Conference On Relief Delayed

WASHINGTON, July 6 — (CP) —Opposition by several of the smaller European powers to the form of the draft agreement proposed by the United States State Department has resulted in the United Nations conference on relief and rehabilitation being delayed from August until September, it was learned here today.

They are objecting to a concentration of power in the hands of the big four, Russia China, Britain and the United States, and believe the smaller nations should have representation on proposed central committee, the policy-making board.

Meanwhile, the State Department had something else to worry about today when Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg (Rep. Mich.) proposed that the senate Foreign Relations Committee study the draft agreement to determine whether it is, in fact, a treaty.

If the committee decides it is a treaty it will have to go before the senate for ratification on a two-thirds vote but if it is regarded as an agreement, a simple majority in both houses will be sufficient.

GLACE BAY, N. S., July 6—(CP) —The Glory Cafe strike, that has kept the restaurant idle one month and tied up coal mines in the area one day last week, is still unsettled tonight following a conference at nearby Sydney between Finlay MacDonald, solictor for the restaurant owner, and Nova Scotia Labor Department conciliators.

Mr. MacDonald today met A. H. Pettigrove of Moncton, N. B., and T. D. A. Purves of Halifax, the two conciliators. He reiterated his stand in the dispute, and said cafe owner Yee Yen is willing to re-employ four of the 12 striking waitresses, to recognize the union and collective bargaining, and to obey all the laws of the minimum wage act.

He was informed by the two officials that the mine committee, representing United Mineworkers of America locals in the Glace Bay area who are backing the dismissed employees, was unwilling to accept these terms, but asked that all the girls be re--hired.

The cafe owner is absent from Glace Bay, and will not return until tomorrow. Mr. MacDonald said he will not change his stand until he consults the owner.

ALGIERS, July 6 — (CP) —The French Popular Party, which had Nazi connections through Jacques Doriot, was dissolved by decree of the French Committee of National Liberation today.

Meeting under the chairmanship of Gen. Charles De Gaulle, the committee also abrogated all Vichy decrees establishing obligatory controlling "groupements" in production and commerce.

An official statement said the committee "examined the problems of French refugees in Spain and the measures to be taken regarding them."
