PARTICULARS OF THE DEATH OF MRS. WATTON

The death occurred at Crapaud on April 2th after a brief illness of Maud, dearly beloved wife of Fred Watton and daughter of Andrew and Mrs. Wilson Westermoreland, aged 33 years. Deceased was an estimable woman, cheerful, passionable and loveable and all who knew her esteemed her highly.. She was a member of the Anglican Church, Crapaud, where her remains were laid to rest. Besides a sorrowing husband and three small children she leaves a father, mother, two brothers—Chester Wilson of Lawrence, Mass, Fred Wilson in Westmoreland and six sisters Mrs. Bert Stordy, Crapaud, Mrs. Jesse Oakes, Brownville, Mrs. Elmer Pierson, Lawrence, Mass, and Emiley, Addey, and Viola at home. The funeral service in the Church was conducted by her beloved pastor Rev.Richard Trenton who spoke feelingly to a large assemblage from the words "It is appointed on to man once to die, and after death the judgment." She was laid to rest to await the summons which shall call her into everlasting bliss.

The pall bearers were James McVittie George Trousdale, Heath McVittie, Fred Masters, Chron McVittie, Sidney Masters.

—The Epworth League of the Summerside, Methodist Church, under its literary department, had an evening with Longfellow, on Friday, which proved to be of exceptional interest. A very instructive and well prepared sketch, of the poet's life, was given by Miss Ella Silliphant. Miss Anna Leard rendered a solo in her sweet and effective style; Calvin McCallum gave an interesting reading. Miss Millicent Strong read a paper, on the expulsion of the Acadians, with selections from Evangeline. The pastor who presided expressed, on behalf of the league and the Church generally their high appreciation of the valuable services rendered, for years past, by Bradford and Mrs. Gough and the deep regret that all feel at the prospects of their removal from Summerside. Altho taken by surprise Mr. Gough made a very feeling reply assuring the members of the league, of the great happiness he had found in association with them. At the close of the program refreshments were served and a social hour spent together, the evening being brought to a close by singing Auld Lang Syne.—J.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH WEST LAND REGULATIONS.

ANY person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Subagency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any Agency, on certain conditions by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties.—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre.

Duties.—Must reside upon the homestead or pre-emption six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain pre-emption may enter for a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $300.00.
