Weakness and Nervousness Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

helped me wonderfully. I have also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and find it very good. I have no weak spells any more, the pains left me and my nerves are much better. I feel safe in saying that Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine has helped me wonderfully." — Mrs. Wm. H. BEECHTLE, Box 143, Fort Colborne, Ontario.

Tired All The Time

"I took your medicine for a week, nervous and run-down condition. I had no appetite and had a tired feeling all the time. I had awful pains, headaches and backaches and the cramps were so bad that I would not work for a day or two each month. A girl friend of mine told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable and I certainly recommend it highly for what it has done for me." — Mrs. E. S. GABLE, Box 19, Uxbridge, Ontario.

Tell your friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for you.

Livestock Market

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, June 5. — There were 132 cattle, 84 sheep and lambs, 1,225 hogs and 1,510 calves for sale on the two markets today.

Cattle trade was steady.

Calves remained strong, selling at from $9.00 to $12.25. Common kinds brought around $10.00 and ungraded lots of fairly good average quality $11.00 to $12.25.

Sheep were slow sellers at $4.00 to $7.00. Lambs brought from $5.00 to $12.00 each.

Hogs were a shade easier and packers were taking a $4.00 cut on sows. Heavies were hard to sell. Straight car lots of good average quality sold for $11.75. Mixed lots brought $11.60 and an odd sale of good hogs was made up to $12.00. Sows were mostly from $8.00 to $8.50.

Hunter River And Vicinity

Dr. George Green, Charlottetown, was a visitor here on Friday.

Mrs. S. M. Daniel has returned from a three week's visit to her former home in Pictou, N. S.

Miss Jeanette McDonald, Teacher at Midgeell, spent the week-end at her home in Hopedale.

The Misses Irene Weeks, Agnes Arthur and Hilda Cutcliffe, Fredericton, were recent visitors here.

Mr. Clarence McLean of the Royal Bank staff is spending a two weeks holiday at his home in Dartington.

Miss Ruby McDougall, Charlottetown, spent the week-end and holiday at her home here.

The Misses Dorothy Cutcliffe, Hilda and Edith Cutcliffe, and Mr. Murdoch Cutcliffe were motorists to Charlottetown, the latter part of the week.

Miss Beatrice VanDerstine, Charlottetown, was here over the week-end and the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McMillan.

Rev. R. H. Baxter, B. A., conducted the closing services of his pastorate in this charge on Sunday, preaching at the four appointments. All four services were largely attended, and the evening service at Hunter River was a particularly fitting climax to a successful three years ministry. He spoke feelingly and with great earnestness from Mark 10: 28-30, "The Reward of Christian Living." Accompanied by Mrs. Baxter, two little sons, Bobby and Teddy, and Mrs. Baxter's mother, Mrs. McCallum, he leaves on Tuesday morning by motor for Sackville, where he will attend the Maritime Conference. Mr. Baxter has accepted a call to Bayfield, N. B.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE FEDERAL PARLIAMENT

(From Our Own Correspondent)

OTTAWA, Ont., June 2. — The reply of the Prime Minister to Secretary of State Kellogg inviting cooperation in bringing about a renunciation of war tabled at a late hour last evening, is a characteristic document. Instead of replying "delighted to accept. Will do anything possible in helping to accomplish your desirable aim," or some such laconic phrasing as Minister of Finance Robb would have used five minutes after the note had been received, the Prime Minister had to indulge his penchant for prolix political phrasing in what occupies nearly a column of newspaper space and in which there is a homily on the League of Nations—not too popular in the United States—as a factor in peace negotiations, and Canada's freedom from danger of attack and her desire to remain outside the sphere of "entangling alliances."

The reason for the eight days delay in answering is apparent in the Prime Minister's love of not only refinement of phrasing, but appropriate setting, as the correspondence is brought down in a beautifully printed brochure, with fitting alliterative title of "proposals for a multilateral pact for the renunciation of war."

The Hon. J. A. MacDonald leaves tomorrow (Sunday) for Charlottetown which is made necessary by important business. It depends upon whether the session is prolonged beyond next week if he returns or not.

There was an exhibition last night of what appeared to be almost an abuse of the rules. Private bills of whatever nature have had a very rough ride this session. Formerly, in normal circumstances, after being threshed out in committee, they went through the House more or less as a matter of course. Under the one hour limit it is a very easy thing to talk out a bill time after time, whether the objection is a matter of personal grudge or otherwise and this year, if a bill fails on this account at a certain stage it goes to the bottom of the list, with the danger of never getting to the top again.

Last evening the London and Port Burwell coking project was balked by the "previous question", although it came on for first consideration again today. There was retaliation when the Edmonton and Dunvegan Railway bill, sponsored by Mr. Kennedy, was put on the third reading. The western members have been rather active in opposing eastern Canadian private bills and this was a case of tit-for-tat.

The bill, which has been sent back to the feet of the list three times before was talked out the fourth time. There is nothing against the bill on principle. Before the end of the session a day will be set apart for private bills, and the probabilities are that all will go through.

The House met at eleven o'clock this morning and again at three this afternoon for a short time. Early adjournment was made in order that, as Monday is a holiday, members might be able to leave home, and also to permit as many as wished to attend the Governor-General's garden party this afternoon.

Before going into estimates of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, Mr. McQuarrie, New Westminster, called attention to the fact there were flag incidents in connection with American tourists waving American flags and asked the Prime Minister if he would consider the suggestion of the native sons of British Columbia to have legislation compelling tourists where displaying the Stars and Stripes to also display a Union Jack of equal size. The latter did not like the idea of making compulsory what should be a consideration of courtesy, and it would be more appropriately the subject of discussion between the two legations, at Washington and Ottawa.

Under the live stock vote of $1,480,000 there were numerous protests from private members against the cancellation of department of agriculture votes to fairs of class "B." The Minister explained that a number of these fairs had got into financial difficulties in trying to reach the qualification for the grant, money to entitle them to the grant, and some time ago it had been decided to cut out these grants, but it had been maintained for a time in order that they might get out of their difficulties. Small fairs were not entitled to grants but they had been given it during the war as a war measure.

When the item of $150,000 for the conservation and development of deep sea fishing provided for the last 50 years for the purpose of what is known as fishing bounties which arose out of the Halifax award of 1871, Mr. Neill, Comox, Alberta declared that this money belonged to the whole of Canada, and not exclusively to the fishermen of the Maritime Provinces, and that B. C. according to its fishery

MR. DANIEL ROBERTSON

Daniel Robertson, of Bothwell Community, East Point, passed away Wednesday, May 30th, 1928, at his home after a rather lingering illness at the age of seventy-eight.

Mr. Robertson was born and reared in Kingsboro and spent his early years in Kingsboro Belfast Church, and enjoyed the confidence and respect of all who knew him.

He leaves his wife and one son and two grandchildren as the remaining family. He was a great sufferer for many years—but we are assured that "there shall be no more pain."

Funeral services were conducted at the home and the body interred in the Kingsboro Cemetery.

A Minister Says "Nerviline" Fine For Rheumatism

North Head, N.B., March 14.—Rev. Joseph T. Hutton speaks well of Nerviline. He has used this powerful liniment and knows just how relieving it is. "It gives me much pleasure," writes Mr. Hutton, "to write of the merits of Nerviline for external and internal use. Nerviline never fails, no matter to what purpose I put it. It is my indispensable friend." Why not try Nerviline yourself?

FREETOWN AND VICINITY

Miss Helen Proffitt, Kensington, spent the 24th, with her friends, Misses Doris and Hope Jardine.

Among the recent visitors to Freetown were—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ficht, Misses Hazel Jean and Lettie and Master Fred Proffitt, Spring Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baker, Summerside, Mrs. J. S. Perry, Summerside, Miss Annie Andrews, Norboro, Miss Edna Eake, Summerside, Miss Bessie White, Milton, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Andrews, Norboro, Mr. Jack Baker, Summerside, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curtis, Middleton, Mrs. An. Austin Curtis, Middleton, Mrs. Jounston, Rustico, Mrs. Biggar, Stanley, Mr. R. Ronaghan, Kinokora.

Congratulations go out to Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Wright on the birth of a wee lassie.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Affleck, Chelton, on the loss which they sustained May 24th, when their dwelling house was completely destroyed by fire. Everything was done, a very hard fight was put up to save it by the kind neighbours and friends, but it was of no use, as the wind was blowing so high they had a very hard time to keep the flames from entering the outbuildings. Through the kindness of Mr. Alder Wright he had the furniture removed immediately to a vacant house, which he possessed near Mr. Affleck's farm, where they are now staying.

Mrs. William Blacklock, N. B., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schurman, Chelton.

Mr. Harold Holland, Lower Bedeque, had the misfortune of badly spraining his arm.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Proud, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Affleck and family of Charlottetown, spent the 4th of May with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Affleck, Chelton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Muttart, Carleton, were visitors to Summerside on Tuesday.

Mr. Austin Murphy, student at St. Dunstan's College, Charlottetown, has returned to his home in Chelton.

Miss Margaret Wright, student at P. W. C. has returned to her home once again in Middleton.

Mr. Jesse Bradshaw, Middleton, was a visitor to Albany and Carleton last week.

Mrs. Heber E. Myers, North Carleton, spent Tuesday in Summerside.

Messrs. Hudson Jeffery and Melbourne Craig, Lower Bedeque, made a business trip to Chelton on Wednesday.

Miss May Enman teacher of Chelton School has resumed her duties after spending her vacation at her home in Enmore.

Mrs. John Jeffery, Lower Bedeque, was a visitor to St. Eleanor's this week. While there she was the guest of her mother.

Companions sweet,
"Why do you weep?"
"And where is cause for sorrow?"
"Alas, the May"
"Goes out to-day;"
"But June comes in to-morrow."

Mr. and Mrs. Kier Allan and family of Middleton, were visitors to Searletown and Chelton on Sunday.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of Dr. Freeman, Searletown. A speedy recovery is wished for by his many friends.

Messrs. Cedric Owen, Nelson from the government.

Bedeque and Vicinity

Mr. Arnold Henderson, a successful student at P. W. C., has returned to his home in Bedeque. His many friends wish to congratulate him.

Messrs. Chauncey Pearson, Otto Doull and Edgar Doull motored to Cape Traverse on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, Central Bedeque, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hooper, Middleton, were visitors to Chelton on Tuesday.

Her many friends are glad to see Mrs. John W. Rose of U. S. A., back once again with them after being absent for two years. She is now visiting at her daughters, Mrs. Charles Crossman, Cape Traverse.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leard and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mac-Parlane, Fernwood, were visitors to Summerside on Tuesday.

Mr. Edgar Doull accompanied by Mr. Harry Doull, Carleton, crossed over to the mainland enroute to Bayfield, where the former purchased a beautiful gasoline boat.

Mr. and Mrs. Kier Allan and family of Middleton, were visitors to Searletown and Chelton on Sunday.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of Dr. Freeman, Searletown. A speedy recovery is wished for by his many friends.
