EVANGELISTIC SERVICE. At the Baptist Church last night there was held an evangelistic service of deep interest. It was probably the best of the series of meetings that have been held the past two weeks. Rev. Z. L. Fash spoke on "The Light of the World." Jun. 8, 12, Mr. H. Bethune sang a solo ver acceptably. A large number took part in the testimony service. One was received for baptism and Church membership. The profession of faith, the interest is good in the services and others have made a start on the Christian life. The special evangelistic services will continue two nights next week, on Monday and Wednesday nights.

THE STEAMERS—The Northumberland left Charlottetown yesterday morning on her first trip this season and docked in Pictou at 11.00 with mails, passengers and express matter. The Earl Grey docked in Charlottetown from Pictou at 11.20 taking over 92 tons freight, 200 sacks mail and 90 passengers. The Minto got to the steamer she went to aid at Glenfinnan and found that there was nothing wrong with the exception of the loss of an anchor and chain. The Minto got jammed in the ice several times but got clear again. She will go to Hastings to coal up before returning to Pictou.

THE PEOPLE'S Theatre was abnormally crowded last night, when the pictures shown were all of unusual merit; the principal film, "The Junior Partner," being a good deal better than any other which had been put on the screen for some time. A rich American girl, who is admired and loved by her father's junior partner in business, marries a Russian nobleman for his title. He carries her off to Russia and ill-treats her. The disappointed lover goes in search of her, discovers a plot of the Russian to banish her. Of course, he marries her in the end after the death of the Russian. The other pictures were all intensely interesting. An affair involving a newspaper editor and an attractive news girl, the singing of Mr. Priestman Cameron was, as usual, first rate. "Girls I have met" and "Comin' through the Rye" (parody) being excruciatingly funny.

ROSEBERRY—The many friends of Mr. David MacLeod are pleased to hear of his improvement and hope that he will soon be among them again. John R. MacRae is doing a rushing business in sawing lumber—several hundred tons of round timber being still on the landing. His friends are pleased to see the genial postmaster Charles A. Morrison again after an attack of grippe. The "Bellast Fox Company" have awakened the people of this vicinity into a desire to get rich, quite a number having invested in this ranch which has splendid prospects. Roseberry is looking forward to having Rural Mail delivery in the near future. Mrs. John M. MacDonald who has been ill all winter is improving. Many will deeply regret the illness of Mrs. Finlay Panton of pneumonia and hope for her speedy recovery. Wm. H. MacInnis and Jno. W. Smith have leased the lath mill of Samuel F. MacDonald and are busily engaged sawing laths. Residents regret that the esteemed school-teacher, Miss Annie M. MacDonald is soon to leave this spot and wish her good luck. The first Sunday in May has been appointed for "Go to Church Sunday" and it is to be hoped that Roseberry will make a good turnout; also the surrounding district. Charles N. Morrison, George Panton and Lemuel Compton, loaded a car-load of lumber recently for the Hillsborough Bridge. Miss Mabel MacInnis is visiting in Pictou.

PRINCE EDWARD—Large houses are a feature of the Prince Edward Theatre and last night was no exception to the rule, the theatre being well filled at both shows. The feature last night, "His Own Blood," a powerful two part story of the drug habit, was another added to the list of this theatre's "good ones." It was an excellent picture heartily enjoyed by all and will no doubt be the means of attracting another large crowd to the Prince Edward this evening. "Mayo, Just an Indian" and "An Arrow Head Romance" were two other good dramas. "The William still pursued Her" was a comedy, cleverly acted, which brought forth much laughter. The two vocalists, Mr. Gallagher singing "Killarney My Home" and the "Lullaby" and Mr. Cairns singing "You're Away in My Heart," were well received. The programme will be finished tonight.
