

OUR NEWS BRIDGE FOR OUR SAUDY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY
Mr. Wesley MacKenzie well known chef has returned to the city to take over new duties after spending a few well earned holidays at his home at Bay Fortune.

ARRIVED IN ENGLAND - Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Casley received a telegram from their son Ralph, announcing that he had arrived in England safe and well.

Mrs. Henry Brown (formerly M. M. O'Brien of this city) leaves this morning on return to her home in Halifax after spending a pleasant weekend visit to Charlottetown. While here she visited relatives and friends.

Peter G. Clark, president of the Prince Edward Island Fur Pool, accompanied by W. R. Timney and Farnon Cass, also connected with the Pool, all of Summerside, left Saturday for Montreal. They will attend fur auctions there.

Mrs. Helen MacPhee, R. N., has returned to her home from the Prince County Hospital where she had been operated on for appendicitis. It is pleasing to report she is making a good recovery.

The many friends of Harold W. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Campbell of Chelton, will be pleased to hear that he is improving from his recent serious appendix operation at the Prince County Hospital.

85 YEARS YOUNG - Mr. James H. Judson, veteran sportsman of Alexandria, celebrated his 85th birthday Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. E. MacCallum Crossroads. He is surrounded by his numerous friends who wish him "Many Happy Returns" despite the fact that he passed the "three score and ten" mark fifteen years ago.

COUNTY COURT - County Court Judge Shaw presiding, heard the case of Sillibank vs. Gaudet at Summerside on Friday. This was an action for $225 claimed for damages to the plaintiff's coupe by a truck owned by defendant through a collision last March in Summerside. The evidence was conducted and the case adjourned to Feb. 10 for argument. Health Strong, K.C., for plaintiff and Henry W. Noonan for defendant.

PROBATE COURT - Hon. H. L. Palmer, Judge of Probate, held a session of the Probate Court at the Court House, Summerside, on Thursday. The taking of accounts in the estate of Howard Matthews, late of Trigon, was completed. Accounts were passed in the Estate of Marion Baker late of Summerside, Daniel Morrison, late of Wellington, Estate of Geo. Matthews late of Free town. The Lawyers taking part were Richard S. Hinton, Health Strong, K.C., Morley M. Bell, K.C. and Lloyd Lewis, K.C.

MERCY FLIGHT - Gordon White, 19-year-old resident of Alberton, was rushed to the Prince Edward Island Hospital yesterday afternoon by plane for an emergency operation. Maritime Central Airways used a Fairchild aircraft, equipped with skis, for the mercy flight. The plane left Charlottetown at 2:45 and landed on the river just below the home of the patient at 3:30. The young man was taken on board 30 minutes later in Charlottetown. The plane was met at the airport by an ambulance which conveyed the patient to hospital. The young man is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. White.

PRETTY WEDDING - A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning at Trinity Farneside, Rev. G. K. Sullivan officiating, when Miss Roberta Edna Ramsey, daughter of Ira Ramsey, Arlington, Lot 4, became the bride of Mr. Carl Clark Moase, son of Mr. and Mrs. Major Moase of St. Eleanors. The bride was dressed in navy with wine accessories, and was attended by Mrs. Wm. Mills. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Moase will make their home in St. Eleanors where the groom is a prosperous farmer. The bride is a graduate of the Prince County Hospital and has many friends who extend hearty congratulations.

OBSERVES 79TH BIRTHDAY - Miss Charles H. Chandler, Charlottetown, received the congratulations of his many friends on the observance of his 79th birthday Saturday. Born at Southport in 1863, he moved to the city while still a young boy and has been residing here ever since. For over 60 years he has been in business in Charlottetown where he heads a successful hardware firm. Fennell and Chandler, 101 Water Street, is his health. Mr. Chandler was observed driving his 3-year-old old "Lusty First" through the streets of the city on Saturday. He is an ardent animal fancier and has many animals during the past few years.

RETURN FROM WINNIPEG - Several members of the Canadian National Boy Scouts Association returned Saturday night from Winnipeg where they attended the annual meeting of the organization. Those returning included: D. O. Stewart of Summerside, newly elected president; T. D. Carruthers, re-elected secretary; George A. Calbeck, head of the marketing department; R.S. Humphrey, Kensington and Major John Robertson, Miramichi. Dr. C. K. Gunn, Superintendent of the Dominion experimental fox farm here and W.R. Shaw, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, both Dr. Gunn and Mr. Shaw were speakers at sessions of the organization.

The services at the Kirk yesterday were conducted by the Rev. T. H. Russell Somers, A. S. T. M. who preached in the morning from the text "A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of things which he possesseth." (St. Luke 12:15) and in the evening from St. Paul's words, "Be ye renewed by the renewing of your mind" (Romans 12:2). In concluding the Minister said "The most revolutionary influence that can grip a man, I submit, is the idea about who he is and where it comes from that the New Testament is religion at its best for it reveals us to be none other than the Sons of God. It is that our nature no power on earth need keep us where we are."

RETURNED TO NEWFOUNDLAND - Donald Parlee of the P. E. I. Highlanders who has been spending his furlough with his mother, Mrs. Parlee, Eastane Street, S. Side, has returned to his military duties.

VISITING IN SSIDE - Mrs. Clifford Thorne and baby son, Richard, arrived by plane yesterday to visit her mother, Mrs. Gladys MacQuarrie. Mrs. MacQuarrie flew by plane to Moncton to meet her daughter and little grandson.

SPENT FURLOUGH HERE - Ralph C. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, 70 Rochford Street, left Saturday on return to his military duties. He is now on his third year in active naval service. His many friends joined with his parents in welcoming him home. His sister, Miss Hazel accompanied him to Canada.

TUESDAY
ENTERTAINS SOCIAL CLUB - Mrs. Harold Crockett entertained the Ladies Social Club of Trinity United Church on Friday last at her home on Granville Street. There was a very large attendance. Mrs. Harold Nicholson the new president presided over the meeting. The guests were assisted in serving by Mrs. J. E. Dickie and Mrs. Archie Sharp.

SAD NEWS RECEIVED - Island friends will regret to learn that Mrs. Howard Ramsay of Hamilton has received the sad news of the death of her home in Baldwin New York on January 20th of Mrs. Alexander MacDougall. Mrs. MacDougall was formerly Squire Hunter of Alton Maine. Her husband is brother of Mrs. Ramsay and formerly resided in this Province. Besides her husband a daughter Julian and son James are left to cherish her memory.

QUILT WEDDING - A quiet wedding was solemnized on January 19th in the afternoon at Trinity United Church. Parsonage, Rev. Sullivan officiating when Miss Roberta Elsie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hayes of Tyne Valley was united in marriage to Lieut. Clinton G. Milligan son of Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Milligan also of Tyne Valley. The bride was dressed in blue with black accessories. The attendants were Miss Doris MacArthur and Mr. Hazen Phillips. After the ceremony the happy young couple left by plane for the mainland. Lieut. Milligan is attached to the announced tank corps at Camp Borden and was on leave for his wedding. Lieut. and Mrs. Milligan will have the best wishes of their many Island friends for their future happiness.

Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, President of the Prince Edward Island Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society, has just received a letter from Major D. Campbell, Canadian General Hospital, Canadian Army Overseas, in which he says that one of the Red Cross Ambulances with which his Unit has been provided bears the inscription "Donated by the Women's Institutes of Prince Edward Island." Dr. Campbell went on to say how very pleased and proud they all were to have this link with home. The other two Red Cross ambulances sent to this Unit are from St. John's and the women of the Philippines. Dr. Campbell asked Dr. MacMillan to express the sincere thanks of all the members of the United Women's Institutes of Prince Edward Island for this magnificent gift through the Canadian Red Cross Society.

OUT OF DANGER - Mr. Walter Calbeck of S. Side has received word that his son, Gordon, is now out of danger and it is expected that he will gradually improve. Mr. Gordon Calbeck who has been suffering from an illness of several months, was badly smothered in a motor accident a few weeks ago. While going to the assistance of one of his trucks, he was struck between two trucks when one backed into the other. His left leg had the thigh bone very badly crushed and it will be necessary for Mr. Calbeck to remain in a cast for at least three months. His right ankle was broken and he received injuries to his chest. His mother when notified of the accident left immediately for Denver and has been with her son ever since. His many Summerside friends are glad to know that Mr. Calbeck is going on alright and look for his complete recovery.

APPROVE BRIEF - At a special meeting of the Charlottetown Board of Trade last night approval was given to a brief prepared by the transportation committee regarding the placement of the ice-breaking ferry Charlottetown. The brief is for presentation to Prime Minister Macleod King but before it goes to Ottawa it will be presented to Premier Thane A. Campbell, Mr. A. V. Ainsworth, president of the board of trade presided at tonight's session. Discussion of the brief was confined to minor matters were discussed. The personnel of the transportation committee which prepared the brief included: F.W. Hyndman, chairman, E. Mutch, W.S. Grant, J.O. Hyndman, H.C. Bohaker, Walter Pickard, S.A. McLeod, D.B. Bishop, E.T. Higgins and A.W. Matheson. The brief would be presented to Premier Campbell shortly, it was learned, although no definite date was announced.

COUNCILLOR DR. F. C. DOUGAN, Mrs. Douglas and Mrs. L. B. MacMillan left Saturday night for Halifax on Saturday night while in Halifax Councillor Douglas, on behalf of His Worship Mayor Holman, Councillors and citizens of Charlottetown, presented to the officers and men of the corvette, H. M. C. S. Charlottetown silver tea service. Mrs. L. B. MacMillan, on behalf of the Wavy Navy Club of Charlottetown presented a coffee urn and toaster. The presentations took place on the deck of the ship on Friday morning, with officers and men lined up on the deck of the ship. The officers and men of the H. M. C. S. Charlottetown were very appreciative and delighted with the gifts. Councillor Douglas stated on his return. The cordial reception which we received and the manner in which we were treated made our stay a most enjoyable one," he added.

25th ANNIVERSARY - A very social evening was spent when about forty relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The dining room was artistically decorated for the occasion in silver and white and the tables simply graced under the ample supply of food. Those who assisted in serving were their daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Cameron, and two nieces, Miss Annie Waddell and Miss Adelaide Halliwell. After dinner the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor. The chairs were W. Donald MacNeil called upon the bride and groom Saturday night, January 24th, to attend the informal dinner in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The