SERBS STILL ADVANCE

Smash Bulgarians Aided by the Germans.

Victors Made Advance of Eighteen Miles in One Day and Are Now Within Four Miles of Uskub-Salonica Railroad—May Cut Off Supplies From Enemy Forces.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Serbian troops pressing the Bulgarians and Germans in Central Macedonia advanced more than 20 kilometres on Friday and are now within four miles of the Uskub-Salonica railroad, the main artery for the supply of the Austro-German and Bulgarian forces opposing the British and Greek armies on the Serbian right.

An official despatch from Serbian general headquarters at Salonica received yesterday by the Serbian legation said the Serbians captured 16 villages and 12 guns and now are several kilometres to the north of the village of Kavadar. Fresh Bulgarian and German troops are arriving continually to reinforce the enemy lines.

In conjunction with the general Entente allied offensive against the Teuton and Bulgarian forces in Macedonia, Italian troops Saturday began a vigorous advance in the bend of the River Corina, to the east of Monastir. The official statement issued yesterday by the Italian War Office says that the front enemy positions were captured.

Cutting of the Uskub-Salonica railroad, it was said here officially yesterday, will force the retirement of the enemy left wing, and cause a general readjustment of the enemy line in this entire section.

"We advanced more than 20 kilometres towards the north," said the Serbian official statement. "Our troops are several kilometres to the north of Kavadar. In addition to this town we have liberated another fifteen villages. Twelve guns have been taken by our cavalry."

"Fresh Bulgarian and German troops are arriving continually to reinforce the enemy lines. During the retreat the Bulgarians set fire to the villages and plundered all that remained to the poverty-stricken population, thus treating them as enemies in spite of the claims of the Sofia Government that this population is not Serbian but Bulgarian."

Saturday's Serbian official said: "Our indefatigable troops continued to advance and have fought northward in one day more than nine miles. The infantry has passed the line Krnovo-Strigovo-Drogoj-Poshko. The cavalry is north of this line. More than ten villages were liberated in one day. In the bend of the Cerna we have taken the village of Godiyak. Aviators continuously bombard the retreating troops and attack them with machine guns."

"We have taken a great number of prisoners, including a lieutenant-colonel. Several guns are reported to have been captured, but the number has not been ascertained owing to the speed of our advance."

"The population is welcoming the arrival of our troops with enthusiasm. The soldiers of New Serbia who have been forced to enlist in the Bulgarian army are abandoning their arms and passing to our side."

UNREST IN GERMANY.

Signs That Political Crisis Will Occur Shortly.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 21.—That the political crisis in Germany, the intensification of which in the last few weeks has been plainly indicated in various ways, is rapidly coming to a head, appears to be evidenced by the uncertain supply of news from that country in the last twenty-four hours.

The clerical organ Germania publishes an article declaring in favor of a Parliamentary Government. It says that the majority parties strongly favor such reforms as can give the people and their representatives greater influence in shaping foreign policies.

"In the course of this war," it says, "nearly all have become united; the people are better guardians of peace and of agreements than secret diplomacy, and the people who must shed their blood can justifiably demand the right to participate in the most important acts of the state."

Germania expresses the belief that a Parliamentary Government can be formed with Count von Hertling at its head.

As further evidence of the changing sentiment in Germany the recent action of the National Liberals in endorsing the speech of the Vice-Chancellor, Frederick von Payer, may be recalled. While this in itself does not mean the conversion of this party to parliamentarism, it is taken to indicate at least that the majority of the party have abandoned the annexationist standpoint.

The party's attitude regarding the Reichstag peace resolution of July, 1917, will be taken up Monday.

Mets Will Be Spared.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—Both German and American lines south of Metz have now been well stabilized. Occasional clashes have occurred between outposts, but for the present neither side is making any serious efforts to alter its position.

NEARING ST. QUENTIN.

British and French Forces Both Make Progress.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Allied troops are progressing satisfactorily in breaking down the defences of St. Quentin. On the north the British are fighting in the Hindenburg positions and pressing toward the canal between St. Quentin and Cambrai, while on the south the French are moving forward steadily.

For a stretch of more than ten miles north of St. Quentin the British now hold the dominating hills. English troops attacked the German lines midway between Cambrai and St. Quentin Saturday on a front of from 2 1/2 to three miles.

Field Marshal Haig's thrust was made towards the strip of high ground in front of the Hindenburg defences which cover the Scheidt Canal. Progress was made east of Epehy and near Hargicourt.

Heavy counter-attacks were delivered by the Germans between Vendhuile and Bellecourt against the English battalions.

The British yielded part of their gains at some places, but a net advance of a quarter of a mile in depth was made and numerous machine-gun redoubts have been stormed. More than 400 prisoners were taken.

The local action of Saturday was probably for the purpose of further improving the situation in anticipation of a great assault against the Hindenburg line.

The main enemy defences in the region between Cambrai and St. Quentin, both of which are threatened by the present British operations, are based on the canal, highway and railroad running north and south on an average of about two miles from Field Marshal Haig's front line.

Toward Le Cateau the British are pressing eastward on a front of three miles and are within four miles of the town, one of the important German bases on this front.

With the Austrians already in the Hindenburg positions, other British forces are rapidly overrunning them north of Hargicourt. West of St. Quentin the French are within two miles of the outskirts, while on the south they are forcing the Germans to give up important villages and other positions.

St. Quentin, as a result of the week's operations, is in a more serious position from the enemy viewpoint than probably at any time since the beginning of the war. A further push eastward by the British from their newly won height positions on the northwest will virtually place the Allies on three sides of the town.

TO AID THE RUSSIANS.

Washington Endeavors to Line Up World Against Bolsheviki.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—In an effort to align the civilized world against the terrorism in Russia under Bolsheviki rule the United States Government has requested its Ambassadors and its Ministers in neutral as well as Allied countries to ascertain whether the Governments to which they are accredited will join in some immediate action to "impress upon the perpetrators of these crimes the aversion with which civilization regards their present wanton acts."

The proposal is to take steps entirely separate from the conduct of the war; that all civilized nations register their abhorrence of such barbarism.

The message to the diplomats says this Government is informed that the peaceable Russian citizens of Petrograd, Moscow and other citizens are suffering from an openly avowed campaign of terror, that thousands of persons have been shot without even a form of trial, and that ill-administered prisons are filled beyond capacity.

Great Britain and France, having virtually declared the Bolsheviki outlaws, will not be interrogated, but have been advised by cable of the action of the American Government.

It is made plain that the United States is acting solely in the interest of the Russian people themselves, and to aid them in reconstructing their nation upon principles of the democracy and self-government.

Food Riots Continue.

ZURICH, Switzerland, Sept. 21.—Serious food riots continue at Salzburg, according to Munich papers. Rioters attacked the Government palace and broke down the doors, whereupon the gendarmes fired, killing or wounding several.

THE ARMY'S REPLY TO STRIKERS.
This British official photograph is quite timely in view of the serious railway strikes in England and the shipyard strikes in Scotland. The British army never goes on strike. The legend on the gun is a striking rebuke to some folks at home.

Mother is Well Now

Your Noise Does Not Disturb Me Any More—It is a Pleasure to Hear You Romp and Play.

"It is like a dream now to think of the long, weary months I spent in nervous helplessness. Some days I would be cheered by feeling better, but only to slip back again, and to be more than ever discouraged."

"I had always been very active. Had a wide acquaintance and did much entertaining. In addition to helping in whatever was going on at the church, there was Red Cross work to be done, and all the time I had my little family to look after and could not get help."

"I suppose I tried to do too much, for I got so I could not sleep at nights and always felt tired out in the mornings. Then I would have headaches and did not seem to care for my meals."

"Instead of the usual ambition and energy I found myself putting off the duties of the day. I got behind with the housework, and this worried me."

"I did not think that I was sick, but I was tired. However, the time came when I did not get up in the morning. I simply did not. The doctor came and said, 'Nervous Prostration.' It seems I had been on the go until the nervous system was as dry of all nerve force."

"I had come the long, weary weeks, and weeks dragged into months, without finding much improvement. I was completely discouraged and almost devoid of hope."

"But one day a friend told me of her experience with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and she was so sure that this treatment would do me good that I decided to give it a chance."

"I need scarcely say that there were some dark, discouraging days after beginning the use of the Nerve Food, but as my appetite and digestion improved I felt that I was gradually getting back the old-time vigor. Sleep became more natural and refreshing. The dark days passed and I began to take a more cheerful view of the future. Then I began to plan what I would do when I got around again. The house must be decorated and the children brought home, for I had to send them to my sister's on account of the way their noise disturbed me."

"Now I feel that I am entirely well again, and without hesitation give the credit to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I cannot tell you the pleasure it gives me to be restored to my husband and children after the long period of helplessness."
