The old carpenter shop of the P.E. I.R., on Water Street is being repaired and will be used as a paint shop, says the Patriot.

The pork trade is not very brisk at present although eight cents is being paid for the best quality which should prove an inducement to farmers.

All the best Scotch music will be heard at the Opera House Friday night in the concert being given by the Y.M.C.A. of St. James Church.

R. Bruce McMillan, Brackley Point Road, has been sick in bed for the past week, threatened with fever. His many friends will be pleased to learn that he is improving rapidly.

An ad which will please the ladies of Charlottetown will appear in tomorrow's Guardian for Moore & McLeod. It will be a full page cut most artistically engraved, while in the centre particulars will be given about the firm's big millinery opening.

There are many fields of second growth clover in this province that would almost astonish one, who did not see them. One field in particular deserves special mention. A 6 acre field belonging to Rev. J. J. McDonald of Kinkora measured 25 inches. This is a record breaker.

Mrs. Morley Sellers, nee Miss May McLeod of Hunter River, leaves tomorrow for High River, Alberta, where she will join her husband now engaged in business there. Miss Ada Patterson of Hunter River also leaves tomorrow to visit her sister, at Mossy Bay, Sask. Miss Jessie McKinnon, of Wexley River leaves on return to Winnipeg, to resume her duties as typewriter there.

During exhibition week the S. S. Harland will leave Charlottetown at 10 a. m. Monday 21st for Victoria returning the same day. She will return to Victoria again on Saturday taking back the stock, returning to Charlottetown the same evening. She will sail for West River Bridge on Thursday morning. If the weather is fine there will probably be an excursion on Wednesday during exhibition week.

James Donovan, a well known young resident of the North End, died on Tuesday, the 8th inst at his home, 273 President Avenue, Malden, Mass., after a very brief illness. Mr. Donovan was twenty-six years of age, the son of Eliza and the late Richard Donovan, and an estimable member of St. Joseph's church. He leaves a wife, who was Miss Margaret Reid before her marriage, also a mother, four sisters and two brothers—Lizzie, Mary, Katie, Annie, Francis and Joseph. (Mrs. Donovan is a daughter of John and Mrs. Reid of this city.) Another large British Fire Insurance Company, The General Accident Fire and Life Assurance Corporation of Perth, Scotland has entered the Prince Edward Island field for business and have appointed W. K. Rogers Co Limited, their general agents for the Province. The General was established in 1885 and at the close of 1907 the total reserves amounted to over $3,000,000.00 which with the subscribed capital $75,000.00 of which is paid up, provides security for the policyholders of over $6,500,000.00. This company will transact a general fire insurance business and any business entrusted to the care of their agents W. K. Rogers Co., will have the most careful attention.
