ALWAYS CONSULT THE PHONE DIRECTORY.

Almost every day The Guardian receives orders by mail to insert news matter of an advertising nature. In most of these cases the senders, who are frequently not known to any member of the staff and who have no account in the advertising department, write "Please insert the following and oblige," thus apparent, will be inserted free. Only a few weeks ago a reader wrote asking that his advertisement of Farm for Sale be inserted from day to day until he cancelled it, as he is a subscriber to The Guardian. In this connection it may be said that the subscription price is not sufficient to even pay the actual cost of paper, ink, presswork, mailing, bookkeeping and other expenses of the Circulation department proper, and thus subscribers have no privileges of free advertisement and are on the same footing as non subscribers. Seldom ever does the sender state whether the item is to appear in the Morning Daily or in the Evening Daily, whether for one or more times in either Daily, or in both, whether as a display advertisement, announcement, business local, classified, ad or otherwise. When for church or charitable purposes they seldom ever say so, or do not enclose sufficient money to pay for same, all of which will be returned by first mail in the event of the item not being chargeable, or if more money is sent than necessary to pay for the item the surplus will be returned at once, there being a greater discount for cash with order for advertising of churches etc than for regular business. In all such cases the Advertising department communicates with the sender as quickly as possible by mail or phone, often paying the messenger service to get them to the telephone if not too far distant, thus saving all possible time. People write this office to know if News, Letters to Editors, etc., are charged for, and to all such there is but one reply—all items, etc. of a money making nature, even though they be somewhat of a new nature, are chargeable. For instance, the advance notice or notices of a concert, lecture, pie social, picnic, etc. are chargeable if there is an admission fee, silver collection, sale of pies or sale of food or refreshments, etc. Advance notices of purely religious services, even though a silver collection is to be taken up, are not chargeable. The particulars of any of the above, after they have been held, are, however, news and thus not chargeable. The news of the past, present or future business, which is still being conducted, is chargeable, if it is apparent that the object is to make the business more widely known and thus increase it. Versus accompanying death notices are also chargeable. Even items which are actual news and not chargeable but once in either Morning Daily or Evening Daily or both are chargeable for more than one insertion, as they are thus not news

The above facts are given for the purpose of assisting persons who have items, etc. to mail to this office, so that delay and disappointment will be avoided.

LATEST FROM THEATRES

PROCTOR'S 125TH ST. THEATRE.

Novelties truly extraordinary predominate on the bill of attractions at F. F. Proctor's 125th Street Theatre for the first half of the week. Mr. Eugene O'Rourke one of the most versatile comedians will present for the first time on any stage, a big novelty, entitled "Humanity" in which he will be assisted by Nellie Eltinge and a big company. Others that will help make up a gala program are Sol Fields and company in a tabloid musical comedy from "The Honey-mooners"; Edmund Hayes Players in that laughing classic "The Wise Guy"; Adams and Schaefer, German comedians; Burt and Malvine, comedy skit; Guy Dailley and company in a tank novelty; Mal Family, aerial artists; Harry Le Clair, the old time comedian; Emilie Egner, comedienne; John Keese, monologist; Two Throwing Favours, club jugglers and new Kinemacolor subjects.

PROCTOR'S 58TH ST. THEATRE.

A bill of interesting offerings headed by Tom Kyle and company in the dramatic heart throb "Big Hearted Grogan" will hold forth for the first half of the week. Others sure to please are Kennedy and Kramer, black face singers and dancers; Harry Rose, comedian; Myrtle and Daisy, two singing girls; Miska and Miller, musical novelty; Nip and Tuck, acrobats; Kinemacolor and black and white photo plays.

PROCTOR'S 23RD ST. THEATRE.

A program of laughter has been arranged for the first half of the week headed by Lew Welch and company in "Levinson's Old Shoes," a comedy classic. Others who will help make merry are Nina Payne, dancing comedienne; Musical Vinos, instrumentalists; Fred Hilderbrandt, comicallities of class; Armita and Bro., contortionists; Marina and Wood, comedians; The Harringtons, adler comedies; Kinemacolor and black and white photo plays which are changed daily.

PROCTOR'S 5TH AVE. THEATRE.

The regular fall and winter season begins at Proctor's 5th Avenue Theatre on August 11th and the bill engaged is one of sterling supremacy, every act being a true and tried favorite. Interest will centre chiefly in the farwell vaudeville appearances of those precocious juveniles, Felix and Cairo, who are about to be starred in musical comedy. Their offering will be the ambitious bit of protean funmaking, singing and dancing, entitled, "Then and Now," in reality a miniature revue. Three other excellent features of the program are Frank Keenan's Players in "The Get-a-Way," a new underworld play by Dennis J. Shea; Harry Linton and Anita Laurence, a graceful singing and dancing pair, and J. Francis Dooley and Corinne Sayles in eccentric comedy.

Others scheduled for positive appearance are Five Arminas, operatic quintette; Danny Simmons, a newcomer in vaudeville and a cracking good comedian; Matilda and Elvira, Spanish dancers; Barto and Clark, gloom chasers; Will and Kemp in acrobatic nonsense and Three Bartos, in heart-stopping feats of athletic skill.

AT B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE, BOSTON.

"The Woman Who Passed By," a new dramatic comedy by Vincent A. Lawrence, the rising young Boston playwright, will be presented for the first time on the stage at B. F. Keith's Theatre next week. Mr. Lawrence, who is prominent in social and club circles in Boston, is the son of Frank W. Lawrence and one of the most promising of the younger generations of dramatists. "The Woman Who Passed By" is the first of his works to be produced by professionals. The story of the playlet is in itself a novelty, dealing with the events of a single evening in a man's life. For the presentation of this play there has been engaged what is unquestionably the strongest and best balanced cast ever engaged for a one-act play in vaudeville. Frank Munros, the famous Detective Boyle of "Alias Jimmy Valentine," will have the role of a sleuth in "The Woman Who Passed By," while the part of the millionaire is played by the world, who at least meets the woman of his dreams, will be played by Earle Ryder, late of the New York production of "Joseph and His Brethren" at the Century Theatre, George Ernst, until recently member of the Eleanor Gordon Players, will have another important role, and Miss Lillian Niederauer, one of the most beautiful and accomplished young actresses in Boston, will play "The Woman." This Novelty will be surrounded by an excellent vaudeville bill. Among the features are Josephine Dunfee, the musical comedy favorite, in a repertoire of popular songs. The Gliding O'Mearas, society's latest dancing sensation, in a repertoire of original dances; Spencer & Williams, "That Natty Pair," in songs and dances; Rice, Sully & Scott, in fun on the trampoline and horizontal bars; and many other features as yet unannounced.

PARIS, Aug. 6 (Special).—It is now definitely stated that French bronze coinage will very shortly be withdrawn and replaced by small nickel 25-centime pieces. A further new departure will be made by the French Mint, which at the same time will issue 21-centime pieces, also a nickel corresponding to the English farthing.
