Prizes were won by Mrs. J. Gaudet, Mrs. Grennough; Mrs. Fiddle Perry and Mr. J. Henry Gaudet. Miss Elizabeth Gaudet assisted the hostess in her duties.

FUNERAL OF MR. STERNS—The funeral of the late Mr. E. D. Sterns was held yesterday at 2:30 p.m. at the Baptist Church. The pallbearers were Dr. J. A. Clark, J. P. Gordon, Dr. Yeo, Henry Calbeck, J. F. Proud and Byron Norton. The services at the church and grave were conducted by Rev. Dr. Vincent, and the Rev. H. D. Raymond. There was a large concourse of mourners.

FAREWELL GIFT TO MR. BRUCE—Mr. Arthur G. Bruce sang the solo, "One Sweetly Solenn Thought" at the evening service in the James Church yesterday, it being his last appearance before leaving next Saturday for Moncton where he will take up his work with the C. N. R. After the service the President, Mr. C. J. Callagher, on behalf of the choir presented Mr. Bruce with a valuable wrist watch. Good wishes were expressed by Rev. Mr. Legate and others for his future welfare and regret at his departure, as Mr. and Mrs. Bruce will be greatly missed in social and musical circles.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF MR. B. LINKLETTER—A very large number of citizens attended the funeral service of the late Mr. B. Linkletter and was a fitting tribute to the esteem in which he was held by all classes. The service was held at the home of his brother, Mr. T. M. Linkletter on Central Street, Summerside, and was conducted by Rev. L. B. Campbell, pastor of the United Church. The pallbearers were Messrs. Archibald, Hooper, Major James Andrew, and Brewer Linkletter and Major Townsend. Interment was in the United Cemetery at Lot 16. There were many lovely floral tributes.

THURSDAY, THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI, the pretty chapel in the Sacred Heart Home was the scene of a solemn and impressive ceremony at 9 a.m., when a number of young ladies of the province, dedicated their lives to the service of God, in the Order of the Most Holy Eucharist. His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan officiated, assisted by Rev. P. Mahan, D. D., and Rev. Louis Gaudet.

The following young ladies received the Holy Habit: Patricia Dillen, Charlottetown; Royalty Sister Mary Ursula; Edith Keefe, Charlottetown; Sister Mary Angela; Heloise Assanault, Tignish; Sister Mary Assumpta; Catherine McCreary, St. George's; Sister Mary Charles; Bernadette Connolly, St. George's; Sister Mary Magdalene.

CADET CHURCH PARADE—The annual church parade of the Kent School Cadet Corps was held yesterday at St. Peter's Church where a sermon appropriate to the occasion was preached by the Rev. Canon E. M. Malone, who took as his text the 31st verse, 18th chapter of St. Luke, "If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one should rise from the dead." After the service the cadets marched up the street, down Queen Street, and returned back to the School. On Kent Street they stood at attention while the Sons of England, headed by the Legion Band, marched past. Their credit is due the instructors, Herbert Yeo and Mr. Dan Bell, for the fine showing and the splendid appearance which the cadets presented. The following officers: Capt. Arthur Malone, Lt. Fred Shannon; Lt. Fred Shannon, Lt. Charlie Hyndman, Lt. Frank Storey, Lt. Jack Bentley, Lt. Edward Fitzgerald, Lt. Jack Ritchie, and Lt. Reginald Ferguson.

DEATH OF MR. J. STANLEY WEDLOCK—A telegram was received here yesterday announcing that Mr. Stanley Wedlock, residing in Arlington, Mass., had died at noon. Mr. Wedlock leaves to mourn a widow (nee Ethel Hillman), one daughter Winnifred (Mrs. Simons) and a son Lorne. Mr. Wedlock occupied a prominent position in the business community here for a number of years, and was at one time the largest individual owner of foxes in the world.

Two sessions of a conference of far-reaching importance to Maritime agriculture were held in the historic Confederation Chamber here on Saturday afternoon and evening by the Ministers and Deputy Ministers of Agriculture for the three Maritime Provinces. The outcome will be the presentation at the forthcoming Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa of a joint brief setting forth the export and import trade possibilities of Maritime agriculture, covering in detail such principal export products as apples and potatoes, as well as farm crops, live stock, furs, dairying, poultry products, small fruits and vegetables, canned goods, potato products, etc. The delegates were in full agreement as to the subject matter to be presented.

The committee is taking steps to insure that their recommendations after being passed on by their respective Governments will be followed up at Ottawa.

TUESDAY
TEACHER TRAINING COURSE—About sixty students of Second and Third Year Prince of Wales College have enrolled in the special teacher training course which continues for the next few weeks.

SUPREME COURT JUDGMENT—Judgment has been handed down in the Supreme Court in the case of George W. Gardner, plaintiff against Murdoch N. McLeod, defendant. This was action of damages for trespass to land and was tried before Judge Arsenault, without a jury. By the terms of the judgment, the contents of the plaintiff that the defendant had wrongly erected fences on his property, were upheld and he was awarded $50.00 damages. The defendant received damages of $5.00 on his counterclaim. R. R. Bell for plaintiff and Donald McKinnon K. C. for the defendant.

A most enjoyable recital was given in the Central Christian Church Schoolroom last evening by Miss Margaret Sterns, assisted by Misses Audrey Gillis and Louise Cox. Miss Sterns presented a delightful and unusual program, winning the undivided attention of children as well as "grown-ups." Her portrayal of "Christopher Robin," "Elizabeth Ellen, Who Should Have Been John" and the many other interesting characters revealed her own understanding of the various moods of children and made the small persons of the songs very real to her listeners. The accompaniments which were descriptive of the various songs were played in a charming manner by Miss Helen Duchemin, who deserves great commendation for her sympathetic and interpretive work.

I.O.D.E.—The regular monthly meeting of the Royal Edward Chapter I. O. D. E. was held in the rooms yesterday, Mrs. H. R. Hillson first Vice Regent presiding. The Treasurer's reports showed a splendid balance. Payment was authorized for outstanding bills for roses and percentage, rent, membership pins, and copies of the constitution. A pleasing feature of the Education report was that Miss Helen Agnew, of Miss Irving's department Prince Street School, had won the second prize in the all Canada competition for the Sara Maxwell Essay, the first going to British Columbia and third to Fredericton, N. B. Miss Agnew is to be congratulated on her success. Correspondence submitted included letters from the Head Office re work in India and British Films ready for release. From the Abergavenny Chapter Summerside, and from settlers families in gratitude for favors shown. Mrs. Goodwill asked for groups to visit Pure Milk Company in order to provide milk for Red Cross work in needy families, and several groups were formed. Provincial dates were fixed in October 17th, 18th, 19th, for the British picture sponsored by the chapter. The meeting adjourned till after the return of the Regent who is enjoying a pleasant holiday in Europe.

IN PORT—The salvage ship Foundation Franklin, Capt. C. D. Louis, arrived at Buntin and Bell's wharf yesterday morning from Ramouki, Quebec.

WELCOME NEW MEMBER—At Sunday evening's service in Zion Church Mrs. A. H. Roper rendered in her usual admirable manner a solo the beautiful hymn "Ninety and Nine." Sunday Mrs. Roper became a member of the choir, and after the evening service a reception was given in her honor at the home of Professor Thompson and Mrs. Thompson. It was attended by members of the choir, the minister and others, and a very pleasant evening was spent.

VISITING TORONTO—Rev. C. J. St. Clair Jeans, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Summerside, left on Monday morning for Toronto to attend the meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. Rev. Mr. Jeans will take his annual holiday at the same time and expects to be away for one month. Rev. Mr. Wilson, pastor of the Baptist Church, will take a service every Sunday morning in the Presbyterian Church during his absence and will hold service in his own church in the evening.

DEATH OF JOHN TRINOR OF KINKORA—The death occurred on Wednesday, May 25, at his home in Kinkora of Mr. John Trinor aged 72 years of age. The deceased was a life long resident of Kinkora and was very highly esteemed. He took an active part in every movement for the betterment of the district in which he lived, and his demise is a distinct loss to the community. There are left to cherish his memory, his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Albert McKinnon, of Newton, P. E. I., and three sons, Harold in the United States and Joseph and George P. at home, to whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral took place on Saturday morning from his late residence to the Roman Catholic Church and Cemetery at Kinkora, Rev. Dr. Smith officiating at Requiem Mass. The pallbearers were Messrs. Ernest and Emmett Hughes, Emmet A. Duffy, Patrick Creighton, Patrick McCarville and James Greenan. The service was very largely attended.

CHARLOTTETOWN MAN INJURED—Mr. J. L. Lockhart of Charlottetown, traveller for Messrs. Snook of Truro, N. S., met with a painful accident on Monday at Hunter River, when he was struck by a car as he was entering a garage. The car knocked him down, but he did not think he was seriously hurt and continued on his way, driving his car as far as Kensington. However his arm became so painful he was obliged to see a doctor who took him to the Prince County Hospital where his injuries were attended to. He remained in the hospital overnight.

WEDNESDAY
 Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dewar and family recently arrived from the West and have located at Peters Road. They are residing on the premises of Mr. John McLean, who Mr. Dewar saw service in the Great War and on his discharge settled with his family in the Middle West. A succession of crop reverses (drouth, hail, etc.) compelled Mr. Dewar and family to return to their native province. Mr. Dewar is at present engaged in the lobster factory of Mr. S. S. Butler and Co., Peters Road.

Graced by the presence of His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan, His Honor Lieutenant Governor Dallon, representatives of Parliament, of the Provincial Government, the Civic Corporation, the clergy and a large body of citizens, the 78th Commencement exercises of St. Dunstan's University were held most successfully in the Dalton Hall of the University yesterday afternoon.

Eleven students received their graduation diplomas and were addressed in an inspiring manner by His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan. Among those present were Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, Acting Premier and Minister of Health and Education; Hon. J. A. MacDonald, M. P.; Mr. W. Chester S. McLaughlin, M. P.; His Worship Mayor Stewart, and Mr. W. M. Lea, leader of the Opposition. The Rector submitted a gratifying report, showing that despite world wide economic depression the attendance of students was well maintained, while the class work was most satisfactory to the faculty. The Alumni Essay was read by James McAulay and the Valedictory by William Reddin. A vocal solo by Mr. Francis McMillan was very pleasingly rendered as were also a quartette and choruses by members of the Glee Club. Brief addresses, at the close of the exercises, were given by His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, Hon. Dr. MacMillan, Mr. Lea, Hon. Mr. MacDonald and His Worship the Mayor. The diplomas and awards were distributed by Bishop O'Sullivan.

ASSUMES NEW DUTIES—Mr. Ernest A. Large, C. N. R. ticket agent at Summerside for the past fourteen years, who has been promoted to the position of freight agent at Charlottetown, is taking over his new duties this morning. Mr. Large, who formerly belonged here, is renewing old acquaintances.

PREMIER'S INDISPOSITION—It is pleasing to learn that Premier Stewart is making steady progress towards recovery, though still confined to his room. Under doctor's orders, the Premier has had to refrain from the present from giving attention to correspondence and business matters, but hopes soon to be back in his office personally directing affairs.

RETURN FROM BOSTON—The following have just returned from Boston to spend the summer with relatives on the Island: Miss Christine Dawson, Albany; Miss Katherine McLeod, Culloden; Miss Lima McLeod, Strathcona; Miss Margaret Morrison, St. Peters Bay; Miss Marion Newton, Kingston; Miss Ethel Moore, Brookfield.

WEEKLY GYRO MEETING—Mr. C. M. Williams was chairman at the regular weekly gyro meeting held last evening in the Canadian National Hotel. One new member, Mr. Walter Amy, was inducted by the President, Mr. Stewart Jones. It was decided that the Club would defray the expenses of one entrant from the Province in the Halifax Herald modified marathon. The guests were: Rev. A. E. Murray, Messrs. Robert Holman and A. K. McInnis.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nicholas McKarus and Miss Helen McKarus of Toledo, Ohio. They are visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. N. Tweel, Elm Avenue. The party came by car arriving here on Monday, having left Toledo on Thursday. The tour via Montreal, Quebec and Fredericton was partly spoiled by a continuous fall of rain all the time. The roads were good up till Quebec, but through New Brunswick they were soft and muddy. It is the intention of Mr. McKarus and party to return by a different route. They are very much impressed by the beauty of Charlottetown, one of the best cities they have seen on their trip.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet wedding was solemnized in St. Mary's Church, Summerside, on Wednesday morning at 7:30. Rev. Dr. McLeellan celebrating the Nuptial Mass. The contracting parties were Miss Vera Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morrison of Summerside and Leonard Morrison of Egmont Bay. The bride was very winsome in pale blue silk and hat and coat to match. Attending the bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. McNally of Egmont Bay. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home at which were the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. McNally have the best wishes of a host of friends for their future happiness.

DEATH OF MRS. MAY MCKAY—The death occurred at Bradalbane on Monday at 6:30 p. m., May 30th, of Mrs. May McKay, widow of the late J. Gordon McKay, who passed away just ten months ago on a Monday at 6:30. Mrs. McKay was 66 years of age and was very highly esteemed by a large circle of friends, who will regret to learn of her passing. There are left to mourn three sons, Louis of Summerside and Ralph and Allen at home; also one brother, Mr. John Harding, of Summerside and three sisters, Mrs. John E. Sinclair of Margate and Mrs. Frank Marks of Clifton to all of whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon from the United Church at Bradalbane. Interment was in the cemetery at Clinton.

PRETTY WEDDING—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Church parsonage, Summerside, on Wednesday afternoon, when Rev. L. B. Campbell united in marriage Miss Ruby E. Lord, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lord of Tryon to Mr. D. Lorne Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Campbell of O'Leary. The bride was very charming in a georgette dress of independence blue with hat to match. Her sister, Miss Bertha, was bridesmaid and wore a dress of Spanish blue with hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Wallace Bradshaw. The happy young couple left immediately after the ceremony for a honeymoon trip to the Maritime Provinces. The bride, travelling in a flowered trimmed dress with blue coat trimmed with squirrel, with hat and accessories to match. Mrs. Campbell has been a valued employee of Messrs. R. T. Holman, Ltd., for some time and before leaving there a week or two ago, was tendered a shower by the staff. Mr. Campbell, who is the cashier at Holman's, has the best wishes of his employers and associates for his future happiness. Both bride and groom are very highly esteemed and the Guardian joins their many friends in wishing them the best of luck. Upon their return they will reside in Summerside.

WEATHER FORECAST—The forecast for June is: 1 to 4 first week ends wet; 5 to 11, fine and becoming warmer; 12 to 18, warm spell followed by wind and rain; 19 to 25, becomes fine and warm this week; 26 to 30, the month ends very warm.

SLIGHT BLAZE—The firemen were called out about 9 o'clock last night in response to an alarm sent in from 245 Grafton Street. A slight blaze found in a patch in the roof, was quickly extinguished by removing the shingles, and by use of a chemical.

WELCOME VISITOR—Mr. W. T. White, who recently accepted superannuation from the North Sydney office of the Western Union Cable system where he had been Superintendent for many years, is visiting his daughter Mrs. J. Parker Hooper. Mr. White expects to stay in the city for several months before beginning an extensive tour to various parts of the world.

WELL KNOWN GRADUATES—Among the graduates winning the degree Bachelor of Arts at the convocation of Brandon College on May 23rd, was Mayme M. Matthews, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Matthews, formerly of Charlottetown, and George T. Eaton, eldest son of E. Scott Eaton, formerly associated with the Union Commercial College.

A SPECIALIST—The Guardian had a pleasant call yesterday from Mrs. John McAulay, 198 Kent St., who had with her two plants a red pepper and a rice plant which she grew from seed. The pepper on the short vine was large and almost ripe although only planted in December. The rice plant, planted in March, was flourishing and showed every evidence of early flowering. Mrs. McAulay has had great success with all kinds of flowers but makes a specialty of planting from seed, orange, lemon, peach, etc. and has met with great success in her endeavors.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT—Late yesterday afternoon a regrettable accident occurred when a car proceeding across the intersection of George and Kent Street inadvertently struck and ran over a young lad, Johnny Blanchard, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blanchard, City, who, it appears, had run directly in the path of the car. The little lad was taken immediately to the Charlottetown Hospital where he was found to be suffering from a fractured right leg and minor bruises. At a late hour last night he was reported to be resting comfortably.

DR. A. L. McDONALD TENDERED RECEPTION—Members of the Baptist Choir and Sunday School Class with which Dr. A. L. McDonald of Summerside was associated, tendered him a farewell reception at the Baptist Parsonage on Monday evening. He was presented with a Masonic Ring by Mr. C. B. Jelly on behalf of those present and Dr. Leard read an address in which was expressed the sincere regret of not only his Sunday School class and the choir, but all members of the congregation, at his departure from their midst. Dr. McDonald responded in a few words and said that he would always have pleasant memories of his sojourn in Summerside. A pleasant social evening was enjoyed and refreshments served by Mrs. Jack McLeod, assisted by members of the choir. Dr. and Mrs. McDonald with their little daughter, Miss June, leave this morning for Nova Scotia, where they will visit Dr. McDonald's home, before going to Brandon, Manitoba. Dr. McDonald has sold his residence on Spring Street to Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C. Both he and Mrs. McDonald will be much missed by the social set in Summerside among whom they had made many friends. The doctor was a member of the Summerside Rifle Club and he brought many laurels to the club as he was one of the best shots in the Maritime Provinces. The best wishes of Summerside friends are extended to Dr. and Mrs. McDonald in their new sphere.

PROGRESSING SATISFACTORILY—The young lad, Johnny Blanchard, who had met with a painful accident on Tuesday is progressing satisfactorily and is on the road to recovery.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY—Mrs. Artemas Lord, one of Charlottetown's grand old ladies, who is loved by young and old, is today celebrating her 87th birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wilfrid Wright, 12 Kent Street. Mrs. Lord's friends are legion and they will heartily join with The Guardian in extending to this venerable lady many happy returns of the day.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nicholas McKarus and Miss Helen McKarus of Toledo, Ohio. They are visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. N. Tweel, Elm Avenue. The party came by car arriving here on Monday, having left Toledo on Thursday. It is the intention of Mr. McKarus and party to return by a different route. They are very much impressed by the beauty of Charlottetown, one of the best cities they have seen on their trip.

RECEPTION—At the "Manse" Marshfield on Tuesday evening, May 24th, a social gathering of the members of the Presbyterian Church was held. The occasion being to welcome to the community and church, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Duff Jr. and Mrs. Duff Jr. who recently moved from Highfield to their new home at Marshfield having purchased the Chapel farm, also Mr. and Mrs. MacArthur of Moncton who recently purchased the Pendleton chicken farm at Suffolk. The evening was spent informally, with interesting chats on farming, chicken raising and various neighborhood topics. "Gen. Depression" soon led a hasty retreat while "Gen. Hope" for the future led the van. The hostess of the Manse, Mrs. Dr. Genge assisted by the ladies of the church supplied the refreshments a la Marshfield style, and a real old cup of tea, Chinese in quality, but with a real Scotch flavor the beverage par excellence. Dr. Genge gave a few welcoming words expressing hearty wishes for the welfare and prosperity of the newcomers. "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" was heartily sung and fond adieus ushered in the midnight hour.

WEDDING BELLS—St. Joseph's Church, Kelly's Cross was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on the morning of May 28th, when Miss Johanna eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. McLaughy was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Francis Edward Malone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Malone, Green Bay. The charming young bride was becomingly attired in blue flat crepe with picture hat, and the proper accessories to match. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Lillian McMurrer who wore blue crepe with hat to match. Mr. Patrick Malone, brother of the groom ably assisted him. After the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Clarence Pitre, P. P., the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous wedding breakfast awaited them. In the afternoon they motored to Charlottetown returning in the evening to the bride's home. A well behaved crowd of chivalrous arrived. Dancing was indulged in until the wee small hours. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful white gold wrist watch and to the bridesmaid a prayer book. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at which she received many useful and valuable gifts showing the high esteem in which she is held. They intend residing in Riverdale where the groom is a prosperous young farmer. Their friends wish Mr. Malone and his bride many happy years of wedded bliss.
