Dry Feet at Small Cost

Our prices on really high class rubbers are no higher than those asked for inferior goods called "best, superior, excellent" etc by some dealers. We carry lines that have been proved by actual wear and experience to be the best made. They wear longer, keep proper shape and protect your feet longer than any other lines made because they are built of the very best quality materials that can be secured. They are made to wear, and because they fulfil this object to the letter they are popular and sell rapidly.

We know if you just see our line and compare prices you'll soon understand that our showing is made up of selections from the best of Canada's leading factories.

Call in today and see our stock.

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

It pays to buy in this Province.

No one should forget the Wood sale today at Roy Mason's Bunbury at 1 p.m.

Ernest J. McWilliams, Flat River, has entered the Charlottetown Business College.

W. F. Tidmarsh, city, was a passenger returning on the Northumberland Saturday afternoon.

Attention is drawn to the annual statement of The Bank of Montreal, which appears in this issue.

Theo. Lantz, steward of the S. S. Minto, was a passenger to the city on the Northumberland Saturday afternoon.

Miss Mabel McKinnon, Charlottetown Business College, leaves this afternoon on a short visit to her home in Pinette.

The children should save up their pennies for the Dutch mill at St. Paul's schoolroom next Thursday. There will be lots of fun.

The S. S. Northumberland arrived into this port at 5.15 Saturday afternoon. Among the passengers were L. J. and Mrs. Reddin and little daughter, also Miss England, trained nurse.

The western mail train arrived in this city at 9.50 Saturday evening, being on time. With the exception of the Murray Harbour train which was a quarter of an hour late, all inward trains on Saturday were on time.

It is doubtful if any woman who ever lived was as beautiful as Mary Stuart, and certainly no woman who ever lived had such a fatality attending her, for any man who ever loved her, and there were many, met a violent death. All should hear of her loves and of her lovers at St. James' Hall on Nov. 24th.

Alex Horne of this city received a telegram Saturday of the death of Edmund J. Bryenton, son of Mrs. Sarah Bryenton, Brackley Point Road, and now residing in Auburn, Mass. The deceased was widely known in this Province and was married to Millena Bryenton, daughter of the late Wm. Bryenton, Brackley Point Road, aged 32 years.

For eighteen years Mary Queen of Scots was the prisoner of Elizabeth, and it was during this confinement, which extended for almost half of her life, and that is without a parallel in history, that the fair Mary exhibited the noble traits of her character that stamp her one of the most interesting figures of the Sixteenth Century. Major Bartlett will lecture on this subject in St. James' Hall, Thursday, the 24th.

Elsewhere in this issue shippers of smelts and eels will find the ad of J. Edmund Treakle, 20 Fulton Market, New York, who solicits consignments in this Province. Mr. Treakle, who is a hustling business man, was for fifteen yeras with B. D. Luce & Co., as salesman and when they went out of business, opened up for himself and is now justly popular with the buying public as his long experience deserves. The best of business references are offered and daily returns made as will be seen by his ad.

R. W. Sandiford, wholesale commission fish dealer at 38 Fulton Market, New York, whose ad appears elsewhere, has been established forty years since 1870. The firm prides itself on its up-to-date business methods and solicits from Prince Edward Island shippers of smelts and eels consignments for which they will make quick returns at the best market prices. A trial order will mean prompt sale for the Provincial shipper, as Mr. Sandiford has a large trade looking for the first class article as shipped from this Province and for which they are prepared to pay high prices.

Inspector McCormac's educational column in the Weekly Globe is one of the most valuable departments in that enterprising and widely circulated newspaper. His articles under the title "Education for Farm Life" have attracted wide spread attention among both teachers and parents throughout the Dominion. Whether or not Agriculture can be successfully taught in the rural schools is at present a live question in educational circles. Mr McCormac claims that the subject can be handled successfully in such schools and has outlined methods which have worked out well in practice, it seems, for a recent number of the Globe says that there is an overwhelming demand from teachers for more of Mr McCornac's articles on "Education for Farm Life."

::The doctor's advice—After diagnosing a case and giving a prescription the doctor's skill, without your medicines are fresh and pure, is futile. When you get your prescription dispensed at the Central Drugstore, it is a guarantee that you get just what the doctor ordered, and of the very best quality. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside.

Miss Jean Gillespie, Carleton, was in the City on Saturday.

Granville, P. E. I., has contributed $40. to the Campbellton Rebuilding Fund.

For 20c. on Thursday, everyone can hear all about Mary Queen of Scots in St. James' Hall.

One drunk, James McIsaac, was fined four dollars at the police court in this City on Saturday morning.

Rev. H. E. Thomas, City, is recuperating at his old home in St. John after his tedious illness of typhoid fever.

Norman A. Currie, Inspector of Steamboats, Halifax, was a passenger to the city on the Northumberland Saturday afternoon.

The lecture in St. James' Hall Thursday, the 24th, by Major Bartlett, will only cost 20c., and will help the Y. M. L. A..

The last sailing of the Plant Line direct to Boston from this port will be on Tuesday Nov. 29th, as will be seen by the ad elsewhere.

J. F. Stover with his helpers, who have been boring at Miminigash for some months past, have finished their work and brought their plant to Summerside, where it is being shipped on board the schooner Malabar for Moncton.

The heads of families will be interested to know that Santa Claus has deposited eight hundred dolls with A. N. McKay, Sunnyside, which range in price from five cents to four dollars and fifty cents. The handsome dolls will instantly appeal and a quick sale is anticipated. The adv. appears elsewhere.

The S. S. Harland will leave today for Orwell at 1 p. m., calling at China Point and Halliday's Wharf. She will return Tuesday morning, being due at 9.45 and will sail again at 2, p. m., calling at the same places and returning at 7.30, p. m. On Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock she leaves here for Crapaud and is due on return at 3, p. m.

One of the best known American fish firms is that of I. Goodman Co., Fulton Market, New York, where they have been, for the past sixteen years, doing business and gaining for themselves an enviable reputation. They are large handlers of smelts, lobsters, clams, herring and bass, as will be seen by their ad, and solicit consignments from this Province for which they are prepared to pay high prices and make daily returns. Shippers are asked to correspond before placing consignments elsewhere.

WHEN you proffer a cigarette, let it be of a brand you're not ashamed to acknowledge. Don't do it with a shamefaced air and an apologetic excuse, as "You know I don't usually smoke these. They're just a cheap line I bought because I couldn't get my regular kind." Smoke —say T. & B.—and you won't need to apologize. As soon as your friend takes the first puff, he'll likely as not commend your good taste and ask what brand they are. That is, unless he's a regular Tuckett smoker himself; then, of course, he'll know. Not many other brands have the same distinctly delicious taste and fragrant aroma. Try them.

Tuckett's Cigarettes

Tuckett's Club Virginia Cigarettes, 15c for 10.
Tuckett's Special Turkish Cigarettes, 15c for 10.
