Don Batting Togs To Win Tilt 20-3

Harris Sluggers Out - Slugged By Hard - Hitting Abbies.

(Special to the Guardian)

The Abbies won the Island senior championship yesterday at Summerside in decisive manner by defeating the Harris Sluggers by the score of 20-3. They played perfect ball in the field, and at bat were effective that Jackie Schurman, one of the Sluggers' star twirlers, was forced to retire in the fifth inning, being relieved by "Doc" Stewart.

The Sluggers batted fairly well, but their fielding was exceptionally poor.

Camps At Box Office To Get First Ticket

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The 1932 championship for standing in line for world-series seats is hereby awarded to William Cunningham, 28, of Kansas City, a former railroad fireman.

Promptly at midnight last night, Cunningham established himself at the Yankee Stadium ticket office, prepared to wait until Sept. 28 for the privilege of buying the first bleachers seat for the opening game of the World Series.

Cunningham made arrangements with a nearby baker to send over his meals and induced a garage owner to lend him a few old automobile seats to use as a bed. An hour after he had taken his position, he was sleeping peacefully.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

(By Tec.) The Abegweit ball team, one of the finest lot of ball players representing this city in years, is running true to form. In their two starts on the road to Maritime baseball supremacy they have not only won both games, but have piled up a total of 29 runs against 3. Their hitting power has something to do with this, having garnered an aggregate of 28 hits in the series against seven, which also speaks well of their moundsmen and the boys behind them.

It may be early to predict, but St. Stephen will have to travel this if they expect to win the P. E. I.-N. B. baseball championship.

The Abegweits will be out with baseball admission tickets today or tomorrow—don't turn 'em down. Purchase a pasteboard, they need the money to carry on the series.

Somerville Makes History

Over the week-end "Sandy" Somerville, one of Canada's favorite golfing sons, made history in winning the United States national amateur golf title, an achievement which no other Canada has ever equalled. Today he is the pride of his countrymen, and it is doubtful if any outstanding Canadian's triumph in any line of sport in the past has ever been hailed with greater satisfaction than that of the strong, silent man of the links from London, Ont. On his gruelling 36-hole struggle against Johnny Goodman, of Omaha, were focused the eyes of an entire continent, and in the stress of a battle that must have called for extraordinary nerve and golfing technique, he exhibited all the qualities that combine to make a real champion—courage, coolness and ability. His was a triumph rendered all the more convincing by the closeness of the opposition and the narrow margin of victory which he held at the finish.

All-Round Athlete No more typical Canadian athlete could have achieved the same distinction than Somerville, who, in a different field of sport where contact exacts a stern physical as well as mental toll, has proved his versatility to the satisfaction of all. Before devoting his entire time and ability to golf, he won a reputation as a football, hockey and cricket star. At Toronto Varsity, he mastered the drop kick and combined perfection in this department with ability as a backfielder. In hockey he held a place on the forward line of the London O. H. A. team alongside "Butch" Keeling and Jerry Lowrey, both of whom later made their mark as National League players.

Like George E. Lyon, the only other Canadian to reach the U. S. amateur finals, Somerville was also a talented cricketer and was twice chosen to play on Canadian international elevens.

without shelter were simply pounded to death by the hail. Most of the deaths were in the bare and level plains round the station, where people were caught unaware. More than one marriage party was caught by the storm near the banks of the river and annihilated. No Europeans were killed.

Northern India, the scene of the disaster in 1888, is notorious for terrific hailstorms, which, to judge from the statistics available, cost the lives of fully as many human beings as are killed by hail in all other parts of the world combined. On May 5 of the present year a hailstorm near Allahabad is reported to have killed several people, five of whom were hit by big hailstones, while the others perished when houses and trees were beaten down by the icy missiles.

CUYLER HERO IN DECIDING LEAGUE GAME

Cubs Capture National League Flag — Kiki Comes Clean In Seventh When Bases Are Loaded To Beat Pirates 5 to 2.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—One sweep of Kiki Cuyler's lusty war club clinched the National League pennant for Chicago's rushing Cubs at Chicago yesterday and made his old Pittsburgh mates also rans.

At bat in the seventh inning of a torrid duel, with the bases loaded and one out, Kiki erased what little remained of the championship hopes of the club that once "sold him down the river," by smashing out a long triple to supply the winning margin of 5 to 2.

Dramatic Blow The blow, crashing off one of Steve Swetonic's slants, tumbled the Pirates out of the championship race definitely.

Cuyler's "revenge act" was as dramatic to a roaring capacity crowd of 40,000 as it was timely. The score was tied at two-all when the big Cub seventh opened with a single by Bill Jurgens.

Guy Bush, tamer of the Buccaneers over the route with eight hits, laid down a perfect sacrifice bunt and was safe as Gus Suhr pegged wildly to catch Jurgens at second. Billy Herman advanced both runners with another perfect bunt and the Pirates ate a huddle.

It was decided to pass the dangerous English to fill the bases and make the opportunity for a play at any base. Swetonic put everything behind his every pitch and the setting stood at three balls and two strikes. With a mighty heave, Swetonic fired. Cuyler met it squarely and the ball sizzled on a line right over third base to the extreme left corner of left field. The blow cleared the bases and it was all over with Bush holding the Buc's to a harmless single by Traynor in the eighth with one out.

Keen Racing At St. Stephen

(Canadian Press) ST. STEPHEN, N. B., Sept. 21.—Although the morning was cloudy and considerable rain fell, the management of the St. Stephen track was able to carry out their first day's programme at the exhibition here today as scheduled. Although all races were decided in straight heats, the competition was keen and every heat was a race to the finish.

Sharkey Is Named Champ

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 21.—Jack Sharkey was recognized today by the National Boxing Association as the United States and world heavyweight boxing champion.

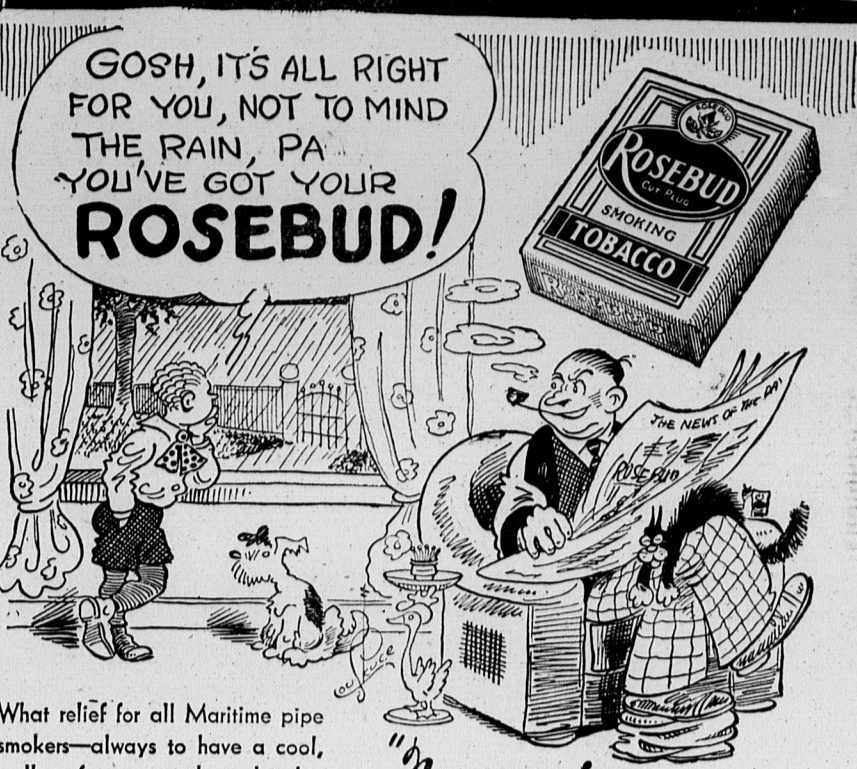

Max Schmeling of Germany, the former titleholder, was ranked next, followed by Max Baer. Ernie Schaaf was dropped from fourth to seventh and Primo Carnera and William L. Stribling were not listed among the first 10 contenders.

Other champions of the National Boxing Association are as follows: welterweight, Jackie Fields; lightweight, Tony Conzoneri; featherweight, Tommy Paul; bantamweight, Al Brown; flyweight, Young Perez.

CORSET INDUSTRY IN 1931

In spite of depressed conditions the corset industry held its own comparatively well in 1931. There were increases in the number of establishments, the total number of employees and the amount of salaries and wages paid them. The amount of capital investment, cost of raw materials, value of production and value added by manufacture all show small recessions from 1930.

Gross value of production amounted to $4,187,647 in 1931, a decline of $391,200 or almost 9 per cent. The amount of capital investment likewise declined from $5,277,642 in 1930 to $4,812,464, a loss of $465,178 in 1931. The number of employees, salaried and wage-earners, showed an increase of 26, the number being 1,482 in 1930 and 1,508 in 1931.

What relief for all Maritime pipe smokers—always to have a cool, mellow, fragrant smoke at hand—one that is blended to the exacting Maritime taste.

No arguing it's the Best

JUVENILE PACERS

(By W. H. Gocher)

Half a dozen two year old pacers made considerable turf history at Grand Circuit meetings this year. Each of them had enough speed to bid for honors in the faster events and by their class showed that they may make another set of records when they meet as three year olds.

The first flash was at North Randall where Logan Scott defeated Plucky Scott, His Majesty, and Good Friday in 2:09. The winner is by Peter Scott out of the California bred mare Caroline Logan which was a top liner in the Bay State Circuit with Bert Abbe as her most formidable competitor.

The North Randall race was only a starter. When the youngsters met at Toledo, His Majesty whisked off in front and won in 2:05 with Plucky Scott, Good Friday, a colt by Grattan Pars, and the Single G. colt Still Water chasing him.

His Majesty is bred to be a pacer. He is by Abbedale out of a mare by Walter Direct. This colt was shipped west after the Toledo meeting and when the juveniles answered the bell at Fort Erie, Calumet Dubuque took his place in the field.

Dubuque is by Peter the Brewer. He was purchased at the New York sale and developed at Pinehurst. J. C. Thompson bought him after the stable shipped to Goshen. In his first race at Fort Erie, Calumet Dubuque lined up with the Peter Scott pair Logan Scott and Plucky Scott and Good Friday and won in 2:05 1-4. He scored again at Salem in 2:05 1-2 where the Peter Volo colt Viking and Miss Saginaw, a half sister to Betterwin, were added to the field.

MAINE RACES

UNITY, Me., Sept. 21.—The Unity Fair, one of the oldest in the state, opened today with racing until dark, 21 horses coming out for the word.

The 2.28 class was split in two divisions for the first heat, then all but eight eliminated, Norma C., owned by W. A. Clement, of Belgrade, finally winning. The Aroostook gelding Warren the Great, and The Outlook from Henry Clukey's Rockland stable took the other races.
