

THE MORNING GUARDIAN, BUSINESS

SATURDAY, MARCH, 9, 1901.

An inventor in Pasadena, Cal. has succeeded in making a sun motor of ten horse power, which is now utilized there in pumping water for purposes of irrigation.

A western paper tells that a "clever man who wrote poetry for the Globe newspaper fifty years ago, once found that in the springtime, when his muse was most prolific, the roads were blocked up and being unable to get his goods to market he was compelled to live on turnips."

The Toronto Globe speaking of the new star which has attracted so much attention among astronomers of late says:—"The occurrence which now reaches our eyes must have happened thousands, perhaps millions of years ago, and is only now reaching us across the infinities of space."

The first copy of the Bible printed from movable types by Gutenberg cost about $100. It was issued between the years 1450 and 1455. Thirty three copies of the edition are still in existence, one of which has been sold for $19,350.

Rev. G. F. Dawson, of Tryon, in writing to the Wesleyan in reference to the evangelistic effort recently made in Tryon says: Mr. J. Ritchie Bell, of Montreal began work with us on Jan. 7th. For a week previous, preparatory services have been held, and the Lord manifested His presence among us from the first.

A BIG FORESTER'S COURT.

The thousand and more of members of the Independent Order of Foresters in this province will be interested in the following item from the Citizen:—"A movement is on foot to amalgamate all the English-speaking courts of the Independent Order of Foresters in Ottawa, into one court. If the proposal is carried on, this court will have 1,400 members and will be twice as large as any other I. O. F. court in the world.

While the presses are of the most modern type it must not be overlooked that Mr. Taylor's job office is well equipped with modern types, etc. and added to the plant the excellent stock of the Bazaar Co. the proprietor will doubtless enjoy a liberal share of patronage.

How Is It With You?

If You Are Not Using Malt Breakfast Food You Are Missing One of the Good Things of Life.

Do you find breakfast with the old-fashioned oatmeal porridge as the opening dish entirely conducive to health and vigor. Unless your stomach is particularly strong and vigorous, you will frequently experience flatulence, waterbrash, heartburn, sour, acid risings and regurgitations into the mouth; these troubles result from use of common oatmeal, cornmeal hominy and other grain foods.
