CANUCKS HOLD NEW YORKERS TO 4-4 DRAW

Montreal Team Loses Round To Lester Patrick's Blueshirts 6-5.

(By Wallace Ward)

(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

MONTREAL, March 26— Montreal Canadiens hung up their heads for the season tonight, eliminated by New York Rangers from the National Hockey League playoffs. The Canadiens held the New Yorkers to a 4-4 tie before 13,000 hopeful fans here tonight but lost out on the round by a 6-5 score. Rangers having beaten them 2-1 in New York Sunday night.

One goal up when the game began, Rangers played canny hockey to keep that one goal lead intact. Ranger forwards clung to Canadiens' sharpshooters like leeches. The Ranger defence played close to and refused to flinch. When hard pressed they flung the puck far up the ice. They took what breaks came their way and turned them into goals.

THE SCORING

Butch Keeling led Ranger marksmen with two goals, one on a pass from Charlie Mason and the other massed in Jack McGill scored three goals in the first period. Lynn Patrick made it easier for Keeling with a goal in the first. Keeling stretched the lead to three goals in the second. Leroy Goldsworthy scored for Canadiens and cut it to 2-1 but Cec Dillon's smart goal regained a three goal lead for Rangers. Keeling sandwiched in his second goal between Jack McGill's third period corners and then the veteran Aurel Joliat sniped the final goal for Canadiens.

It was clean but keen hockey throughout. There were no heavy bodychecks and no fighting such as marked the first game of the home-and-home total-goals series. Canadiens made a desperate bid for victory in the last period. They kept changing rapidly to keep up the pace and waves of red-shirted players sailed tirelessly over the Ranger blue line as the hard-bet Rangers bunched the puck up the ice. George Mantha seemed to have the tying goal on his stick a couple of times in the furious struggle inside the Rangers' defence but he was outluckied.

Dutch Racer To Challenge Campbell

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) GANNES, France, Mar. 26—(A. P. Havas)—Hans Von Zillenz Stuck, Dutch auto racer who is well known on European tracks, is secretly building a racing car with which to challenge Sir Malcolm Campbell's Bluebird, he said here today. "It will be several months before the car is completed, but then Campbell and I will talk race," he said, and added: "I doubt if Campbell will return to Florida for future trials because the new German auto travel street near Karlsruhe is perfect for such races against time."

BRADDOCK NO. 1 HEAVYWEIGHT CONTENDER

Boxing Commission Refuses To Sanction Proposed Title Bout Between Baer-Schmeling.

By Bob Cavanaugh, Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, March 26.—From almost total obscurity 96 hours ago, James J. Braddock, Jersey City heavyweight, was sky-rocketed to the fifth stratosphere today when the New York State Athletic Commission designed him its No. one contender for the championship boxing crown adorning Max Baer's curly head.

The Commission's edict, issued after a two-hour session during which it refused to sanction Madison Square Garden's proposed title bout between Baer and Schmeling here in June, was tantamount to selecting the champion's opponent. Baer elects to defend the championship in that state. Ironically enough the Commission's decision comes a little more than a year after the boxing fathers refused to sanction a bout between Braddock and Walter Neusel, declaring that Braddock was an unfit opponent.

Counter Proposal

Col. John R. Kilpatrick, President of the Garden Corporation, faced with the alternative of having to stage the Baer-Schmeling fight out of the State, was made a counter proposition by the Commission. It said Schmeling will be permitted to meet Baer in New York State provided he'll engage in a preliminary contest against Braddock and clear up the Jersey superiority over Louis Foster, but his manager, Louis Foster, turned it down because the Garden refused to comply with his demand that a $50,000 guaranty be posted to assure the winner a crack at the crown.

Kilpatrick and Johnston were inclined to accept the commission's decision in comparative silence.

23 Canadians In The Money

(C. P. Cable By Guardian's Special Wire)

DUBLIN, March 26.—With the drawing incomplete, 23 Canadians tonight were assured of getting at least $3,863 apiece in the Free State hospital sweepstakes on the Grand National.

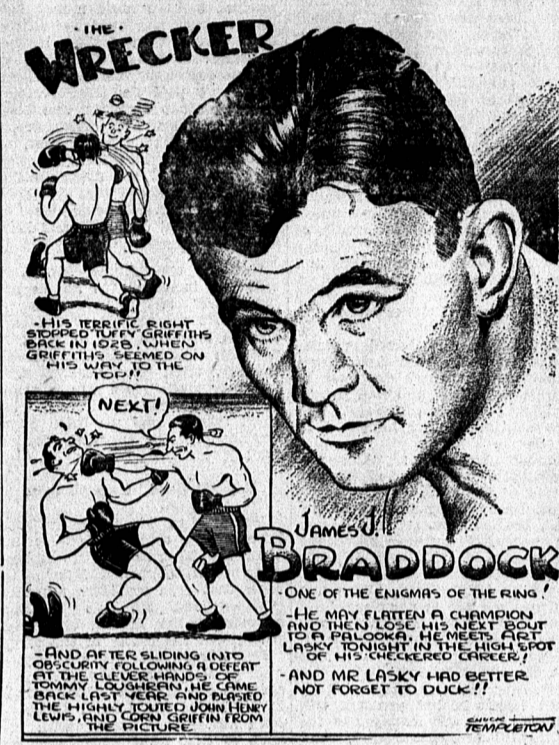

They were among those drawing horses in the big sweepstakes. Holders of tickets on the winning horse get one of the 16 first prizes of $145,800.

For the first time, the sweep authorities declined to disclose the names and addresses of the lucky winners, this innovation being in line with the new Free State Betting and Lottery Act designed to protect the lucky drawers. Similar legislation has also been enforced in the United Kingdom. Consequently, the authorities released only the ticket number and the non-de-plume of the drawer, together with the horse drawn.

The total in the fund, huge as it was, was the lowest since 1931, amounting to about $12,929,500 of which $8,074,800 is available for the prize money, which as usual is divided into a number of distinct units.

More than half the tickets on horses were drawn today, the remainder being drawn with consolation and residual prizes Wednesday and Thursday. The draw was based on the 47 horses listed in the acceptance, although only 28 of these are now eligible for Friday's big race. Sixteen tickets were drawn for each horse.

DETROIT TAKES SECOND STRAIGHT FROM TECHS

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) LONDON, Ont., March 26.—Detroit Olympics are on their way to their first International Hockey League championship as result of their 2-1 verdict over London Tecumseh before a capacity crowd of 4,000 here tonight. It was the second straight victory for Donnie Hughes' Olympics and the speedy Detroit sextet requires but one more decision out of three starts to lift the F. G. Oke Trophy which was won in 1934 by the Techs.

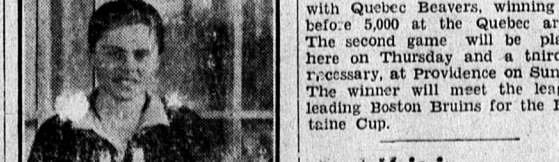

Ronnie Moffatt, speedy left winger, scored both goals for the Olympics. The first counter came after three minutes and six seconds of the opening period with Conny King and Mud Bruneteau assisting. The visitors retained their one goal margin until two minutes and 56 seconds of the third period when Eric Peitinger tied up the count on a pass from Sammy Godin. Yip Foster, Detroit defenceman, was serving a penalty at the time.

In less than seven minutes the Olympics again forged ahead when Moffatt netted his second counter on a smart combination play with Foster and Bruneteau assisting. The third game is slated for the Detroit Olympia on Thursday night.

CARDS POSSESS POWER, YOUTH AND DASH

Much of the 1935 Champions' Success Will Depend On The Dean Brothers.

(By Edward J. Nell)

(Associated Press Sports Writer) BRADENTON, Fla., March 26.—It's an old sporting axiom—you can't go wrong sticking to the champions until you see somebody beat them, and right now the champions of everything in baseball are the almost unbelievable Dean boys and their supporting cast, St. Louis Cardinals.

But there's one haunting element in the picture. That's the growing suspicion that the Cardinals just might not bother to let anybody beat them in the National League race this year; might in fact beat themselves.

There's no questioning the all-around power, youth, and fighting spirit of the club, but there is serious doubt that the pitching staff—the brothers Jerome Herman ("Dizzy") and Paul ("Daffy") Dean—can hold out through an entire season without more hurling support than the roster shows.

Aside from the fact that they won between them all four Cardinal victories over Detroit, the importance of the Deans shows up mightily in the figures for 1934. Between them they won 49 games for the Cards, 30 for Dizzy, 19 for Daffy, and they participated in 89 of their 154 scheduled contests.

They were "hot" when they were needed most. They must stay that way if the Cards are to be within striking distance of the top in September.

While Paul Dean, the quiet one, should develop this year into a 25-game pitcher, Dizzy hasn't looked any too well in training, getting shiplacked particularly by the Giants, his cousins last year. The chief for their longevity, Pat Malone, the fireball right hander who came from the Cubs in exchange for Texas Jim Carleton, won 14 games last year. Carleton accounted for 16, and on paper the Cards haven't profited there. Wild Bill Hallahan, still erratic, is 32 now but should turn in more than eight victories as he did in 1934.

There's Bill Walker, another southpaw question mark, Daffy Vance and Jess Haines, none of whom can be depended on regularly, while the best looking prospect is Ray Harrel, a big youngster who won 13 games for Rochester last season.

Once past the pitching staff, the Cards can match anything else in the league.

PENALTY TO COUTURE IS COSTLY

Northcott Scores In Fourth Minute Of Overtime—Maroons Meet Rangers.

(Associated Press) (By Guardian's Special Wire) CHICAGO, March 26.—Chicago Black Hawks, defending Stanley Cup champions, tonight fell before Montreal Maroons 1-0 in a bruising overtime battle before 17,681 spectators, largest crowd of the Chicago season. Defeat swept Chicago out of the 1935 Stanley Cup race while Maroons go on to meet New York Rangers in the semi-final Chicago and Maroons had finished second in the season's race.

Couture Draws Penalty

A major penalty to Lela Couture for clubbing Dave Trotter, insensible in the third minute of overtime was the final deciding break in the long battle that started in Montreal last Saturday and extended through six periods of scoreless play. A minute after Couture and Trotter left the ice Baldy Northcott took a pass from Bob Gracie, picked up the rebound on his own shot and scored the winning goal at the 4:02 mark in overtime.

The general opinion was that Couture, brilliant Chicago wing, had struck Trotter accidentally during a furious struggle for the rubber to the right of the Maroon net. Trotter fell face downward and then rolled over on his back. He was assisted from the ice. Couture was ejected while the crowd booed Referee Jerry Goodman of London for the penalty.

Spectacular Net Minding

Except for occasional lulls when the battle-worn players became tired and cautious the battle was a stirring one of hard drives, hard shots and spectacular goal tending by Lorne Chabot, Chicago's Vesina Trophy winner and Alex Connell, the League's shut-out king.

Lineups:—Goal, Connell; Defence, Evans, Wentworth; forwards, Bilneo, Trotter, Robinson. Montreal subs: Conacher, Smith, Ward, Cain, Gracie, Shields, Northcott, Miller. Chicago:—Goal, Chabot; defence, Coulter, Burke; forwards, Romnes, Thompson, Couture. Chicago Spares:—Wiebe, Morenz, March, Levinsky, Locking, Kendall, Cook, Gotschell, McFadyen, Trudel. Officials: Rodden and Goodman.

ENTRIES FEW FOR GRAND NATIONAL

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) AINTREE, Liverpool, March 26.—The annual Grand National fever was beginning to mount higher tonight, with one of the smallest fields in years—but one of the most select—ready to start in the 97th running of the great steeplechase over the unique Aintree course.

No more than 28 horses are left in for Friday's renewal of the Grand National Steeplechase over the four miles and 856 yards studded with 32 cruel jumps, but the smallness of the field may make for one of the best races since the race had its humble beginning in 1839.

In recent years the field has occasionally numbered more than 60 but since the growth of the Irish Sweepstakes the conditions have been tightened. Friday's field will be the smallest since 28 started in 1923. The all-time low record was just two years after the first race, in 1841, when there were 10 starters.

The experts are agreed the race lies between the British-owned Golden Miller, last year's winner; the United States-owned Thomond II and the French-bred Tapinois. A lot of the other horses are being started, as usual, with the

JACKSON PRIMEAU C. CONACHER

(By George Maguire, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

THE GARDENS, Boston, March 26.—Toronto Maple Leafs evened the National Hockey League championship series with Boston by defeating the Bruins 2-0 before another capacity crowd of some 17,200 fans here tonight. The "kid" line of the dashing blueshirts wrecked Boston hopes of chalking up two straight victories by breaking away from their close checking opponents to flash the puck past Cecil "Tiny" Thompson twice within a period of less than three minutes in the third period of the fast, exciting match.

Conacher Opens Scoring

Charlie Conacher, the league's leading marksman, started his team on the road to a well-earned triumph by blazing a shot into the far top corner of the Bruin cage at 9:50. Albert "Babe" Siebert, husky Boston defenceman, was in the penalty box when Conacher took Harvey Jackson's pass for the goal. Just after Siebert returned Jackson broke through to snare a loose puck Conacher and Joe Primeau had tried to feed him and easily beat Thompson for the clinching marker.

The game was vastly superior to Saturday's long, overtime tussle, won by the Bruins 1-0. Instead of the close checking duel the teams tonight displayed fast, wide-open puck chasing that kept the crowd on its collective toes throughout.

Thompson Hero

Thompson proved the individual hero of the night by stopping 41 shots, many of them with the sniper almost on top of him. George Hainsworth had only 16 and few of those were difficult. The Leafs appeared the ultimate winners of tonight's game from the very outset when the fast-skating, hard-hitting blue clad youngsters broke through the tired Boston defence with ease. Only the spectacular work of Thompson prevented the Leafs running up a much larger score long before the final frame.

While the teams again fought bitterly with bruising body checks handed out recklessly, only nine penalties were called by the referees with the Leafs getting five. The teams entrained immediately after the game for Toronto where the best three-out-of-five series will continue Thursday night.

LINEUPS

Boston: Goal, Thompson; defence, Siebert, Shore; centre, Kaminsky; wings, Barry, Clapper; subs, Stewart, Shannon, Sands, Davie, McIneney, O'Neil, Beattie, Haynes, Mottler.

Toronto: Goal, Hainsworth; defence, Hollett, Day; centre, Thoms; wings, Kilrea, Finnigan; subs, Conacher, Primeau, Jackson, Cotton, Kelly, Metz, Horner, Clancy. Referees: A. G. Smith and Eusebe Daigneault.

THEY DANCE TO BA'LE

PHILADELPHIA — Pennsylvania oarsmen will, you might say, dance their way to the big Poughkeepsie regatta this year. Penn, which had few intercollegiate rivals on the water when Joe Wright Sr. of Toronto was head coach, has struck such hard times in rowing that an alumni dance is being arranged to raise training expenses for this year's crews.

MIDGET RACERS DO WELL

NEW YORK — Another British sport—midget automobile racing—has taken a hold in New York. The midget drivers have finished their first indoor season at the Coliseum in the Bronx and plan to set up their five-laps-to-the-mile tracks at five parks near Coney Island. Wembley Stadium is the centre of the sport in England.

BABE MAY COME BACK

TORONTO — Cecil (Babe) Dye, who was hockey's most famous marksman until his retirement and until Charlie Conacher came along, may be back in the National League next winter as a referee. "The Babe" handled the final game of the N. H. L. season here and made a good impression.

THEY NEVER FIGHT

CHICAGO — Manager Glen Loughlin of Chicago Black Hawks says brothers never turn against each other if they happen to play on opposing teams. Clem's brother Will used to play on the same Victoria, B.C., team with Clem, but a little harmless jostling in practice was the extent of their enmity. It seems Loughlin's brother, stood six feet, two inches and weighed 210.

HERMAN'S BIGGEST VICTORY

NEW ORLEANS — Pete Hermann, former world's bantamweight champion, is totally blind from buffeting and pummeling in the ring. But Pete isn't the usual sad story of the derelict fighter. He saved his money. He owns a night club. He plans to move into the country soon. He has won his greatest fight—a fight against helplessness.
