at the scene of the altercation.

TENDERS — Tenders will be received by the undersigned until noon 27th, for the completion of a wing to the Summerside High School, Summerside, P. E. I. A certified cheque for 5% of the amount must be enclosed with bid. Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the Secretary of the School Board, Summerside, and the office of J. M. Hunter, architect, Charlottetown. Lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted. Secretary School Board, Summerside. 3815-6-20-1 Wk.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

THE BAPTIST CHURCH — The speaker at the morning service yesterday was the Rev. W. N. Byers, the newly appointed Secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance. Taking as his text 1. Tim 4, 1: "How amiable are Thy tabernacles O Lord of Hosts," Mr. Byers aptly paraphrased it as "How beautiful is the spirit of friendship where people meet for the Worship of God." The writer of this psalm, lonely, exiled, far from home is recalling the loved institutions of his happy youth.

STIPENDIARY MAGISTRATE'S COURT — At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court Saturday morning a man charged with unlawful consumption of liquor was fined $10 and costs or 10 days. SLIGHT BLAZE — The firemen were called out last night at 10:45 to extinguish a slight blaze in the planking at the West side of the Hillsborough Bridge.

POLICE PLANE ACTIVE — The people of the North Shore of Prince Edward Island see from time to time a seaplane flying along the coast. This is one of the six planes which have been put in operation by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police during the last month to patrol coastal waters of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, with two stations at Halifax, two at Shediac, and two at Gaspé. The work of the flying policemen is to check the positions and movements of vessels offshore and co-operate with police boats blocking attempts of rum runners in landing their supplies.

DISPUTE OVER WAGES — Considerable commotion was occasioned on Saturday evening by a number of men employed at the excavation of the Prince of Wales College proceeding in a body to interview the contractor, Major D. A. MacDonald, for an explanation why their wages had not been paid. It has been customary since the inauguration of employment relief work for wages to be paid weekly, and the men were under the impression that they would receive their wages on concluding their work on Saturday. The explanation given by the contractor was that the work being carried on in three shifts continuously, all the payables could not be made up on Saturday, and those whom it was intended to retain on the job the following week were asked to wait for their wages until Monday. A number of workmen expressed dissatisfaction with this arrangement and the police were subsequently called to disperse a crowd which had gathered at the scene of the altercation.

INSTITUTE MEETING — The members of the Waterville Women's Institute met for their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Edward Boylan on May 10th. President presiding, meeting opened with Gramophone selection and 7 members answered roll call with a collection. Business arising out of correspondence pertaining to institute was discussed. It was decided that $1.00 be sent to Red Cross Society. A committee was appointed to fill out questionnaires to be forwarded to the different Conventions. A letter of sympathy was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Wisner and Family. The School Committee reported school room in need of cleaning, same to be attended to at a later date. Mrs. Edward Boylan and Mrs. Harry Mortimer were appointed delegates to attend the annual convention in Charlottetown. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Wisner. Meeting closed in the usual way. A delicious luncheon was served and a vote of thanks extended the hostess.

PERSONALS — Mr. and Mrs. James Paton returned from Halifax on Saturday night. Miss Helen Skerry Steele left Saturday morning on a three weeks visit to her aunt Mrs. Wilbur Hayes, Brighton, Mass. Miss Bessie B. Beer has arrived home from West Newton, Mass., to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Beer.

DISPUTE OVER WAGES — Considerable commotion was occasioned on Saturday evening by a number of men employed at the excavation of the Prince of Wales College proceeding in a body to interview the contractor, Major D. A. MacDonald, for an explanation why their wages had not been paid. It has been customary since the inauguration of employment relief work for wages to be paid weekly, and the men were under the impression that they would receive their wages on concluding their work on Saturday. The explanation given by the contractor was that the work being carried on in three shifts continuously, all the payables could not be made up on Saturday, and those whom it was intended to retain on the job the following week were asked to wait for their wages until Monday. A number of workmen expressed dissatisfaction with this arrangement and the police were subsequently called to disperse a crowd which had gathered at the scene of the altercation.

$200 Will replace a $10,000 loss! ANY business man whose estate has shrunk about $10,000 during recent years has lost exactly that amount of protection for his family. The question now is how to replace it. It can be done, and done quickly. For $200, the approximate annual premium on a $10,000 Confederation Life policy ("Super-Select" Series), the average man can at once replace $10,000 of capital in his estate. Moreover, this $10,000 cannot be affected by business conditions, and will become payable, one hundred cents on the dollar, at the time of greatest need. Write for particulars of this most useful and economical Estate Replacement Plan. Confederation Life Association, Toronto. Please send me details of your Estate Replacement Plan. Name: Address: Approximate premium at age 35. Confederation Life Association Head Office: TORONTO