QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The Guardian prints all the HOME and other news, and has the SWEET morning pleasure of being the HOME paper for Prince Edward Island.

Conductors McDonald, Cox and Hibbett have returned from Moncton.

E. I. Cook has returned from Maryland where he spent the winter.

Harry Currie, formerly in the employ of the Telephone Co., has gone to Boston.

Miss Katie McInnis was a passenger by the mail train last night. She will visit her parents at Southport.

W. H. Stevenson city leaves this morning for Ellwood, where he purposes to reside for the next three months.

The schooner J. B. Martin arrived yesterday from Paspébiac, Quebec, with a full cargo of cedar posts for L. M. Poole & Co.

In future all classified and other advertising, verbal replies to which are to come to this office, will be charged at a table rate.

Miss Mary Houle who has been visiting her mother Mrs. Harry Houle, Prince Street, left Monday on return to Newport Rhode Island.

Miss Nellie Clark and Miss Laura Cox Souris, who drove to the city some days ago and registered at the Queen, purposes remaining in the city for another week.

Drawing room, dining room and bedroom furniture will be offered for sale at the residence of the late Hon. F. de St. C. Brecker, King Street, on Friday, June 21. See ad.

English church service at Cherry Valley on Sunday, 23rd, (D. V.) at 7 p. m. Those desiring to be confirmed are particularly requested to be present, Mr. Tupper will officiate.

The Guardian is in receipt of some-stakes of excellent rhubarb grown by Miss Amanda McNeill Cavendish, which measure two feet in length and are not all splendid. This is pretty good for so early in the season.

There are on exhibition in the window of G. F. Hutcheson's jewelry store the trophy, and some of the medals won at the last interscholastic sports. This is a splendid collection and the toys extend their hearty thanks to the gentlemen who have so generously encouraged them in their athletics.

Bradabane is fortunate in having Roderick Nicholson as one of its residents. Mr. Nicholson conducts a good hotel which is well known to the public as being thoroughly homelike and comfortable. He also has convenient and roomy sample rooms in connection. In addition to this he keeps teams for hire, which is a direct advantage to persons desiring to go to or from Bradabane on any points North or South. Altogether Mr. Nicholson supplies a long felt want in Bradabane, this making it by far the most convenient section on the Railway to reach adjacent sections of the Province.

The Annual Convention of the W. M. F. of the Methodist Church of the Charlottetown District, will meet at Murray Harbor on Thursday, July 4th, beginning at 9 a. m. In the evening there will be public meeting addressed by Miss Stewart of Sackville, Mrs. T. F. Huestes of Halifax, Rev. A. E. Chapman, and others, also exercises and music by the Mission Band, and choir. One first class fare will be given all delegates and visitors. Those purchasing tickets should ask for a standard certificate from the ticket agent, upon the presentation of which signed by the President of the Convention, a free return will be granted. It is hoped as many as possible will avail themselves of this privilege of meeting together to further the interest of the mission cause.

At the home of Samuel and Mrs. Hall Summerside, the marriage takes place this morning at eight o'clock of their only daughter Miss Clara L. Hall and Arctemus W. Lea, son of Father and Mrs. Lea, Victoria. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. H. Johnson. The bride and groom will be unattended only the relatives of the interested parties will be present. After wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Lea leave by the Empress for Calgary where they will reside. The bride is one of Summerside's most popular young ladies and while her many friends regret her departure their best wishes will follow her to her new home in the West. Mr. Lea has resided in Calgary for several years and ranks easily among those who have made the best of the opportunities. He has been more than ordinarily successful in the West and has the pluck and energy that predicts a still greater measure of prosperity. The Guardian joins with their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Lea every happiness in life.
