Happenings of the Week

Mr. Malcolm, the manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia in this city, is in Liverpool, N. S., this week relieving.

Rev. A. E. O'Meara and family, after a most enjoyable outing at Holland Cove, left on Thursday for their home in Montreal, with many pleasant souvenirs of their holiday.

Everybody enjoyed "Seven Days' Leave," so splendidly staged at the Prince Edward Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, and are now anticipating the musical comedy to be presented here on Sept. 8 and 9.

Mr. Laurier, of Newton, Mass., is the latest visitor to arrive at Keppoch. He is the guest of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Julian Jaynes, with whom Mrs. Laurier has been spending the summer.

A distinguished visitor is expected in Canada next month, in the person of Cardinal Mercier, of Belgium. His Eminence will be accompanied by Professor Maurice de Wolf, of Louvain, who will become attached to St. Michael's College, Toronto.

Among the welcome visitors to Georgetown on Wednesday, meeting former friends was Mrs. McPherson, Prince Street, who with Mrs. D. R. MacLennan, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stewart on an auto trip through King's County. As it is almost forty years since Mrs. McPherson visited Georgetown, she thoroughly enjoyed her outing and visited many of the beauty spots in that historic county.

A prettily arranged tea was that given by the Misses MacFarlane, Summerside, on Monday afternoon, in honor of their guest, Mrs. George Prowse, Charlottetown.

Mrs. Coombs, O'Donnell and Miss Emma Nicholson served tea at the Golf Links last Saturday afternoon, when quite a number of visitors were in attendance.
