FOR 25 CENTS YOU CAN MAKE YOUR HAIR LUSTROUS, FLUFFY AND ABUNDANT.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant, and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected, or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

Steam Navigation Wharf

Successful beyond the most sanguine expectations, the Red Cross parade on Saturday afternoon was witnessed by large and enthusiastic crowds. The sight was a unique one and was quite a novelty so far as Charlottetown was concerned, and the Society is much indebted to all who helped to make the parade the success it was. Special credit is due the promoters, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McNeil, Brighton Road, who conceived the idea, and under whose direction the affair was got up. That the public appreciated the innovation and was in hearty sympathy with it was evidenced by the magnificent collection which was made, $135. The parade was accompanied by members of the 4th Regiment Band. There were a number of collectors and the two highest amounts, $18 and $12 were secured by Misses Isabel Toombs and Lizzie Coleman, respectively. The various vehicles engaged in the procession were splendidly decorated and the representative tableaux were interesting and impressive. A particularly amusing one was the effigy of the Kaiser. This was a straw-stuffed impersonation of the Emperor, which was afterwards burned to the strains of Rule Britannia. Over the "Kaiser," radiantly triumphant, stood Master Phillip McDonald, who looked for a moment the part he played, John Bull. The parade left the drill shed at two o'clock, and the route of procession was as follows: Up Kent street, into Great George street, down Grafton street, and into Queen street, Richmond street, Prince street, Water street, Queen street, Kent street, back to the drill shed, which was reached at three-thirty. The procession stopped twice, once at the corner of Sunny Side and Queen street and again at the Victoria Hotel to allow the collectors an opportunity to exercise their powers of persuasion. The following were arranged: "The Hospital," (Messrs. Paton's team), doctors, Peter Campbell and Walter Power; nurses, Sadie Acorn and Beatrice Power; two wounded soldiers, Willie Hyndman and Stewart McNutt.

"P. E. Island Oats," (Team lent by Mr. McKay, of Royalty), Lilah and Ralph Worthy, Grace Campbell, Arthur McLellan, Muriel McLean, Evelyn Jenkins, Annie Nowell, Harry Hyndman, Stewart McDonald, Hilda Hessian, Eileen McEachern, Arthur McEachern, Alice McEachern. "Britannia," (Messrs. Beer and Weeks' team), Britannia, Edith Nowell; Canada, Edith Jenkins; India, Isabel Phail; Australia, Helen Carboneil; South Africa, Nora McNeven; Togoland, Sam Campbell; Guinea, Jim Campbell. These little persons were all dressed in the national costumes of the respective countries, and the sight was effective. "His Country's Call," (Dominion Express Company's team), British Empire, Dorothy Nowell; A Soldier, Bob Weeks; his wife, Doris Tait; and child, Eleanor Cook.

"Britons Never Shall be Slaves" (Mr. A. Horne's vehicle), John Bull, Patrick Keenan's horse, John Bull, Phillip McDonald; sailors, Charlie Cook, Wilfred Duffy, George Auld, Bruce Pickard; Scouts, Frank Nowell, Allan Forsythe, Allan Stewart, Lloyd Jenkins; and the stuffed Kaiser. Indian Scene (Tableau got up by Col. Peake.) On the horse, Charlie Jenkins; Squaw and Brave, two little Peakes.

"It's a Long Way to Tipperary" was represented by Neil McLean, who rode a horse bearing this true statement. The Collectors were: The Rose, Molly Nowell; Shamrock, Jean Boyer; Thistle, Lizzie Coleman; Maple Leaf, Frances Acorn; France, Isabel Toombs; Belgium, Dora McDonald; Russia, Bessie Forsythe; Scout, Theodore Bayer; Clown, Ted Power; Baseball Player, Tommy Coleman. There were also a number of cadets.

It is suggested that a parade of this nature might be made an annual institution in aid of the Hospitals, as is the case in the Old Country. To those who lent their teams, to the parents of the children who took part and the children themselves, and above all to Mr. and Mrs. Nowell, who were responsible for the decoration of the procession, every credit is due. Mr. Vanderstede, the door-keeper at the Drill Shed, also lent much assistance and was courteous to all who wished to have access to the place. The Society also wishes to thank the local theatres and the Press.

Dr. Church comes fresh from college with the latest teachings and equipment and is being welcomed as a citizen. The writer speaks for him the patronage of the farmers of Prince County. Dr. Church will bring with him from his stock farm in Nova Scotia four standard-bred horses, including the Acadian, who will be well remembered for the wonderful showing he made here last year as a three-year-old in the stallion race.—X.

WEDDING BELLS.—In the First Methodist Church at 6.45 o'clock this morning there will take place an interesting and pretty event. It is the marriage, by Rev. J. L. Dawson, of Mr. William T. Welner, of Charlottetown, to Miss Belle Lenore Westaway, of Lower Montague. The bride will be given away by her father, Mr. Roger Westaway, and the bridesmaid will be her sister Margart, also of Montague. The best man will be Professor W. Davison, of Prince of Wales College, and the ushers Messrs. R. E. Colwell and Preston McLaine. Little "Daisy," the bride's niece, will act as ring-bearer. The choir will be in attendance and Professor Thomson will play the wedding march. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Welner will leave Charlottetown on a two-week's trip to New York. Mrs. Welner's traveling dress will be royal blue.

INTERESTING RACES.—An interesting day's racing was held at Peake's Station on Monday on the easy, well-kept track owned by Mr. J. J. Peake. A special train left Charlottetown at 10 o'clock in the morning, and there were on board fully 200 persons. The races were keenly contested and afforded considerable excitement. The first event was the Match race, between Comet and Windsor Boy, and was a hard win for Comet. In the 3-minute class Dry Cleaner was first with Arien second hard behind. Ferndale was third and Happy Jack fourth. The Comet also started, but meeting with an accident had to be withdrawn. The Green race was another splendid event and was won by Barney Mack, with Iona Boy and Brazilian, Tom second and third, respectively. The best time was 1.13. The prize in the 3-minute class was a $50 purse offered by the Farm Stock and Fox Exchange. The Exchange also gave the prizes in the Green race, the first prize being a driving third, horse rug.

WEDDING BELLS.—St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus, was the scene of an interesting event Tuesday, Oct. 6th, when Miss Stella Florence Commiskey, daughter of Hon. James H. Commiskey, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Walter A. Mullen, son of Mr. Daniel Mullen, Ten Mile House. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. McDonald, P. P. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked exceedingly pretty in a gown of white tulle and tulle, with pearl and chiffon trimmings, and wore a veil with lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Ida Commiskey, who looked most attractive in a costume of reseda silk supported by Mr. Basil McDonald, Tracadie, who discharged the duties of groomsmen in a most capable manner. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride where a sumptuous repast was partaken of, only the immediate friends being present. Both the bride and groom are very popular, as shown by the many beautiful gifts including chiques from friends abroad. In the afternoon the happy couple left for Charlottetown, where they took the western express to Summerside on a short trip through the Maritime Provinces. Heartiest congratulations.

A very sad accident took place on board the schooner Clentonia, on October 1st, when George M. Gibson, one of the ship's crew, met with an untimely death. While under sail off East Point, the laws of the mainmast gave away, causing it to fall. In its descent it struck Gibson on the head and arm breaking the latter. He suffered also some internal injuries. Immediately after the accident the G. S. Constance was summoned and the body was taken to the residence of Mr. J. J. Horne, Souris, where he died at 7.30 p. m. on the same day.

Efforts were made to locate the relatives of the deceased, but without any success. The funeral which was largely attended, took place from Dingwell's Undertaking rooms and notwithstanding the fact that the crew of the different ships of the American fleet and the friends of the deceased were loud in their appreciation of the splendid manner in which the funeral took place. Captain Beck and the entire crew wish to take this opportunity of thanking Mr. Dingwell, Mr. Horne and others for their many kindnesses and attentions shown. The deceased was sixty-six years old and was born at Houlton, Me., and it is understood that he has relatives prominent in business circles in Philadelphia. The services held at Dingwell's Undertaking Rooms and at the grave, were conducted by the Rev. Mr. MacIntosh. The crew of the Clentonia were the pall-bearers.

THURSDAY

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT.—The marriage of Miss Annie Bagnall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. E. Bagnall, Hazel Grove, to Mr. Louis H. Muttart, will take place quietly at the home of the bride's parents on October the twentieth.

"FIRE ALARMS."—Two fire alarms were sounded in Summerside Tuesday. The first one, about 10 a. m. for a slight fire at the residence of Mr. William Sullivan, Cranville Street. Some bedding had been put by the stove to dry and afterwards put out in the porch, where it smoldered for a few minutes and took fire. There was no damage. The second alarm was about 5.10 p. m. for a fire at the residence of Dr. A. A. McLellan. The fireman responded promptly and were on the spot in a minute. However, there was nothing more than smoke and a little excitement.—Y.

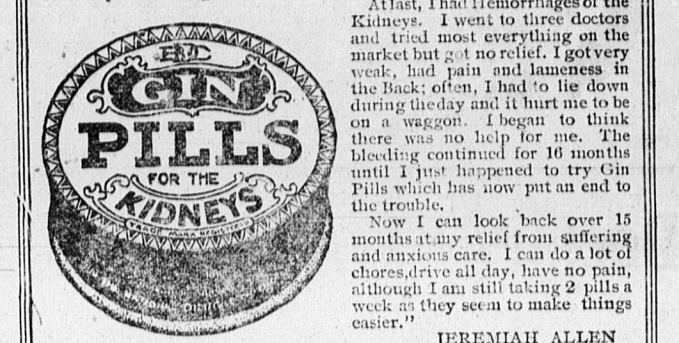

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Alfred Glover, Kensington, on Tuesday, Oct. 6th at 4 o'clock, p. m., when Miss Edna Earle Delaney, youngest daughter of Mrs. W. H. Profit, was united in marriage to Mr. Edward D. Stewart, of French River. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. Y. Irvine, of Clifton, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was tastefully gowned, trimmed with fur, and hat to match. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful gold watch and fob. After the ceremony the guests partook of a sumptuous supper served by the hostess. The happy couple left the following morning on a tour to Boston and other cities in the United States. Their many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Stewart many happy years of wedded life.

RECEPTION.—A grand reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Agnew, Alberton, on Thursday evening, Oct. 8, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Agnew. A very large number of young and old gathered to felicitate the newly married couple and to wish them a happy journey through life. Both the groom and bride are well acquainted in Alberton, the latter having taught in the High School here recently, and the numerous and costly presents received testified to their extreme popularity. The reception was a dual one, the first from seven till nine for the older people, and the other from half-past nine till twelve, attended chiefly though not exclusively by the young people. Those who attended the first were entertained by some excellent vocal and instrumental music, the chief performers being Mrs. John Wells, Mrs. Emerson McNeill and Miss Mary Keefe. These selections were also interspersed by some very nice graphophone music. Then last, but certainly not least, an excellent meal was served, which will be proud of. After this had been done full justice to the company sang "God Save the King" and dispersed to their homes to make room for the young people. These began to arrive about half-past nine and soon about fifty or more had gathered. After tendering their felicitations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Agnew, they all repaired to the spacious dining room where dancing was indulged in to the enjoyment of all. The dances included lancers, quadrilles, waltzes, and two steps. The enthusiasm displayed by the older guests present, played by the older guests present, was certainly never served as an incentive to younger people if they received any. After about three pleasant hours spent in this way the guests were arranged in a rather unique manner and many dainties were served which could not but satisfy the tastes of the most fastidious. The singing of "And Lang Syne," "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" and the National Anthem brought to an end a very enjoyable evening. The company then separated, after repeating their good wishes to the bride and groom and thanking the host and hostess for their lavish hospitality.—A.

Fine Old Gentleman Suffered 40 Years With His Kidneys

He even had Hemorrhages from the Kidneys, so you may know how bad he was. Yet today, at 67 years, Mr. Allen is able to do a good day's work or enjoy a long drive without the least pain. This is what Gin Pills did for him. They will do as much for you if you have any Kidney or Bladder Trouble.

Port Elgin, N.B. November 12th.
"I feel it my duty, for the sake of those afflicted with similar troubles, to send you these few lines about Gin Pills. I am about 67 years old and have been troubled with Kidney Trouble since I was 25 years old. This was brought on by my getting over-heated and then sitting on cold steps in a draught.

At last, I had Hemorrhages of the Kidneys. I went to three doctors and tried most everything on the market but got no relief. I got very weak, had pain and lameness in the back; often, I had to lie down during the day and it hurt me to be on a wagon. I began to think there was no help for me. The bleeding continued for 16 months until I just happened to try Gin Pills which has now put an end to the trouble.

Now I can look back over 15 months at my relief from suffering and anxious care. I can do a lot of chores, drive all day, have no pain, although I am still taking 2 pills a week as they seem to make things easier."
