A pretty marriage was solemnized at St. Mary's Church, Souris, when Beatrice, daughter of Peter E., and Mrs. Holland became the bride of Francis A., son of Isaac and Mrs. White of Souris West.

The marriage ceremony and nuptial Mass were performed by Rev. D.P Croken with Rev A L Sinnott and Rev. Leonard MacKenna present in the sanctuary.

The bride looked charming in a floor length gown of white silk taffeta, finger-tip veil with orange blossom wreath, and wearing a corsage of American beauty roses. She carried a white prayer book with streamers.

Miss Helen Paquet, girl-friend of the bride, was her only attendant and wore a floor length gown of apricot chiffon with shoulder-length veil and wore a corsage of American beauty roses.

The groom was supported by his brother Eugene.

During the Mass hymns were rendered most beautifully by St. Mary's choir, of whom the bride is a member, under the direction of Mr. W.J. Paquet accompanied by Mrs Paquet who also played the wedding march.

After the marriage a wedding breakfast was served to immediate relatives and friends at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride and groom left on a honeymoon through the Maritimes. For travelling the bride wore a black tailored suit with accessories to match.

The groom is a bombardier with an ack-ack regiment and leaves for his unit shortly.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a surprise shower at her home where many friends attended and gave the bride-to-be many useful gifts and all spent a very pleasant evening.

Zion Presbyterian Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding at three o'clock Saturday afternoon, when the Rev. G. Carlyle Webster, united in marriage Miss Betty June Bruce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bruce, and Lieut. Carleton James Smith, R.C.A.S.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Smith of Halifax.

Lovely flowers and ferns made an ideal setting for the wedding party. The guest pews were marked by patriotic ribbon bows. the ushers being Mr. T. Elmer Dunning and Mr. Frank Smith, Halifax, brother of the groom.

The bride who walked up the aisle on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, looked very winsome in a lovely light blue silk jersey floor length gown, with becoming bow trimmed cap of blue net, matching gloves and carried an exquisite shower bouquet of Talisman roses, bouvardia and adiantuim. The brides only ornament was a single strand of pearls.

Miss Helen Sherran was her bridesmaid, looking very girlish in a pretty triple sheer pink floor length gown with net cap, calot style of a matching shade edged with pink flowers. She carried a contrasting bouquet of Dream roses.

The groomsman was Lieut. Harry Smith, R. C. N., Saint John, brother of the groom.

During the ceremony Mrs. Edwin Johnston, the church organist, played softly and Miss Dorothy Allen, sang the bridal solo "Because."

The church was crowded with guests and intimate friends who generously showered the happy young couple as they left the church with confetti and rice.

The bride's mother Mrs. Bruce, wore a most becoming costume of Soldier blue jersey, with chic wine felt hat with blue feather band to correspond and corsage of Better Time Roses.

Mrs. Smith chose a smart powder blue lace trimmed dress, her accessories being carried out in navy blue, with corsage of Hollywood roses.

After the ceremony a delightful reception was held at the Charlottetown when happiest congratulations were extended to Lieut. and Smith who left on a short honeymoon trip by car, the bride wearing a brown dress and hat with fur trim green coat and brown accessories.

The Guardian joins in happiest good wishes.

ALLAN — HAYTER. — A wedding of interest to a wide circle of relatives and friends in the Maritimes took place on Wednesday, November 3rd, at the parsonage of the Church of Christ, River John, N. S., when Miss Lois Hariett Hayter, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hayter, River John, N. S., was united in marriage with Mr. Austin Carleton Allan, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Allan, also of River John, N. S. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father and took place under an arch of evergreen and autumn leaves and flowers. The bride entered the living room to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by her sister, Miss Winnifred Hayter, and was attired in a floor length gown of white chiffon, fashioned with sweetheart neckline fitted torso, and bouffant skirt. Her finger tip veil was of white tulle caught by a halo of orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible, gift of the groom, with white satin streamers, caught up with sweet pea buds and sprigs of maiden hair fern. Her matched earls. Following the ceremony ornament was a necklace of mony, a sumptuous wedding supper was served to the guests present. The color scheme in the dining room was silver, pink and white. The bride's table was centred by a three tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. White tapers in silver candle-sticks and silver vases of roses were placed at either end of the table. Immediately following, and amid showers of confetti, the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes. For travelling, the bride wore a navy tailored suit with navy accessories. The many gifts of silver, crystal, china, linen, and cheques testified to the popularity of the young couple who will reside at Sea Foam, N. S., where the groom is engaged in farming and the lumbering business.

The 728th R.C.A.F. casualty list of the war, issued at Ottawa last night, contained the name of a Montague airman, Pilot Officer Robert Kelly Clements, listed as missing on active service (overseas) after air operations.

PO. Clements is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R.K. Clements of Montague and has a wife overseas. He was listed missing after operations on October 2, his parents have been informed.

Two weeks before the outbreak of war he enlisted with the Department of Canadian Ordnance at Halifax. Later he took his discharge there and re-enlisted in the Air Force. He trained at Goderich, and Mount Hope, Ontario and received his wings at Bromford, Ontario, in December 1941. He went overseas the following month.

The airman, who is 23 years old, was commissioned in the field. He towed gliders for a time in England and later was transferred to Lancaster Bombers.

In January of this year he married Miss Eileen Tomey of Romford, Essex England.

He has three brothers and two sisters at home in Montague.

Strong criticism of the Island's federal representatives in not pressing for the Province's rightful share of war contracts, of the lack of employment here of young men and women not eligible for military service, of the continuance of party patronage in wartime, and of the loss of the Island's profitable livestock market in Newfoundland, was expressed in resolutions passed unanimously at the annual meeting last night of the Queen's County Progressive Conservative Association.

The meeting, which was very largely attended, was held in the B. I. S. hall with Mr. W. S. Grant, retiring president, in the chair.

The meeting expressed determination to contribute in every way to the war effort, and its fullest confidence in the leadership of Hon. John Bracken in the federal field, and of Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan as provincial leader.

At a meeting of the executive immediately following the general meeting, Major T. B. Rogers, Charlottetown, was elected President, Mr. J. A. MacDonald, K. C., Charlottetown, Secretary, and Mr. George N. MacKay, Emerald, Vice President.

5th Queen's: Messrs. J. A. MacDonald, K. C., A. O. F. Gill, Maj. Thos. B. Rogers, Charlottetown.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read by retiring secretary Alban Farmer, and duly approved.

The Trustees of the Protestant Orphanage held a meeting in Charlottetown on Tuesday November 9th.

The attendance of practically 100% was most gratifying, particularly of those from outside points, which shows clearly the interest all have in the work of the institution.

The Vice - Chairman Mrs. H. S. Henderson presided and excellent reports were received from all committees.

The Property Committee report showed that the work on the new roof was completed and though the total cost of practically $1,000.00 seemed high yet it was felt, it was a real good job.

The adoption report stated that we had already a large family in the instituition and from other requests we would have more coming in shortly. All inmates were enjoying the best of health.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Hately conducted the young couple to their seats. Miss Catherine Gaudet and Mrs. Daniel Dunning carried the gift baskets, and the gifts were arranged by Mrs. Percy Hately, Miss Jean Follard reading the accompanying verses. Leslie, who is stationed at Mulgrave, Nova Scotia, expressed on behalf of his lovely intended bride and himself their thanks for the fine array of gifts, and also for the kind wishes that went with them. A dainty lunch was then served and the rest of the happy evening was whiled away in games and dancing.—D.

—ATTENDS CONVENTION — Mrs. T J. Humphrey, Kensington, recently returned from Nova Scotia, while there she attended the 24th Annual Maritime Sunday School Convention held at Bridgetown. Mrs. Humphrey was the only delegate from this Province, and represented the P. E. I. Girls' Work Board at the Convention, she has been Secretary of the Board for the past three years. At Hantsport she was the guest of Mr. Humphrey's sister, Mrs. Barbour and Rev. J. W. Barbour. Before returning home she spent the week-end in Halifax the guest of Dr. G. A. and Mrs. MacIntosh, Robie Street. Mrs. MacIntosh, as 'Claire Harris MacIntosh,' author of Nova Scotia's Provincial song—"A Song of Nova Scotia," is a prominent writer and musician. She visited this Province for ten days in September, and her first book which appeared some years ago "Attune with Spring in Acadie" was recently reviewed by Agricola in this paper. A beautiful little book of verse "Phantom Pirates" which came from Mrs. MacIntosh's pen in 1941, is deservedly popular. —K.

Frank Gallant and Harry Gallant were found not guilty by a petit jury at Summerside yesterday. They were charged with conspiracy to distill illegally alcoholic spirits and the trial had been going on for nine days. Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell was the presiding judge.

After receiving a charge from the court that lasted two and three quarter hours the jury retired at one fifteen and returned at four o'clock with their verdict.

The accused, on motion of the defense, were then discharged from appearance in court, subject to the same recognizance to appear and stand trial on a second count of indictment. The second count is that they conspired to defraud the government of certain duties in respect to alcohol manufactured in Canada. The two counts originally constituted one indictment but were severed by the court previous to the beginning of the trial.

The jury were: Frank Sweet, St. Eleanors foreman; Wm. Trainor, Albany; Renford McNevin, Coleman; Brenton Ramsay, Alberton; Lawrence Peters, Bloomfield; Joseph C. Gallant, Nail Point; Earl Corney, Summerside; Prusha Lyle, Central, Lot 16; Ernest Rogers, Linkletter; John Brooks, Linkletter; Wm. Cameron, Lot 16; and James S. McKinnon, Grand River.

Counsel for the prosecution were P. J. Hughes, K.C., Fredericton, N. B., and R. S. Hinton, and for the defense, H.F. MacPhee K.C., Charlottetown, J. Watson MacNaught, K.C , and W Henry Noonan.
