An Alberton correspondent writes that business has been rather dull of late on account of stormy weather and bad roads.

Owing to the fine weather and the good roads a very large quantity of farm produce is being brought into town. Yesterday Sinclair & Stewart took in about 15,000 pounds of pork and shipped about 35,000 pounds.

Always go to McGowan & Wright's when you want something nice in ladies neck furs. See their range of Alaska Sable ruffs. There is nothing nicer for a Christmas gift.

A. H. Wadman, Summerside, has just finished and delivered to Andrew Bonness, Kensington a new hearse. It is light, strong and massive in appearance. This is the fourth hearse Mr Wadman has built since he came to Summerside. He built one for A. J. McLeod, Stanley Bridge, one now owned by H. A. Compton, Summerside and the massive funeral car built for the Mechanics Manufacturing Co. Summerside, now owned by Chas. Holm & Son, North Tryon, Undertakers will do well to leave their orders with Mr Wadman as he understands his business.

D. G. McDonald, Emyvale, has started on a tour of the Island in the interests of Dr. James McDonald's drug store, Summerside, whose veterinary preparations have become so famous that they have acquired a special prominence. Not only from this fact but as these preparations are manufactured in this province they will no doubt be largely used, and Mr. McDonald will meet with the success he justly merits.

Xmas presents for your brother or some one else's brother—the pins, cuff buttons, fob watch chains, silk and fancy handkerchiefs, silk braces etc—selling always the cheapest at M. L. Frank McKenzie's, The maker of good clothes

Upwards of fifty members attended the first assembly of the dance class in the Town Hall on Tuesday night. The class is most fortunate in having Miss Helena McDonald of Montague for instructor. Miss Clara MacDonald is pianist. Class meets twice a week during the winter months.

MANY will regret to learn of the death, yesterday, at Norwood Road, Royalty, of William Harper, formerly of this city, where for many years he carried on the business of contractor and builder, and was well and favorably known as a good business man and skilful mechanic. His wife predeceased him about seven years, but he leaves six sons, W. W., contractor of this city; Thomas, also of this city; George, in the Royalty; Frank, in Amherst; James, in Vermont; and Charles on the P. E. I. Railway; and two daughters, Mrs. Steadman, Brockton, Mass., and Mrs. John Roper, Royalty.

Rev. Edwin Smith, M. A. delivered his popular lecture "From Ocean to Ocean" in the Town Hall on Wednesday night. The lecture is illustrated by views, many of which were taken by Rev. Mr. Smith himself when on his trip across the continent. The speaker in eloquent language described every scene of city and mountain and plain as they appeared upon the canvass. The large audience were delighted and it is hoped that the reverend gentlemen will be heard soon again in Georgetown. At the close a note of thanks moved by F. F. Ryan seconded by A. D. McPhee was unanimously carried and to which the lecturer very happily replied. Rev. Mr. Robertson performed the duties of chairman most acceptably.

Merchants Rubbers

POINTERS FOR RUBBER BUYERS
An up-to-date shoe dealer is usually a good rubber judge—he is quick to discern the comparative points of excellence that pass unnoticed by the ordinary man.
Many of the largest merchants have stocked exclusively with Merchants Rubbers. They know that the high grade materials used, the exclusive methods employed and general care exercised in their manufacture mean increased wear and pleased customers.
This fact is a good guide to the ordinary buyer.
Merchants Rubbers have the fit, style, appearance and wearing qualities that cannot be obtained in any other brand of rubbers.
If your Shoeman doesn't sell them let us know.

FOR SANTA CLAUS

Good News From Him Once More

M. TRAINOR & Co.,

MY STORE

SANTA CLAUS HEAD-QUARTERS

HEADQUARTERS FOR CHRISTMAS GOODS.

The following Cablegram received yesterday speaks for itself:

Switzerland, Dec. 5th, 1905.

Messrs. M. Trainor & Co.,
Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island,

Have decided to once more make my headquarters for Christmas gifts of every kind in the Dry Goods line, at your popular store. Depend on you to have everything arranged. Delighted if you will have store artistically decorated and brilliantly illuminated, as I intend to have many Novelties for the little ones, never shown by you before. Will be with you shortly.
(Signed) SANTA CLAUS.

We feel elated over this encouraging news and already have got busy buying, planning and decorating for Santa's arrival. We'll have quite a surprise for him when he comes and sees the immense changes we have made since his last visit, while we feel sure we can please even Santa Claus in the variety and excellence of our stock.
