and for this space he pays directly or indirectly. The bill of the landlord takes precedence over other bills, consequently the holder of a First Mortgage Bond on income-producing centrally located Metropolitan Real Estate is fundamentally in a strong position.

If, to this strength, one adds modern premises (either residential or commercial) a First Mortgage Real Estate Bond issue for not more than two-thirds of the valuation of such property takes on the character of a perfect investment, because the security is so substantial and current interest rates are from 6% to 7%.

We have specialized in developing the high grade First Mortgage Real Estate Bond for Canadian investors.

The First Mortgage Bonds of the Drummond Apartments, Montreal; Booth Buildings, Ottawa; Barrington Street Realities, Halifax; Drummond Investment Company, Montreal, and Acadia Apartments, Limited, Montreal, are among our prominent offerings.

Holders of this type of security have seen their values well maintained and have enjoyed better than a 6 1/2% interest return on their money.

We maintain a good market for First Mortgage Real Estate Bonds of our underwriting and invite your application for list of current offerings.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. WILLIAM E. NOONAN
Mrs. Wm. E. Noonan, Albany, died on Oct. 10th, having sustained the testing affliction of illness that finally proved fatal. At the age of sixty-four years. In maidenhood she was Caroline Creamer of South, Medville, and while still a maiden was married to Mr. William E. Noonan, Albany. The family had blessed the union are, sons, James, Jeremiah and Thomas, Albany. Wm. W. of Borden, daughters Mrs. John Murray, Borden Lillian and Jennie at home. Her brothers are John of Coleman, Joseph Kelly's Cross, William, South Melville, Ambrose and the many kind ones, and one sister, Mrs. Jas. A. Ready, Lowell, Mass.
Her funeral was one of the largest we have seen for some time, about sixty cars and sixty carriages joining in the procession. The pallbearers were Jas. Johnston, W. P. Cameron, Aeneas Murray, Lemuel Dawson of Albany, C. E. McDonald, Assisting the parish priest, Rev. W. E. Monaghan, were Rev. M. J. Smith, Kirkora and Rev. Thomas Curran, Kelly's Cross. The choir of St. Paul's Church, Summerside assisted in the performance of the obsequies, thus rendering the service keenly impressive.
The memory of Mrs. Noonan will live in the minds and hearts of her many friends and the many kind words that she knew well how to perform.—R. I. P.

The following were received:—
Messrs. Cards—Mr and Mrs. A. M. Creamer, Lowell, Mass.; Mr. W. E. Bellin and Jennie Noonan, Albany; Mr and Mrs. John Murray, Borden; Mr and Mrs. Jas. EVERETT CHING
In the afternoon of Nov. 2 Everett Ching, son of the late Peter Ching, passed away at his home at Red Point. He was twenty-nine years of age. The deceased was a splendid specimen of physical manhood and his death as the result of a recent accident is a genuine sorrow to all who knew him. He was also a splendid example of moral life and of spiritual attainment. Noble in mind, upright in conduct, pure in speech, frank, kind, gentle and lovable he was very much admired. Of him it might be truly said: "His life was gentle and the elements so mixed in him that all the world might rise and say: 'This is a man.'" His goodness was not of the negative type. He was aggressive and unmovable in real issues, and his consistent life gave emphasis to his profession.
An affectionate son and brother he will be sorely missed in the home; but the memory of his noble life and of his triumphant death will be a balm to the bereaved ones.
The funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. W. R. MacWalker minister of the "Christian" and "Baptist" churches of East Point. Choosing for his text the words: "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God," the pastor spoke of the life lived in fellowship with God as the only genuinely "blessed" one and he paid a warm tribute to the young man whose exemplary life was thus early terminated.
His mother, one's sister and three brothers have the sincere sympathy of many friends.

MRS. JOHN MACLEAN
Mrs. John MacLean of Kingsboro, P. E. I., died at the Prince Edward Island hospital on Nov. 6, aged seventy-three years. The late Mrs. MacLean was a native of Calhoun, Scotland. She came to this country when she was a young woman and also she loved the new land and formed many genuine friendships here, yet she never forgot the land of her birth. She loved her native hills and glens and she could tell many charming tales of history, romance and custom relating to "the old country."
Mrs. MacLean was a good woman. Truth, honor, loyalty, hospitality, affection and charity were native to her being. She suffered much for several years and death to her was the messenger of peace, for her faith in God robbed death of its terror.
The funeral service was conducted at the home of her son, Seth MacLean, by her pastor, Rev. W. R. MacWalker, who spoke words

The Logging Bee

IN Canada's early days the logging bee organized the co-operative power of our pioneer communities in the generous spirit of mutual helpfulness. There was no other profit looked for.

In the same spirit to-day, Mutual Life Insurance organizes mutual co-operative helpfulness for the protection of the widowed and the fatherless or the aged.

Mutual insurance is not organized for profit. All profits go back to the policyholders. Each contributes to the strength of all, and the strength of all is used for the protection of each.

Our nearest agent will be glad to give you details about our different policies. Write to our head office for our booklet on Mutual Insurance.
