

Constant Headaches

When the nervous system gets run down one of the most persistent symptoms is headache. Nervous headache has been described as the cry of the starved brain for more blood.

Because of its remarkable blood-forming and blood-enriching qualities, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food ranks first as a means of overcoming nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, headache, indigestion, sleeplessness, irritability and all the annoying symptoms of nervous breakdown. It is not a mere relief, but thorough cure; for it rebuilds and reconstructs the wasted and depleted nerve cells.

50 cts. a box, 6 for $2.50.

—COUNTY COURT. At the Summerside Court on Friday, before His Honor Judge McQuarrie, the case of Linkletter vs. Folland, occupied most of the day. In this case the plaintiff, who was at the time the proprietor of a Livery barn, claims the price of fifteen weeks board for a trotting horse at the rate of $4 a week. The defendant alleges he made arrangements as to prices with the stable man who is also a horse trainer and whom the defendant mistook for the manager of the barn. The trainer claims that the prices arranged for included only training, fixings and other necessary attention to the horse which privilege he was allowed by the manager and that no bargain whatever was made about the horse. The case was concluded in the afternoon and judgment reserved until the 8th inst. Mr. Heath Strong for plaintiff, Mr. A. C. Saunders for defendant.—H.

"Fagged-Out" Women

WILL FIND A HELPFUL SUGGESTION IN THIS LETTER.

Overworked, run down "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Mrs. Carter's experience. She says:—"I am the mother of six children and I got so weak and run-down that I couldn't eat anything and it seemed almost impossible for me to get around and do my work. I tried different doctors' remedies without benefit. I saw Vinol advertised and decided to try it and received so much benefit from the first bottle that I continued to take it and it has built up my strength and made me strong and well. I consider Vinol the best medicine I have ever taken, and advise all weak, run-down women to try it." Mrs. Bessie Carter, State Road, N. C.

If all the tired, overworked, run-down women in Charlottetown could only realize how our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol, supplies the vital elements necessary to build up the blood and strengthen, we wouldn't be able to supply the demand. E. A. Foster, Central Druggist, Charlottetown and H. J. Mabon, Druggist, Souris.

Arrested As Spy, Wanted To "Get Square."

LEWES, Del., April 1.—Ernest Schiller, the German stowaway, who captured the British steamer Matoppo, was taken from jail here to-night by detectives.

Schiller readily consented to removal, saying that he would do anything to keep out of the hands of the British officials.

During the afternoon Schiller was given a hearing before a justice of the peace, and made a detailed statement, as to his motives in starting what he termed a privateering expedition. Revenge against England for arresting him as a spy, as well as the spoils he expected to secure, he declared, were the impelling motives. He was uncertain, he said, whether the four men he had picked to accompany him had hidden on another vessel or had abandoned the enterprise.

"In making war on England," declared Schiller, "I am guilty of nothing more than a breach of the neutrality laws of this country. I was peacefully practising my profession of textile engineer in Hull, England, when the war broke out. A friend of mine was arrested, charged with signalling with calcium lights to the raiding Zepplins. He was shot, and I was arrested. I had committed no offense, but I was shut up in a dirty jail and greatly humiliated, although there was no evidence against me."

Continuing, he said: "I told the Hull officials that if they persisted in persecuting me on account of my German nationality they would pay for it dearly. After I was released I came to this country, working in New England towns.

"All the time I was thirsting for revenge on the English, and I used to lie awake at nights studying how to get square."

Gen. Hughes To Arrive On 8th

OTTAWA, April 1.—General Sir Sam Hughes is expected to arrive in New York on Sunday week from England. Sir Alexander Bertram will probably meet him on his arrival, and there is considerable interest manifested as to whether he will also be met by Col. John Wesley Allison, who is the individual mostly wanted in connection with the war munitions charges which were made in parliament. General Hughes will be expected to produce Allison before the commission of inquiry.

For weeks, the public accounts committee has been endeavoring to locate him. He is popularly supposed to be in New York, but nothing definite regarding his whereabouts has been made public.

The family left Morrisburg for the South several months ago and the house has been closed. Allison lived for a number of years in New York, where he went when a lad.

His name, before he crossed the border, was Isaac Allison. He returned about twelve years ago and made his home in Morrisburg, but he himself was for the most part in New York. He kept his business strictly to himself and, generally speaking, has been a man of mystery.

The statement in despatches that B. Y. Youkom of New York was unacquainted with Allison, is regarded as extraordinary in view of the fact that there will not be the slightest difficulty in establishing their connection and acquaintance. General Hughes will be expected to produce Allison and Youkom for the commission.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. JAMES NEEDHAM.

The death occurred in Milton, Mass., March 24th, James Needham aged 83 years and three months. Mr. Needham was born in Bay Fortune, P. E. I., Dec. 11, 1832 and had a large circle of acquaintances in the eastern part of the island, where he lived up to about thirty years ago, when he removed to Milton. He was a man of strict integrity and was highly respected. He was active up to about three weeks before his death, retaining all his faculties to the last. He is survived by his wife and Needham, N. Y.

"A good man has gone to the rest That remains to the people of God: And we in our blindness see only The stroke of the rod."

CAPTAIN McNEIL.

Death has claimed a respected resident of Wood Islands in the person of Captain Lauchlin McNeil, who passed peacefully away at his home on Friday morning, March 17th, 1916, aged 75 years. He had been in failing health for the past six months owing to heart

Here is a Certified Cure of Chronic Salt Rheum

BY USE OF DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT—ALSO A BAD CASE OF ECZEMA JUST REPORTED CURED

Chronic Salt Rheum and Eczema are different names for practically the same disease. Small pimples or vesicles form in groups, break and run watery matter, a crust is formed, itching is intense and the disease shows a strong tendency to spread over the body.

Whatever may be the cause, Dr. Chase's Ointment will cure, for it heals and dries up the sores and leaves the skin soft and smooth.

Mr. Geo. E. Compton, Brooklyn, Lot 61, P. E. I., writes—"I suffered for two years with Salt Rheum. Though I consulted three different doctors and tried many medicines, it was all to no effect. A friend advised me to go to say that when I finished the sixth box the Salt Rheum was all gone. There can be no doubt that the cure was entirely due to the use of this ointment, and I want other sufferers from Salt Rheum and Eczema to know about it."

Mr. Geo. Hume, J. P., Brooklyn, Lot 61, P. E. I., writes—"This is to certify that I know Mr. Geo. E. Compton and believe his statement to be true and correct."

Mrs. Allan Weber, whose husband is proprietor of the Manitoulin Woolen Mills, Sheshaquandah, Ont., writes—"I have had a bad case of Eczema on my right leg below the knee. I tried all kinds of ointments and liniments, but to no avail, and was pretty well discouraged. Hearing of how Dr. Chase's Ointment is curing Eczema, I decided to give it a trial, and I am glad to say that it made a complete cure. The sores healed up completely, and I have had no trace of the old trouble for over a year."

It takes a little patience to cure a severe case of Eczema or Salt Rheum, but you soon obtain relief by using Dr. Chase's Ointment, and you can see with your own eyes the benefits obtained once the healing process sets in. trouble, and grew weaker, until the end came. The deceased was a man of exceptional qualities, always cheerful, of strong personality, and powerful physique, enterprising and energetic. Early in life he turned his attention to seafaring and took a deep interest in the shipping industries of the day. Later he went to California, where he spent some twenty-seven years. Subsequently, he returned to his native home, and again took up seafaring and farming. He was a tender in everything pertaining to the promotion and welfare of the community. He was well and favourably known and universally esteemed in all circles of life, whether social or commercial. He was a good neighbour, ever ready to help in time of trouble; a devoted husband and father. He leaves to mourn a widow, two sons and three daughters besides a sister and three brothers, namely, Little Millan, Wood Islands; Donald, Little Sands; Hector, Hopefield, and Neil, Western States. Although the roads were almost impassable the funeral was largely attended, and the last tribute of respect. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. John Gillis. The pall-bearers were, Messrs James McMillan, Archd. Munn, Wm. Brown, Alex. McLennan, Peter McGregor and David Hume. The bereaved widow and family have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in their affliction. (Patriot please copy.)
