
Enemies of Tea

If tea is left open near oranges, soap, spices, matches, etc., the tea will take on the flavor of any of these articles.

In fact, tea absorbs odors as readily as does butter. This is because it becomes so dry and brittle in passing through the firing or drying oven that it becomes very sensitive to the moisture and odors in the air.

When loose in the chest or bin or bag it quickly loses flavor and strength. Tastes flat, weak, old; dear at any price.

This is why Red Rose is never sold in bulk—but always in sealed packages. The armour that keeps our dust and odors and keeps in the flavor and strength.

The price printed on the package protects you against overcharge. It is the lowest price for which a tea of Red Rose quality can be sold—a price which allows the grocer only a fair profit.

You will enjoy the distinctive flavor and rich strength of Red Rose Tea. Try a package.

Sold Only in Sealed Packages

THE LONG WATI,

Bill Nye, when a young man, once made an engagement with a lady friend of his to take her driving on a Sunday afternoon. The appointed day came but at the livery stable all the horses were taken out save one old, shagy, exceedingly bony horse. Mr. Nye hired the nag and drove to his friend's house. The lady let him wait nearly an hour before she was ready, and then on viewing the disreputable outfit, flatly refused to accompany Mr. Nye. "Why," she exclamined sneeringly "that horse may die of age any moment."

"Madame," Mr. Nye replied, "when I arrived, that horse was a prancing young steed."

::Pills For Nervous Troubles.—The stomach is the centre of the nervous system, and when the stomach suspends healthy action the result is manifest in disturbances of the nerves. If allowed to persist, nervous debility, a dangerous ailment, may ensue. The first consideration is to restore the stomach to proper action, and there is no readier remedy for this than Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. Thousands can attest the virtue of these pills in curing nervous disorders.

IN MEMORIAM

CHARLES HENRY.

There passed away on Sunday, a man who was well known in this city, more especially in former years, Charles Henry who came here from Prince Edward Island about the time that " the boom struck Sydney. He was associated one way or another with several of our prominent citizens, and by his sprightliness and energy became very well known. In recent years he supervised the fine garden of Dr. J. K. McLeod and as he was an acknowledged expert in agriculture he succeeded in producing vegetables and flowers that easily won prizes at all the exhibitions where they were shown—Sydney Post.

ALPHONSUS DESROCHE.

It is with feeling of deep regret that the death is chronicled of Alphonsus Desrtoches which occurred at his home at Rustico, P. E. I., on Thursday, May 3rd. at the age of 78 years. Deceased had been in failing health all winter but he bore his long painful illness with true Christian fortitude ever resigning himself to the will of the Divine Master. During his illness he was frequently visited by his pastor, Rev. Father Chaisson, who administered to him the last rites of the Holy Catholic Church and when the end came he meekly yielded up his spirit into the hands of the Omnipotent with confidence of eternal reward. His wife predeceased him many years. He leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father, seven sons, John of Moncton, N. B., James and Emmett at Rustico, Alexis at Wheatley River, Joseph in Saskatchewan, Bernard at Summerside and Augustine in New Brunswick all of whom were home with the exception of Joseph and Bernard. The funeral which was largely attended was held at St. Augustins Church where Requiem High Mass was sung by the Pastor, after which all that was mortal of a kind and sincere Christian was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. The pall bearers were his five sons and his nephew Alexis Doiron. May his soul rest in peace.—O.

ALFRED WALLACE OWEN.

The death occurred in this city Monday evening at 9.30 o'clock, after a comparatively brief illness, of Mr. Alfred Wallace Owen, at the age of seventy-four years. He was born in Charlottetown and was the youngest son of the late Mr. Thomas Owen, formerly Postmaster here. In his early days, he was employed in the office of his brother the late Hon. Lemuel C. Owen, who was at that time engaged in business with the late Captain Welsh, the firm being known as Welsh & Owen. Subsequently, Mr. Owen entered into partnership with the late Senator McDonald and they conducted a business here, under the name of McDonald & Owen. After the dissolution of the partnership Mr. Owen went to Ottawa in the year 1879, and entered the Civil Service. He steadily rose in the service until he became Chief Accountant of the Department of Marine and Fisheries. This position he held for a number of years retiring about eight years ago on superannuation allowance. The deceased was twice married. His first wife was Miss Ross of Pictou. Five children were born to them, namely, Fred of Boston and who is expected home today; Ross who occupies a responsible position with the C. P. R., in Petrograd, Lieut. Wallace, who enlisted in Western Canada who has recently been promoted to Captain on the field; Miss Lillian, trained nurse, who is in charge of a hospital at Zamboanga, Philippine Islands and Pte. Guy, who was killed in action last fall, while fighting in the Princess Patricias Regiment.

Mr. Owen's second wife who susvives him is a daughter of the late Hon. Francis Longworth. There were two children to this marraige, namely, Lieut. Beverley Owen, who enlisted in an English regiment and is now at the front and Miss Helen Owen in Charlottetown.

Besides his widow, he also leaves to mourn one brother Captain Charles Owen in Charlottetown, and one sister Mrs. G. H. McGowan, in New Westminister.

The late Mr. Owen was a most competent official and his association with the Department of Marine and Fisheries made him well known in different parts of Canada. He was a man of high order of intelligence and of most genial personality and enjoyed a wide popularity. The news of the death of his son who was killed in battle was a severe blow to him, and no doubt was one of the causes which led to his health breaking down.

To his widow, family and other relatives the sincere sympathy of all will be extended.

Health for Sick Women

For Forty Years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Been Woman's Most Reliable Medicine —Here is More Proof.

To women who are suffering from some form of woman's special ills, and have a constant fear of breaking down, the three following letters ought to bring hope:—

North Crandon, Wis.—"When I was 16 years old I got married and at 18 years I gave birth to twins and it left me with very poor health. I could not walk across the floor without having to sit down to rest and it was hard for me to keep about and do my work. I went to a doctor and he told me I had a displacement and ulcers, and would have to have an operation. This frightened me so much that I did not know what to do. Having heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I thought I would give it a trial and it made me as well as ever. I cannot say enough in favor of the Pinkham remedies."—Mrs. Mayme Asbach, North Crandon, Wis.

Testimony from Oklahoma.

Lawton, Okla.—"When I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I seemed to be good for nothing. I tired easily and had headaches much of the time and was irregular. I took it again before my little child was born and it did me a wonderful amount of good at that time. I never fail to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to ailing women because it has done so much for me."—Mrs. A. L. McCasland, 509 Have St., Lawton, Okla.

From a Grateful Massachusetts Woman.

Roxbury, Mass.—"I was suffering from inflammation and was examined by a physician who found that my trouble was caused by a displacement. My symptoms were bearing down pains, backache, and sluggish liver. I tried several kinds of medicine; then I was asked to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has cured me and I am pleased to be in my usual good health by using it and highly recommend it."—Mrs. B. M. Osgood, 1 Haynes Park, Roxbury, Mass.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
