THE Band of the fourth Reg. will not play in the gardens this evening owing to some of the members being absent from town. The first concert will be on Tuesday next.

PERSONS wishing a close view of the ships now in the harbour have a splendid opportunity from the deck of the S. S. Elfin as she passes them to and from her trips to Rocky Point.

A strong desire has been expressed by a large number of citizens to again have the pleasure of listening to the magnificent band of H. M. S. Crescent. It would be highly gratifying to our citizens if the request could be granted.

On Thursday next a number of the McGill boys and friends purpose going into camp at Morell. Among the names mentioned in connection with the outing are Messrs. D. McRae, Cyrus J. McMillan, W. Newson, E. Ritchie, Edgar and Frank Sterns.

THE Orange tea at O'Leary yesterday was a success so far as an attendance was concerned. It is estimated that about 3,000 people were in attendance. Sixteen hundred people were taken to O'Leary, by the P. E. Island Railway. The special returned to the city about midnight.

A drunken row occurred in a bar room on Grafton street and the participants gave the citizens living in the vicinity of the corner of Hillsboro and Grafton street an object lesson which was beyond description. One of the men was knocked down and his face was trampled upon and blood flowed freely. Roughs of such a character should receive the full effect of the law.

OBITUARY.—On Sabbath the 10th of June, Mr. James McEachern of Montague, passed away at the age of 71 years. He was a son of the late Charles McEachern of Belfast and resided in Montague for the last 22 years. He was married to Mary Docherty of Cherry Valley whom he survived 5 years. The deceased was an inoffensive, respectable citizen and leaves five daughters mourning the departure of an affectionate and beloved father.

Miss Jessie Forsyth of Boston, Superintendent of Juvenile Temples arrived in the city yesterday prepared to speak at a meeting announced for last evening. Owing to the Lodge in Charlottetown being dormant no local arrangements for the meeting were made and no meeting was held. This is the more regrettable as there is a Lodge of Good Templars on board the Flagship Crescent now in port, members of which would gladly have attended. Miss Forsyth leaves by the morning train for Summerside where she is announced to speak tonight. She asks THE GUARDIAN to convey her greeting to the members of Crescent Lodge, in whom, as a lady of English birth, she takes a deep interest.
