—MEETING OF RATION BOOK DISTRIBUTORS — An organization meeting in connection with the distribution of the No. 4 ration book was held on Thursday evening in the council rooms of the Town Hall, Summerside. The meeting was largely attended by voluntary workers. Mayor W J Lidstone presided and Mrs. Jack MacLeod was appointed secretary of the meeting. After complimentary remarks by Mayor Lidstone in which he welcomed the helpers and thanked them for services rendered in the past, the meeting was addressed by Mr. J.M. Nicholson, secretary of the local ration board. Mr. Nicholson explained the duties they would be required to perform and the rules to be observed by each one applying for a new book. He pointed out that no new book could be issued unless the red printed form R B 99 in the back of the present No 3, book was correctly filled out by each applicant. He then answered a number of questions put to him by the workers. The distribution dates for Summerside are March 28th, 29th, 30th, and 31st from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Citizens are reminded that the distribution office will not be open in the evenings.—S

Red Cross Contributions in Prince Co.

Very satisfactory contributions to the Red Cross war service fund are being received at Prince County headquarters at Summerside from the rural districts.

The following districts (listed with chairmen) have each contributed 20 per cent or more in excess of their 1943 contributions; district No. 10, James G. McLean; district No. 19, Russell Thompson; district No. 15, Ray Lockerby; district No. 20, Hedley Muttrat; district No. 21, Arthur McKay and Vernon Craig.

The following districts have all exceeded their 1943 contributions: district No 2 Rev. P Walsh and John McIntosh; district No. 3, V. L Currie and Winston Currie; district No. 5, Percy McPherson; district No. 6, Harris Rogers; district No. 7, Aldred England; district No. 9, Emanuel P Gaudet; district No. 24, Willard McNeill.

Several districts which have not yet reported are expected to return equally gratifying results.

Among communities which are deserving of special mention is Milburn, Lot 3, whose residents donated double the amount they gave in 1943.

Through an error in computation the Summerside contributors were first reported in an amount in excess of what was actually collected. This has been somewhat of a disappointment. The Summerside special names list is still considerable below its 1943 contribution.—

Urge Probe Of Living Conditions In S'side Cases

The regular meeting of the Board of management of the Children's Aid Society of Prince County was held in the Town Hall Civic Building on Monday night. Rev. John Jarvie presiding.

It was reported to the Society that Mr. W. J. Brawders, Supt. of Neglected Children, of Charlottetown, had removed three children on a board order from a home at New Annan. One had been placed with the grandmother at Alberton and the other two (twins) were in the Prince County Hospital and would be placed in the orphanage. It was reported to the Society that a family of two children together with the father and mother were living in a one room house in the town of Summerside without proper sanitation and another family of a mother and three children were living in an apartment house occupying two rooms and one of these rooms was let to a boarder and there were no sanitary facilities.

The society voted some funds to the Red Cross Nurse to secure necessaries for the children and passed a resolution asking that the Board of Health of the town of Summerside investigate the sanitary conditions of a number of houses in the Town where the health of the children was reported to be in jeopardy.

A resolution was also passed asking that the Town Council have the Curfew Law more rigidly enforced.

The meeting felt that the Youth Centre was doing commendable work and that Mr. Patrick Ryan was proving to be an excellent director. S.

Death Yesterday Of Mrs. S. E. Craig

A large circle of friends learned with deep regret yesterday of the passing of Mrs. Samuel E. Craig at her home, 21 Greenfield Avenue in her 68th yar. Although her health had been failing for about a year it was not until a week ago that she became seriously ill and her death came as a shock to her family and friends.

Mrs. Craig was the former Miss Annie Ritchie, being a daughter of the late Mr and Mrs. George Ritchie of Alberton.

Left to mourn are her husband, Samuel E. Craig, well-known tailor of Charlottetown and four sons and three daughters. The sons are: Major George W., overseas; Ernest, Saint John, N.B.; Harry D., of Charlottetown; and Gordon P. of Toronto. The daughters are: Helen, Mrs. William Suntner, Moncton, N.B.; Ina, Mrs John Squarebriggs, City; and Gladys, Mrs. Elwin Manning, Saint John, N.B. One daughter died in infancy.

A brother and two sisters also survive, Harry Ritchie of Campbellton, N.B., Mrs. John Glover, Toronto and Mrs. W. G. Hogg, Charlottetown.

Funeral services will take place from her late residence, 21 Greenfield Avenue Sunday afternoon at 1.30. Interment will be in the People's Cemetery.

ST. PATRICK'S PLAY AT KENSINGTON

The King George Hall, Kensington was filled to capacity on Friday evening, March 17th, when the Kensington Dramatic Club presented the three act comedy drama "Aunt Minnie from Minnesota". The different members of the cast suited their parts and acted them most afficiently.

The curtain rises to find the Evans girls and their mother greatly excited over the prospect of a visit from "Aunt Minnie from Minnesota", and when she arrives they are surprised to see her rejuvenated and not the old maid they expected.

Aunt Minnie explains how it happened. After she inherited a fortune from a relative, she met a great promoter, Mr. Worthington Winter, who caused her to take stock of herself, and decided to get some fun out of life. She is shocked to find the old home town of Brandon, not as progressive as it was twenty years ago. She decides to ... some of the young men in a modern garage, and motion picture palace etc., and do something to wake up Brandon.

She sends for Worthington Winter to handle her affairs, and they plan an Old Home Week with a big parade, and all the trimmings. Worthington Winter, using his most flattering manner persuades Minnie to put her money in a joint account, assuring her that he will use her money to the best of his advantage. Their plans are opposed very strongly by Patience Perkins who is head of the Women's Club — Patience has a tidy sum in the bank, and has been keeping company with the Mayor, Silas Spencer for thirty years.

Andy Andrews, a former beau of Aunt Minnie can't compete with Worthington Winter and his fine manners but he assures "Min" that she is the only woman for him. The big day arrives and Aunt Minnie, dressed as Joan of Arc is ready to ride at the head of the parade with the Mayor, when they hear that Worthington Winter has taken her money, and her car and eloped with Patience Perkins. The bills for all the improvements are unpaid, and things look pretty blue with a mob of creditors at the door, when Andy Andrews, comes to the rescue, offering to loan money to pay the bills. At this point Patience Perkins comes back telling them that she had left Worthington Winter in the next town, because it came to her "real sudden" that he was after that money she had in the bank. She tells them their plan to boast Brandon is the talk of the country and she wants to help.

The play has a happy ending, with Patience asking Silas to forgive her and Aunt Minnie admitting that she "sorta kind of likes" Andy Andrews.

The title role of Aunt Minnie was a difficult part, very realistically portrayed by Mrs. Kenneth McLean. The part of Worthington Winter was equally well done by Mr. Kenneth McLean.

Mrs Evans, Aunt Minnie's widowed sister was an important part, very capably handled by Lucille McQuaid.

The roles of her daughters, Eva and Elvira, were acted in a pleasing manner, by Alice McQuaid and Lorraine McMahon respectively.

The part of Emery Eaton, Eva's fiance, was taken by Glen Cotton in his usual capable manner.

Danny Dunning making his debut on a Kensington stage, took the part of Elvira's bashful suitor very nicely.

Allie McNeil, whose reputation as a comedian is well known took the part of Andy Andrews and was greeted by hearty laughter every time he appeared.

"Patience Perkins," was a short part very well interpreted by another newcomer to the stage, Patricia Pendergast.

The part of "Silas Spencer," the Mayor of Brandon, was acted in a dignified manner by Edward Pendergast.

"Cornelia Curtis" and "Nella Nelson" were minor roles, cleverly acted by Genevieve McMahon and Gladys LeBlanc.

The Indian River Orchestra, Mrs. Hubert Gillis, guitar, Mrs. Alonza Cameron, piano, Mr. Roddie Cameron, violin and Mr. Cedric Owen, banjo, played excellent music between acts and also accompanied Mr. Kenneth McLean in a step-dance specialty.

Other specialties included a duet sung by Mr. Parmanas Phillips and Mr. Russel McKay who sang "I'll take you home again Kathleen", "Sweet and Low."

Peggy McQuaid and James Saunders Jr., sang "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," "Mersie Dotsie" and "Put your arms around me Honey" The accompanyists were Mrs. Russel McKay and Laura McQuaid.

Mr. James Saunders was chairman and gave a brief opening address.

Rev Father Trainor, in a short address, thanked all those who contributed to make the entertainment such a success.

There was a matinee in the afternoon, when Mrs. Edgar Hickey supplied instrumental music. —K

STREETS FLOODED — A small-sized flood which troubled residents in the northwest section of the city yesterday ended late last night. For hours in the afternoon and evening rubber boots were necessary if pedestrians were to walk along the sidewalk in west Douglas street and Spring Park Road. During the day Spring Park Brook overflowed its banks and flooded a 30-yard section of both Douglas Street and Spring Park Road with water knee-deep. A few motorists risked driving through the small-sized lake but many detoured several blocks. The water was up to the front door of the house and was within a few feet of others. Several cellars were flooded.

AIR CADET COMMITTEE MEETS — At a meeting of the citizens committee sponsoring the 53rd Air Cadet Squadron, Summerside, on Wednesday, a new squadron commander was chosen in the person of Major T.H.E. Inman. Major Inman will carry an Air Force officer's rank in line with other officers of the Air Cadet organization in Canada. This is a new departure in officers' standing and separates this operational part of Air Cadet work from the local civilian committees the Provincial committees and the Dominion directorate as in force since the inception of the cadet movement. The civilian side of the organization will continue with Mr. A.R. Brennan as chairman of the Provincial committee and Provincial representative on the Dominion directorate. S.

TRINITY Y. P. U. — The regular weekly meeting of Trinity Y. P. held last night in the social hall opened with the business period, after which the group divided into the usual study classes under the leadership of Miss MacDougall and Rev. Mr. McLennan. In Prof. Kendall's absence his class met with the post-war reconstruction group. Lively recreation under the direction of Evelyn Matheson was then enjoyed by all present. While quiet music was being played by Peter MacDonald pianist for the evening, the group assembled in Heartz Memorial Hall for the worship service. Stories of hymns "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus", "My Faith Looks Up to Thee", "Rock of Ages", "The Day of Resurrection" and "Abide With Me" were read by Pansy MacAusland, Annie MacKay, Doris Sellar and Ruby Morrison. The hymns were sung by the group. Scripture was read by Erma Mallett who also offered prayer. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

TIMELY NOTES ON TOPICS CONNECTED WITH Silver Fox Farming

year because they are a great advertisement for the province.

Some time ago in this column we mentioned that Prince Edward Island would this fall probably have the largest number of Norwegian platinums of any province in Canada. We arrived at that opinion because we know that a large number of Norwegian males had been purchased by various ranchers and the offspring of those here last year would be available too. Now we learn that Carrol Delaney of Summerside has received from Wilfred L. Todd the original Mons Norwegian fox, DNZ-RI. Mr. Delaney had previously five males, descendants of Mons, and two Norwegians belonging to Mr. Todd. He will have over 60 females mated to Norwegians, so in combination with Mr. Todd will have the largest production of Norwegian plantinums here. Next fall will certainly be an interesting time as it will witness the development of these new types in many ranches in Summerside, Charlottetown and other centres and give a good chance of comparison with La-Forest types.

Next week's Canadian Fur Auction sales of silver fox take place as follows: Wednesday, March 29th, 4,000 silver fox, part of first section; Thursday, March 30th 433 silver fox show pelts from Ontario and P.E.I., 1,500 silver phase white marked, etc., 3800 silver fox; Friday, March 31st, 7,650 silver fox.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics states that the number of silver foxes born on fox farms in the Maritime provinces in 1942 was 57,304, while the number of mink was 18,853; 62.3 per cent of the mink were born in Nova Scotia. The new type fox platinum-silver blue white face and similar types showed a total of 4.10% born during the year.

It was with sincere regret that we learned of the death last Thursday morning in the Prince County Hospital of our very great friend Hillard G. Muttart, Summerside. Mr. Muttart was a successful business man, particularly well liked as general manager of Sinclair & Stewart, Ltd. It could not be otherwise because he possessed a genial friendly nature that endeared him to all who came in contact with him. But to the readers of this column it is as a fox breeder that we learned to know and appreciate his worth because at our provincial fox shows Hillard was one of those whose presence was always looked forward to.

It is not so many years ago that he commenced to take a real interest in the "shows" and year after year the Muttart ranch prizes increased, their beautiful foxes winning championships and trophies of all kinds. Winning or losing, however, did not make any change in Hillard's disposition. He was always glad to congratulate the other fellow if the victory went that way. His presence at the fox banquets also helped to make those get-togethers much more enjoyable and his passing will leave a void that time cannot efface. The writer, who came to know him very well, finds it difficult to put in words a proper appreciation of our great regard for him, which we know is shared by many others. To his sorrowing wife and family we extend our deepest sympathy in their time of trouble.
