The Human Eye
Complex and intricate in its structure and functions, is worthy of the best possible care that can be given it.
If your eyes are troubling you, do not be so unwise as to neglect them.
An examination will uncover the cause of the trouble and glasses will probably completely relieve it.

Murray Harbor
In Murray Harbor and vicinity the Christmas week has been a very enjoyable one. Weather conditions have been especially favorable. It is not often that the Christmas season is celebrated here without frost or snow.

—RADIO A. B. and C. Batteries. Fresh stock at Brace's. 7363-12-29-31.

On the evening of Dec. 23rd, in the Public Hall, Murray Harbor, an entertainment was put on by the members of the Sunday School of the United Church, and enjoyed by a large audience. The Reverend T. R. Goudge presided. The decorated Christmas tree held fruit and candy for Cradle Roll and Sunday School members.

—STUDENTS HOME FOR HOLIDAYS—Among the students spending the Christmas holidays at their homes in Kensington, are the Misses Doris McKenzie, Blanche Hughes, Marion Bernard, Dot Bowness, Linda Hardy and Maud Campbell, and Messrs. Miller Waite, George Dennis, Don Baker and Bill McLean, who are all attending P. W. C.—K.

The regular weekly meeting of the Sons of Temperance, King George Division No. 281, which met on the evening of Dec. 22nd, was well attended. There were 74 members present, and one new member was added. During the past few weeks quite a number of young people have been initiated into the order, and the attendance is much larger than during the busy summer and autumn periods. Those who took part in the volunteer programme were: Mr. A. D. McDonald gave the old humorous reading, "How We Licked The Teacher." Genuine laughter and loud applause showed the appreciation of the division; a good encore followed. Chester Cooper, Jr., and Alfred Chapman gave splendid instrumental music; this also brought an encore. Mr. Wallace White, comic speeches; Mr. David Brooks, a humorous recitation; an exchange of Christmas gifts among members, gifts were distributed by Mr. Ray Brooks. The Juvenile Band of this Division, the Prince of Wales, is going forward in a very successful manner. The work done by the Division members who are in charge of the Band children, is certainly worthy of praise, and should receive a hearty "Thank you" from friends and parents. In a general way their work is appreciated, may they have courage to continue the good work.

—BEDEQUE UNITED CHURCH of Canada, Rev. L. P. Archibald, Minister. Services for Sunday, Jan. 1st, Bedeque 11 a.m., Borden 3 p.m., Searlestown 3 p.m., Cape Traverse 7:30 p.m. Rev. J. L. Lund of Tryon will preach at Searlestown and the Minister at all other services.

On the evening of Dec. 26th, in the Public Hall, the members of the Baptist and Presbyterian Sunday Schools held their annual entertainment and Christmas tree. A good attendance was present and all enjoyed the programme. The Reverend Allister Murray was present, and delivered a short address for the occasion. At the close of the programme, presents were distributed to members. The children were having a real good time. Mr. Jas. Brooks presided.

—CARD PARTIES—Two very enjoyable card parties were held under the auspices of the C. W. L. of Indian River during the Christmas holidays. On Monday night, Dec. 26th, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hughes, Kensington, entertained a large number, eighteen tables of auction forty-fives being in play. The ladies' and gents' prizes were won by Miss Margaret MacLellan, Indian River and Mr. Bernard MacDougald, Kensington, respectively. The "Freeze-out" which followed, proved a very popular part of the program. This was won by Mr. Harold Goodwin, Kensington. Mrs. Hughes is to be congratulated for the successful introduction of this exciting feature. Lunch was served and dancing indulged in for a few hours. On Wednesday night, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gillis, Indian River, were host and hostess and again eighteen tables were playing. A remarkable co-incidence was that Miss Margaret MacLellan, Indian River again won the ladies' prize. The gents' prize went to Mr. Joseph Delaney. The "Freeze-out" was won by Mr. Leslie Ramsay. Delicious refreshments were served and the large kitchen cleared for the ever popular dance, which whirled away a few more happy hours.—K.

On Sunday the broadcast from the British Dominion was received well by radio fans in Murray Harbor and vicinity.

On Sunday evening the service of worship in the United Church was largely attended. Scripture readings from Psalm 85 and from St. Luke's Gospel, Chap. 2. The text of the splendid address delivered by the Pastor, the Reverend T. R. Goudge, was also from the 2nd Chapter, Luke, part of the 15th verse, "Let us now go even unto Bethlehem." Hymns for the service were chosen from the Hymnary. The choir rendered a Christmas anthem. Miss Bertha Chapman was the Soloist. The service on Sunday, January 1st, will be held at 11 a. m.—P.

PRESENTATION

On Thursday evening postal officials of Kensington waited upon the Postmaster and his lady assistant to give testimony of their high appreciation of the excellent service that is given to the public in this important institution. The chairman introduced the event and called upon Mr. J. A. Ready to amplify the sentiments of the officials.

Mr. Lloyd Howard, Postmaster, Kensington, Dear Friend:—At this glorious yuletide, the whole Christian world rejoices. We are reminded that we shall give expression to our sentiments of gratitude to all who have been kind to us, who have assisted in making the performance of the duties of life most agreeable. In this capacity, none have surpassed you in this most helpful and pleasant consideration. You have exercised over us a most pleasant, a most assisting care and have softened the asperities that may have appeared. Your patient support and your competent supervision were ever offered, and, we trust, gratefully received. Many years may you continue to discharge the duties that you are so competent to perform, and may we all continue to be as appreciative as we here express and accept our modest testimony of Christmas greeting, and be always confident that we will ever admire your efficient performance of duty, as we always have done. We, also, wish to give expression to our sentiments of appreciation of the capable and polite service of your assistants, Miss Ruth Hiltz and Miss Marion Lockhart, who are the very perfection of the lady born. You, ladies, have shown patience and ability that embellish the effect of your labors, and we can assure you that the public admire and enjoy the complete service rendered by Kensington Post Office, Cyril Conmick, Guy Duggan, Gerald Gorman, Hans Blakney, James Dunphy, W. L. Delaney, Robert Dunphy, J. A. Ready.

Postmaster Howard accepted the address and the accompanying gift for self, a complete shaving set, and for ladies a beautiful manicure set, with a gratitude that was eloquent and avowed that he always determined to serve the public in a gentlemanly and polite manner, and he was ever amply rewarded. Chivalry shows the well-bred lady and gentleman. The remarks made by the mail officials firmly endorsed the sentiment expressed in the formal address and all wished the postal officials of Kensington life-long tenure of office. The gifts presented to the ladies were most gratefully received, and they averred that they had done what they believed only their duty, and they were overjoyed to learn that the public are gratified by this most necessary service.—Y

You're been tearing along at about 80 miles an hour, Mike, and I'll have to report you. What's your name.
Prudence.

Indian River, Dec. 25, 1932.
Rev. R. F. MacDonald.
Reverend and Dear Father:— As this joyous and holy season of Christmas approaches, it has become an established practice for friends to exchange felicitations and express fond hopes for a full measure of happiness and prosperity in the New Year. For more than three years, you have labored for us, and with us and we, your devoted parishioners, take this opportunity of extending our sincere felicitations and expressing in some tangible way our appreciation for your noble efforts and the wonderful results you have achieved in the parish since you became its pastor.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTATION AT INDIAN RIVER

Midnight Mass was largely attended. An eloquent and inspiring sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. R. F. MacDonald, who also celebrated Mass. After the ceremony and instructive discourse, the elders approached the sanctuary, attracted the attention of Father MacDonald and presented him with the splendid address, which was accompanied by a purse. The address was read by Mr. James L. Saunders in a clear resonant voice, audible in every part of the large church. Father MacDonald was taken completely by surprise. After a momentary pause and a deep sigh of satisfaction and joy in duty well done, in happy retrospect, he reviewed the spiritual and temporal affairs of Indian River parish for the last four years. He thanked the congregation in a heartfelt manner for the unselfish co-operation which he received, and without which it would have been impossible to arrive at the high point of excellence attained.

We wish to assure you that at all times we were willing and glad to co-operate with you in the carrying of this work; a work for which we have been fully repaid, in the realization that we were instrumental in adding materially to the value and appearance of our parochial property. It is a source of gratification to us that although much of your time has been taken up attending to the temporal affairs of the parish, you have given your best to our spiritual wants. As shown by your recent census, our parish is rapidly increasing in numbers, and one has only to attend our services to note a remarkable increase in the devotion and faith of our parishioners.

We ask you Father to accept this gift, necessarily small in itself, but we assure you it carries with it the love and respect of a devoted congregation. That the Blessings of the New Year be bestowed upon you and may God direct and bless your labors in the years to come, is the prayer of your devoted parishioners.
Signed in behalf of the parishioners.

BRINGING UP FATHER

TAKE THIS BILL RIGHT OVER TO MR. HARD CRACKER'S OFFICE. TELL HIM THIS IS DUE AND WE INSIST UPON IT BEING PAID.

YES—MR. JIGGS, I'LL GO RIGHT OVER.

WELL—WHAT DO YOU WANT?

MR. HARD CRACKER—I HAVE A BILL HERE AGAINST YOU FOR TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS—WHAT SAY YOU—EH?

GEE—I WANT TO GET RID OF THAT GUY THAT MAGGIE PICKED TO BE MY SECRETARY. BUT I SHOULDN'T HAVE SENT HIM TO MR. HARD CRACKER—HE'LL KILL HIM IF HE TRIES TO COLLECT THAT BILL.

MR. HARD CRACKER ONLY HAD ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY DOLLARS—SO I MADE HIM GIVE ME HIS WATCH FOR THE BALANCE—

WHAT?
