Y. M. C. A. Work at the Front.

Sir—I notice in a recent issue of THE GUARDIAN a clipping from the Halifax Herald in reference to the Y. M. C. A. Secretary who has gone with the Canadian troops to the Transvaal.

The sum of $2000, is needed to meet the expense of equipment and salary. This amount has to be raised entirely by voluntary contributions.

Trusting that many of our people will gladly help in this.

Truly yours GEORGE IRVING, McGill University Y. M. C. A. Montreal, Nov. 15th.

CANOE COVE NOTES.—The work of the present year is now almost done and the tired people calmly await the arrival of stern winter.

Mr. William McLean, Canoe Cove, makes known his intentions of departing to what he considers a more congenial climate.

On Wednesday night, the 10th inst., a large number of his young friends met with him, at the hospitable home of Mrs. Sarah McLean.

The night, notwithstanding the sadness over the departing friend, was one of happiness, the genial hostess doing all in her power to help her young guests to fully enjoy themselves.

All night long they talked, laughed, danced and sang, till far too soon the clock told the tale.

Toasts were given; "Auld Laog Lyne," sung; and the whole company departed for their homes.

A Popularity That Increases With mighty Strides.

Diamond Dyes First in all Points That make Perfection.

Notwithstanding the fact that imitation and crude package dyes and soap-grease dyes are before the public seeking recognition, the fame and popularity of the Diamond Dyes increases with mighty strides.

Those who have the misfortune to try any of the inferior dyes sold by some dealers know well how deceptive they prove. The users are utterly disappointed and disheartened.

The Diamond Dyes, simple and easy to use, have a standard of excellence that no others can approach.

Do not be deceived by any dealer when he offers you something equal as good as the Diamond Dyes. There are no other dyes in the world that can so successfully make old things new.
