—BACK TO ST. PAUL—Sister Borgia, who has been visiting her father, Mr. Alexander McDonald, Kensington, left on Tuesday morning on return to St. Paul, Minn. K.

—ANOTHER SURE SIGN OF SUMMER—Summer must be here, although some days it does not feel much like it. The Summerside Quilts Club has started operations on their pitches on the Armory Square, and members may be seen there nightly, many of them in their shirt sleeves.—S

—CHURCH MEETING.—At the monthly meeting of the W. A. of St. Mary's Church, Summerside, some very interesting matters were discussed and arrangements made for members to attend the bi-annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary in Kensington. It was also decided to hold a strawberry festival on the Rectory grounds early in July.—S.

—SICK AT SPRING VALLEY.—The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. Garne Profit, high pressure salesman of the A. Horne Co. Charlottetown, will be sorry to hear that he has been very seriously ill with rheumatic fever for some time. He is somewhat improved but it will necessarily be a considerable time before he will be on regular duty.—K.

—RINK CONTRACT LET.—Contract for the erection of Kensington skating rink has been let to Noye Bros. of Ellerslie. Work will commence soon. The structure will be 208ft. x 80ft. It will be a modern up-to-date building of its kind. The roof covering will be of corrugated iron supplied by a firm in Ontario. The lumber is being supplied by R. T. Holman Co. The great Canadian national winter pastime will receive a great fillip at Kensington next winter.—K.

—ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Prince County Hospital was held in the parlour of the Hospital on Wednesday afternoon the President, Miss Eleanor Green, presiding. The reports from the different committees were read and the financial report showed the Aid to be in a good financial position. The reports also showed that the ladies have been very active and from different sources have obtained funds for equipping and furnishing the new Nurses' Home, which is now very nicely fitted up. The officers for this year were all re-elected with the exception of the Secretary, Mrs. Maynard Schurman, who is retiring and Mrs. L. A. Moore was appointed in her place. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. Schurman for her very efficient services and her resignation was very much regretted. Vice Presidents appointed from each church. The official report will be published later in connection with the annual meeting of the trustees of the hospital which takes place on Thursday, June 20th.—S.

—MUSICAL RECITAL.—That Professor Thompson's weekly visits to Kensington have not been in vain was amply demonstrated on Tuesday evening, May 28th when his pupils gave a recital in King George hall, before a large and appreciative audience. Every member of the class interpreted their part in a manner highly creditable to their teacher. They were assisted by Mr. Malcolm McKinnon, bass, and Miss Christina Miller, soprano soloists and Mr. Wm. Bruce, elocutionist of Charlottetown. The programme consisted of a pleasing variety of piano and vocal duets, solos and readings, as follows:— Piano Solo; Valse in E flat. Mary Ready; Vocal Solo; "Rose in the Bud." Vera McLeod; Vocal duet; "Alou Ohi" (Nat. song of Hawaii) Anna Cousins and Dorothy McKenzie; Vocal solo; "A May Morning." Olive Dalziel; Piano solo; "Valsette." Isabelle McLean; Piano duet; "Valse Venetienne." Mrs. H. F. Morrison and Prof. Thompson; Vocal solo; "Do you believe in Fairies?" Cecelia Glover; Piano solo; "At the Masquerade." Jean McKenzie; Recitation; "Playing Soldier." Gertrude Gillis; Vocal duet, "Watchman, what of the Night?" Mr. and Mrs. Harold Leard; Vocal solo; "Beautiful Land of Nod." Blossom Rogers; Piano solo. "The Mill Wheel" Gertrude Gillis; Vocal solo; "Your Song of Paradise." Mrs. Harold Leard; Vocal solo; "Love, here is my Heart." Miriam Profit; Vocal solo; "Cupid and I," from comic opera. The Serenade, Mrs. Preston Kennedy. K.

—PLANTING AND SOWING proceeded at an unusually rapid pace during the clear, though somewhat cool days of the week end, endeavoring, no doubt, to catch up for lost time.

An Attic Salt-Shaker (Continued from Page 10). OCTAVE MIRBEAU, French writer, sold his collection of paintings by Renoir—which had been bought not long before from the painter himself—for three times their cost. A friend congratulated him on the deal.

"Humph!" snorted Mirbeau. "Nothing of the sort! I couldn't write a line for a whole year on account of those accused paintings. The very lowest estimate of what it cost me to know Renoir is 250,000 francs!"

LAUDING the loyalty of American and English audiences to their favorite singers, Henry Russell, who for years directed the Boston Opera Company, declares (in "The Passing Show") that it is not so with the Italian public as the celebrated Adeline Patti once discovered to her chagrin.

SHE had not been heard in Rome for many years, and suddenly decided to give a concert there. Unfortunately, one of the songs she chose to sing was "Il Bacio." Its first line begins: "Give me a kiss on the lips."

PATTI, who was nearly seventy, and really looked older, dressed and behaved like a much younger woman. Her voice was still marvelous in the medium, but shrill and unpleasant in high note, and when she repeated smilingly to the public, "Give me a kiss on the lips," there came from the gallery shouts of: "To late, my dear, too late."
