Georgetown

The many friends in Georgetown regret to hear of the illness of Rev. C. U. MacNevin.

Dr. Blake, Mrs. Lyons, Miss Louise Lyons, Mrs. Foley and Master J. Kelly, motored to Georgetown and were the guests of Miss Gladys Macdonald.

Misses Marion and Grace Douglas, teachers Prince Street School are spending their vacation at their home in Georgetown.—A.

The many friends in Georgetown will learn with regret of the death of Mr. John Wilt which occurred at his home in Fortune after a short illness from pneumonia. He was honorable, intelligent and sympathetic. A true friend in time of need. He is a brother-in-law of Mr. William Batchelder, Georgetown. He leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband, father and brother his widow Alice Batchelder, formerly of Georgetown and one daughter, Ada, Mrs. Higgins, also one sister, Mrs. Brown to whom sincere sympathy is extended. Fortune has lost one of its finest citizens. His funeral was largely attended.

Redd: "He started out with a $5,000 automobile."
Greene: "And what car is he using now?"
Redd: "A street car."

The dodo, now extinct, was a species of dove.

—ICE CREAM FESTIVAL—The Sunday School of the United Church at Brae held a most enjoyable ice cream festival last Thursday on the spacious lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Ivy McFadyen's home. There was a very large attendance of children and grown-ups. Instrumental music and folk songs made the evening pass very pleasantly. The Sunday School extended a hearty vote of thanks to their host and hostess for their pleasant hospitality.—S.

—TONY THE CONVICT—A bumper house filled to capacity, standing room being at a premium greeted the Indian River Hockey Club when they presented their great five act play "Tony the Convict" in Malpeque Hall on Tuesday evening. The characters mentioned in this paper acted their parts to the letter perfect. It would be unfair to eulogize any one actor as each staged their part in a very competent tone. There was not a dull moment between acts. Many and varied were the specialties, namely, two violins, harp, harmonica and piano by Charles Tuplin, J. Heckbert, Mr. Bridges and Mrs. Simpson. Mrs. Simpson was at her best in two solos "I Love a Little Cottage" and "Lassie O'Mine" while John Crozier held the audience spell bound with step dancing as an acrobat. Hart Abbott received great applause with humorous readings. With sale of candy and door receipts a large sum was realized. The vast audience seemed well pleased with the evening's entertainment.—S.

—THE LADIES of St. Mary's Church, Montague, will hold an ice cream festival on the church grounds, Tuesday evening, July 12th. 4211-7-6-wm-31.

tained in Palmer Road Hall on Friday, June 17th by a musical concert accorded them by the choirst musicians and talented singers of Prince County. Th's gave the audience the opportunity of listening to some of the finest violin and piano solos also some of the latest songs, which they would not otherwise have had the opportunity of hearing. The programme which was sponsored by Reverend Patrick Walsh, ran as follows: Violin selection by Mr. Arthur Perry; Vocal solo by Mr. Jack Cameron; Piano solo by Rev. Theodore Gallant; Vocal solo by Mr. Raymond A'Hearn; Vocal solo by Mrs. A. S. Weir; A comic selection by Mr. Eddie Hornby; Vocal solo by Mrs. Colan Conroy; Old Time Music by Mr. E. Allan F. Ellsworth and C. Perry; Intermission; Violin selection by Mr. Arthur Perry; Dialogue by Miss Patricia Collaghan and Mr. L. MacDonald; Vocal solo by Mr. Lannan; Vocal solo by Mrs. A. S. Weir; Vocal solo by Mr. L. MacDonald; Vocal solo by Mr. Borden Fraser; Step dancing by Mr. Desmond Gaudet; Vocal solo by Mr. Raymond A'Hearn. At the conclusion of the concert a hearty vote of thanks was tendered in behalf of the people of Palmer Road Parish to the performers, who then assembled to the parochial house where a dainty lunch was served.

—WEDDING BELLS—A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Presbyterian Manse, Malpeque, on Wednesday evening, June 29th, when Rev. F. Williamson united in marriage Miss Hattie Charlotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Campbell, of Spring Valley, to Mr. James Edmond Bearsto, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Bearsto. The bride was charming in a dress of blue silk crepe trimmed with ivory lace. She wore a large picture hat of blue, and cream shoes. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls, the gift of the groom. Her bridesmaid was Miss Louise Burns, who wore a dress of shell pink with hat to match. Mr. Everett Bearsto supported the groom. Immediately after the ceremony, a bounteous wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents to the immediate relatives. Mrs. Horace Heckbert, of Summerside, sister of the bride, was among the guests. A charivari party serenaed the bridal couple and after being served with supper went away leaving their good wishes for the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Bearsto will reside in Malpeque, where the groom has an extensive farm. The Guardian joins a host of friends in extending sincere congratulations.—S.

—The semi-annual examination of Mt. Buchanan School was held on Thursday afternoon, June 30th. There was a large attendance of visitors present. The school was prettily decorated with potted plants and wild flowers. An added attraction was the pictures of the King and Queen, which the teacher was instrumental in procuring for the school through the Junior Red Cross. The different grades were examined by the teacher and showed good progress since last term. After the examination an interesting programme was carried out with Mr. Roderick Murchison in the chair and prizes for progress and good work were distributed. An address was then given to the teacher by Kathryn MacLeod and Dorothy MacRae presented her with a pair of brass candlesticks from the school. Miss Murchison thanked the pupils and wished them the best success in the coming term. The President of the institute thanked her for her help and splendid interest in the society during the four years she has taught in the district. The children were treated with fudge by the teacher and the ladies of the W.I. came "last but not least," with the usual welcome treat of ice cream and cake. All wish the teacher and pupils a well-earned vacation.
