—FUNERAL NOTICE—The death occurred at Long River, yesterday of William Fayntor. Funeral Sunday, 14th at eleven o'clock.

—CORRECT PARTICULARS.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin T. Reeves, of Lower Freetown, Wednesday, Nov. 28th, at 6 p. m., when their eldest daughter, Lila Pearl, became the bride of McKenzie Matheson, of Bradaibane. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. W. A. McQuarrie, B. A. The bride was attended by Miss Katherine, sister of the groom, while A. J. McLean ably supported the groom. The bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father, as the wedding march was beautifully played by Miss Orell McCaul, cousin of the bride, the bride being handsomely dressed in white satin silk, over lace pearl and bead trimmings, and bridal veil arranged with orange blossoms, while the bridesmaid was handsomely dressed in fawn silk. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold pendant, and to the bridesmaid a wristlet watch and the groomsmen a fountain pen. After congratulations being extended to the happy couple the guests were invited to the dining-room to partake of a sumptuous supper prepared by Mrs. Reeves. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents among which was a five hundred dollar cheque from her father. The evening was pleasantly spent in music and dancing, till the wee small hours of the morning. All dispersed by wishing the happy couple a prosperous journey through life.

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

cert put on by them Thursday evening will do much to create interest. The snappy program was excellently given and thoroughly appreciated by the audience reflecting much credit on those who got it up.

Among the week-end visitors in the city was Rev. Dr. Laird of Toronto whose eloquent addresses on the work of the Forward Movement gave much pleasure to large audience on several occasions.

Two memorial tablets are to be unveiled on Sunday in honor of our returning brave who sleep in Flanders Fields. In the First Methodist Church the service will be in the morning with military band in attendance. In St. James Church at night, the Memorial pulpit and tablet, a work of art, will be dedicated.

The reassuring news has been received that Mr. F. T. Watkins, who is under treatment for ear trouble in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, is making satisfactory progress and his early home-coming is now anticipated.

The sale of fancy work in the Baptist School room yesterday afternoon was taken full advantage of and many really pretty articles met ready sale.

The retail merchants are the latest body of men to enjoy a get-together dinner to talk over matters of trade and commerce. Their dinner at the Victoria Hotel on Thursday night was thoroughly enjoyed and exquisitely served. While the annual report was read and discussed fully, the program was so nicely dispersed that there was not an irksome moment. It would seem that the business men of Charlottetown and Summerside too are endeavoring to cultivate the social side of life as banquets, luncheons and dinners seem to be the order of the day.

The short vamp French slippers with straps or bows across the instep instead of being only a threat, are now a fashion. "Petite" is the word for your feet clad in these dainty soulers. You must "get used to them," for they will be much worn for afternoon and evening and insist upon appearing on Fifth Avenue in the broad open daylight.
