OBITUARY.—A very sad event occurred at Stanley Bridge, on June 9th, when Ann Josephine Walsh, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Walsh, passed from this world at the age of 20 years. The death of the deceased has cast a gloom over the neighborhood and has taken from our midst, one, who by her kind and amiable disposition had gained the respect of all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Having received the last rites of the Catholic Church, she gave herself up to the mercy of God, whom she had so faithfully served. On Tuesday, 11th inst. the funeral cortege paying the last tribute to the deceased, slowly wended its way to St. Ann's church, there being 63 carriages in the procession. The Mass of Requiem was sung by the Rev. J. A. E. McDonald P. P. after which the remains were tearfully interred in the adjoining Cemetery. She leaves a father and mother, three sisters and one brother to mourn the loss of a dutiful daughter and a kind affectionate sister. Needless to say the mourners have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

Weep not for her, in her spring time she flew To that land where the wings of the soul are unfurled, And now, like a star beyond evening's cold dew, Looks radiantly down on the tears of the world.

IN BED THREE YEARS.

Unable to Eat or Sleep—A Case which Mystified Doctors and Specialists.

MORLEY, Ont., June 10.—(Special).—A case without parallel in the history of medicine, is that of Mr. Thomas Hughes, of this place. Her trouble commenced with pains in the back, head, left side, and occasionally in her right side.

"For three nights at a time, I would never close my eyes in sleep. I could not sit up or walk. I could eat nothing but soup or corn starch. I suffered altogether four years, three of which I spent in bed. Four doctors treated me. I also engaged a specialist from the United States. They all failed. I used in all, fourteen boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and am now as well as I ever was. The pains and bloating are all gone. Dodd's Kidney Pills saved my life."
