How you can go into business for yourself

Every man, no matter what his age, if he has a spark of ambition in his make-up, would like to go into business for himself. He would like to become a partner in some growing and prosperous concern. Working on a salary and being able to save but a comparatively-small amount per year, he has almost persuaded himself that a partnership in a prosperous business is altogether unreasonable for him to expect. Live, wide-awake men should not be carried away by this idea. Such a partnership IS possible as we shall point out in our next talk in this space.

CHEAP FARES TO TORONTO EXHIBITION.

In connection with the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto which will be held this year from August 24th until September 9th, the Intercolonial Railway will give very low excursion rates which will give the opportunity to many to visit the "Queen City" on the occasion of its great annual fete.

The Toronto Fair is the largest and most attractive of annual exhibitions in America, and this year new permanent buildings have been constructed and its extensive boundaries enlarged by new boulevards. Aside from the attractions of the exhibition a visit to Toronto at this season is sure to be enjoyable and with the very low rates prevailing it will be possible for persons of moderate means. From Charlottetown the round trip fare will be $25.75 good going August 22, 24, 25, 27, 28 and September 4 and 5. A special rate of $19.85 will prevail on August 23 and 29, and on September 3rd. All tickets are good to return September 11th. Maritime Province travellers will have their choice of two through vestibuled trains, the Ocean Limited and the Maritime Express, both of which connect at Bonaventure Union Station, Montreal, with the through Grand Trunk Railway trains for Toronto. It will be well for intending travellers to apply early for reservations. 8-6ME10i.

ANDERSON WINS BIG LAND CASE

"The most important and far-reaching judgment that ever was given affecting property owners in the vicinity of Vancouver, directly involving millions of dollars worth of realty, was handed down by the Privy Council last night in London when they refused to grant leave to appeal in the famous case of Anderson vs. the Municipality of South Vancouver. This leaves E. A. Anderson, a former Mayor of Vancouver, in undisputed possession of twenty acres of valuable real estate in South Vancouver, known as Lot 701. The property is valued at over half a million dollars. In addition a large number of lawsuits affecting valuable properties will be affected by the judgment, which represents the final authority in British jurisprudence."

The above is copied from a Vancouver paper of the 25th ult, and is of interest here as several of the persons concerned are natives of this Province.

R. A. Anderson is a brother of M. G. Anderson, Belfast and John Anderson, Provincial auditor, Malcolm McLeod is also a native of Belfast, and at one time a resident of Charlottetown. A.H.McNeill,K.C. is a son of Rev. D. McNeill, late Sec'y of Education. Mr. McNeill has attained eminence at the B. C. bar and this recent triumph has won him a national reputation.

Briefly the history of the case is as follows:—Some twenty years ago R. A. Anderson bought twenty acres of land in South Vancouver and divided his purchase with McLeod. Anderson held on to his portion, paying the taxes for years, awaiting an advance in value, but when absent from the city about the year 1896 he neglected paying the taxes and it was sold with other similar lots for arrears of taxes. When informed of the sale he returned to the city and took steps to redeem the land, but found obstacles in the way, and being at the time in reduced circumstances he was unable to obtain redress.

That continued to 1908 when M. G. Anderson took an interest in his case. Consequently the two brothers here decided that one of them should proceed to B. C. and assist R. A. As a result M. G. Anderson went to B. C. and enquired into the case on the spot. He took legal advice and was convinced that R. A's claim was a good one although the influences to contend with were powerful and far-reaching. There being many properties held under similar tax-sale deeds, worth millions of dollars, the owners would use every means at command to uphold the validity of such deeds. So the risk was great, but was taken against such odds. After much difficulty in the first instance to get a hearing in the Lower Courts, the case was tried in 1909 and decided against Anderson. That was supposed to end the case, but an appeal was taken to the Appelate Court of B. C. and came to hearing in Dec. 1910—the court dividing 2 to 2. Much interest was aroused by this result. Appeal was immediately taken to the High Court of Canada and heard in Dec. 1911. The appeal was allowed with costs in all courts, the court dividing 6 to 1. After different moves by the defendants to have the judgment circumvented, they sought appeal to the Privy Council, London. However the Law Lords refused the appeal and this ended the case—R.A. Anderson is now in possession of this very valuable property, McLeod's part in the case is worth noting. Shortly after purchasing his portion he mortgaged it for the full amount of the purchase money and let the land go the mortgagee. He had however, still a right of redemption and became a party to the suit, but on meeting the first reverse refused to assist further. He would neither assirt or sell out, but decided to await the outcome. If the case was finally lost the Andersons would have to pay the costs, and if won he would claim his share. It was an annoying position for Anderson and his friends, as McLeod was a wealthy man. They asked the Court at Victoria to drop McLeod's name and interest from the case and the court allowed the record to be changed, there being no one there to defend his claim. So McLeod lost his benefit—under this suit and may find it impossible to revive his claim as he is considered out of court by lapse of time alone. An interesting part of the story should not be omitted. When Mr. McNeill first arrived in Vancouver R. A. Anderson was mayor of the city and prosperous. He used his influence in McNeill's behalf as best he could. McNeill has prospered, is welathy and a top leader of the B. C. bar. But Anderson's fortune took a very bad turn, however, McNeill did not forget his old friend. It may be truthfully said that were it not for the generous part he played Anderson's case might have to be dropped, He has therefore a double reward. Had McLeod remained in the game another Islander, H.C. Shaw, would have shared in the result. Shaw suffered by having to drop out, but there is no blame to him in the matter. The legal talent employed, on the case included four leading firms in B. C., two at Ottawa, and two in London. So the danger of costs, in case of failure, was terrific. But the defendants having to pay costs in all the courts Anderson and his friends can now breathe easily. K. J. Martin was their legal adviser in the case here.

M. G. Anderson is now in Vancouver assisting in a final settlement, and will return the latter part of this month. John Anderson being in B. C. over a year in connection with the case and having gone over the disputed land, thinks the value given above too high, but it is very valuable and worth the fight made for it.

It may also be added that the defendants besides being wealthy people are not out anything as they still have McLeod's portion and likely to retain it.

LIGHTNING'S PRANKS.

SACKVILLE, N. B., Aug. 7—A very severe electrical storm passed over here about 11 o'clock this morning. The house on Main street, occupied by Edward and Willard Ogden, was struck, as was also their barn. Edward Ogden was stunned, a pig was killed in the barn, and a horse stunned.

Considerable damage was done to both the house and barn, lightning playing many curious pranks. Edward Ogden and wife were standing at the window watching the storm. A bolt broke the window and tore down the plaster where they were standing and then jumped between them to the opposite side of the room.

ESCAPED MURDERER WAS RECAPTURED.

ST. CATHERINES, Ont., Aug. 7—Harry Boisian, the American arrested on suspicion in connection with the murder of a fellow-countryman here three weeks ago, escaped last night from the hospital where he was taken from the jail two weeks ago suffering with fever. The police caught him as he was in the act of boarding a Grand Trunk train for Hamilton.

ONLY A MASK.

Many are not being benefited by the summer vacation as they should be. Now, notwithstanding much outdoor life, they are little if any stronger than they were. The tan on their faces is darker and makes them look healthier, but it is only a mask. They are still nervous, easily tired, upset by trifles, and they do not eat nor sleep well. What they need is what tones the nerves, perfects digestion, creates appetite, and makes sleep refreshing, and that is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Pupils and teachers generally will find the chief purpose of the vacation best subserved by this great medicine which, as we know, "builds up the whole system."
