ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

Mr. Patrick McCloskey, of the P. E. I. Railway, who is retiring on a pension allowance, was recently presented by his fellow employees, with a purse and the following address:
Charlottetown, P. E. I.,
March 22nd, 1916
Mr. Patrick McCloskey,
City.

Dear Sir: We, the employees of the Mechanical Department of the Prince Edward Island Railway, have learned that you have decided to retire on the pension allowance after a long and faithful service of over a quarter of a century.
We feel it a duty we owe you to say that this news fills us with profound regret, as all through the years you have been associated with us we can truthfully say that we have all served you straight forward, conscientious, obliging and ever ready to help in whatever capacity your services and advice were required. Your many other noble qualities of heart and mind will long be remembered, not only by the employees of the department, but by the employees of the other departments who have had the pleasure of your acquaintance. The allowance made by the Government for long and faithful service is deservedly yours, as you have earned it in every respect by your strict devotion to the service of the Railway.
In bidding you "Good-bye" we ask you to accept the accompanying purse as a slight token of the esteem in which you are held, and no matter where your lot may be cast in the future, you can rest assured that you have the respect and admiration of the employees of the Prince Edward Island Railway.
Signed on behalf of the employees in the Mechanical Department,
Mr. McCloskey, although taken by surprise, replied very feelingly, thanking the boys for their kindness and assuring them that he would always remember the many happy days they spent together as co-workers on the Island Railway.

Quickest, Surest Cough Remedy is Home-Made
Easily Prepared in a Few Minutes. Cheap but Unquestioned.

Some people are constantly annoyed from one year's end to the other with a persistent bronchial cough, which is wholly unnecessary. Here is a home-made remedy that gets right at the cause and will make you wonder what became of it. Get 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any druggist, pour into a 16-ounce bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking it once. Gradually but surely you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether, thus ending a cough that you never thought would end. It also loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals the inflammation in a painful cough with remarkable rapidity. Ordinary coughs are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, winter coughs and bronchial asthma. This Pinex and Sugar Syrup mixture makes 16 ounces—enough to last a family a long time—at a cost of only 64 cents. Keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant. Easily prepared. Full directions with Pinex. Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quinine, and is famous the world over for its ease, certainty and promptness in overcoming bad coughs, chest and throat colds.
Get the genuine. Ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces Pinex," and do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Gin Pills

FOR THE KIDNEYS
How They Work

VICTORIA, B.C.
For several years I have been troubled with Kidney and Bladder Trouble caused by uric acid and the pelvis caused by the intermittent stoppage of urine was very severe. For this I was taking something or other continually with but little or no relief. At last a friend handed me a sample package of your Gin Pills. The contents of this sample gave me relief that I had not experienced in a long time. Since then I have been taking Gin Pills occasionally and have had no return of my former trouble. (Name on request).
The above letter is from a popular and well-known commercial man in Victoria.
Gin Pills are 25c a box or six boxes for $2.50 at all druggists. Sample sent free if requested.

In several letters that I have received from home questions were asked as to what is the best thing to do to help the soldiers, apparently as if they

BOYS IN TRENCHES AID THE RED CROSS

Mr. W. W. McPhee received an interesting letter from J. K. Lacey one of the Island boys at the front who wrote a poem "An Empire's Heroine" which appeared first in the "Iodine Chronicle" and was recently published in "The Guardian" part of the letter follows:
I was quite surprised when someone sent me that particular copy of "The Guardian" which made reference to the "Iodine Chronicle" a little paper published by our unit. It was without my knowledge that The Guardian got hold of it. I will send you a copy of the next issue of the "I. C." You know our printing has to be done under difficulties and consequently we cannot just count on any particular day for our publications. You will probably think I am exaggerating when I tell you that one copy of the "Iodine Chronicle" sold in Ireland for a sum of money equal to thirty-eight Canadian Dollars nevertheless it is a fact of our unit. I was sold at a Patriotic Auction. So you see that even the men in the field contribute in different ways to the Patriotic Fund. Another case is when one of the fellows of our unit went over to England recently on a light days pass and while there he procured some kind of a party realizing a large sum of money which he handed over to the Red Cross Society. This all goes to show that there are a great many ways in which our men can help along in this time when so much help is needed. We should consider it our duty to render whatever assistance that our respective circumstances will in anyway permit, to help out in this struggle to maintain the very existence of our God-given Rights—a course which has cost the Empire such enormous quantities of Blood and Treasure in the days that are past. While I am writing this I felt not for one moment of our Fraternity Circle lost one of its members.

FRENCH WOMEN WOULD FIGHT

It would appear that Paris has its Home Guard of Women dressed something like our own, according to the French papers. Only the Parisian women want to take part in the war. They want to be allowed to go and fight the Germans. Recently the French Chamber of Deputies had a charming little invasion. A half dozen young persons, like a part of a regiment, filed into the hall. They were in uniform, very short petticoats, closely fitting coats very much cut up as to the tails, gaiters that went almost to the knees. On each head was a broad-brimmed soft felt hat neatly tucked up on one side. Each carried in her hand a small switch and divers kinds of leather belts sustained a variety of money felt that all the parcels and things of that sort they were sending over here were not of much importance. Now the people at home do not know just how much good they are doing, but if they could only see what comfort these little gifts do afford and how much more cheerful they make one feel they would then realize how they are making their influence felt right in the immediate zone of hostilities and the great part they are playing in the affairs that have to be dealt with out here. I am enclosing a clipping from the London Daily Express. It is written by Mrs. Stuart Menzies and gives a typical description of what the soldiers most need. It could not be written more perfectly by a soldier himself and I think if all or part of it was copied by the Charlottetown papers it would be of great value to any one wishing to send things to friends out here and find it difficult in choosing the most acceptable and useful articles for a soldier.

Artistic Wall Decorations Splendid Range Now Ready

Handsome—really decorative wall papers are not so much a matter of price—as a matter of taste. And there's no individual consideration about your home that calls for careful choosing as Wall Paper does. The size of the room. The lighting of the room. The location—the shape—the height—every one of these things needs consideration in choosing a paper that will be truly decorative. Our wall paper men have been at this very thing for nearly twenty years. They have studied the matter from every point of view. And they're ready to advise you wisely.

The new wall papers are in. There are papers for halls—for parlours for dining rooms—for bedrooms—for the library—for the den. And every paper is a well chosen—tasteful artistic one. The largest selection in P. E. I.—and the lowest prices in P. E. I.

pouches. The papers say that at a distance one would have taken them to be Boy Scouts with particularly small feet. A nearer view showed they were women, each with a serious and martial air. One could not have hesitated to say that they were Canadian or Australian led hither by a spirit of adventure. Not at all. They were Frenchwomen, beautiful and good, who desired to take part in the war, to serve their country as combatants. Their proceeding had no success except to excite curiosity. The deputies to whom they had sent their names and made known the object of their visit told them that no provision had been made for such service. The captain, beautiful brunette that she was, voiced her disappointment quite loudly "If they don't want to go," she said, "we will go, and we'll show them that we know what to do. We are 20,000 ready to march as one man!"
