—FINE PERFORMANCE. Another sterling performance by the Young-Adams Company rounded out their engagement in Summerside on Saturday night, when they staged the famous Belasco success, "The Girl from the Ranch." There was a large attendance at Happyland theatre and the applause was hearty and generous through the interesting and dramatic presentation.

—A REAL TOYLAND. Saturday last saw the opening of Toyland at Holman's, Summerside, an event that is eagerly looked forward to by all the juveniles of the community. The display of toys, dolls, games, and other articles for the kiddies, always great at this big store, is better this year than ever before and is making days of real sport for the youngsters.

—POPULAR PLAYGROUND. The "Shoot the Chutes" erected in the second floor of the Furniture store of R. F. Holman, Limited, proved the greatest attraction of Summerside on Saturday, with the kiddies at any rate. The chute is more than twenty feet long, with a highly polished surface, and the top is reached by a railed stairway. All day Saturday the slide was one of the busiest parts of this always busy store.

—SUMMERSIDE WEEK. Saturday saw the official opening of Summerside Week and all the prominent stores of that progressive town report that the opening days sales on Saturday were unusually large. Merchants of Summerside are noted for the manner in which they whole heartedly cooperate with each other and the numerous mercantile events of the last few years are ample proof of this statement. Summerside Week continues until November 5, and it is the opinion of all that it will be a period of great activity in the western capital, as the merchants have gone several strides further than ever before in laying out attractive bargains for the public.

—WHAT WAS IT. Summerside, with a footpad still loose, a chick en-chaser also on the hop and several other persons at large, who have hopelessly fractured some of the smaller sections of the criminal code is apparently harboring another kind of desperado, for several nights ago in the dark of the moon, two prominent men of Summerside set out from the town with a motor car and a barn lantern and, after cautiously turning the waterfront, waved a signal to a sailing vessel. A bystander who happened to be conveniently near said later that the motor car was loaded with what he thought was illegal goods and that later the party, with their cargo, set out in the general direction of a well-known fox ranch.

PRETTIEST FEET SAYS MARY GARDEN
 NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Mary Garden wreathed in smiles and wrapped in silver fox and squirrel skins, returned from abroad on the Aquitania with the announcement that she is going to be married. "Just say the bridegroom will be a certain oil king and the wedding will take place in America," was a she would offer in explanation. Miss Garden returned from Europe with bobbed hair and a couple with American girls should ignore the Parisian suggestion for longer skirts. "Why should our girls give up short skirts?" she asked her interested viewers. "They have the prettiest feet and the prettiest legs in the world."

Emperor Karl Forced to Abdicate
 BUDAPEST, Oct. 27.—The Hungarian government today formally asked former Emperor Karl, to abdicate and to recognize the complete cessation of his dynastic rights. He was ordered to surrender himself to British authorities and was told that an answer to these demands was expected today.

The Cleaned Sausage
 A shell-shocked victim went to the Highlands of Scotland for his health. He rented lodgings from an old lady in a remote village, and the first day of his stay he had boiled eggs for breakfast, boiled eggs for dinner and boiled eggs for supper. After supper he went out and bought a pound of sausage. He returned and slapped the sausages down before the old lady. "Here, I'm tired of eggs," he said. "Cook sausages for my breakfast tomorrow." "Very good," said the old lady. "but how will I cook 'em? Why fry them like fish," said the victim. In the morning when the old lady appeared with the dish the poor fellow nearly had a relapse. "I much good in these things you hope ya'll like yer breakfast this tey're all cleaned out."
