HON. EMMERSON FISHER SATISFIED

OTTAWA, Oct. 3.—Minister of agriculture Fisher returns to the capital more than satisfied with the development of the west. He had his way, they would be more mixed farming, and especially more attention to dairying and hog raising, but he realizes that this will come in time; indeed it has already come in many parts. ## FROZEN IN ARCTIC OCEAN NEARLY A YEAR

FATHER POINT, Que., October 3.—The steamer Arctic, with Captain Bernier, passed tonight on her way to Quebec, after taking on her mail. Her appearance off here at 7.30 came as a surprise, she was not expected till noon tomorrow, however, she made 160 miles with her canvas spread and helped along by favorable tide, came blowing in like an Atlantic liner.

Captain Bernier looks in the best of health, and states he has covered 24,000 miles since leaving Quebec. He had carried out his mission and planted the flag on an island as far north as 84. As to fresh provisions, Captain Bernier said they killed considerably more musk oxen meat than they wanted for the needs of the party.

Professors Weeks and Jackson are also well. Captain Bernier sent messages to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Mr. Brodeur, but refused to give full details of the voyage until he makes a report of the latter.

THE PEERS MAY PASS THE BRITISH BUDGET

LONDON, October 3.—According to current talk in the halls of parliament, the government is determined to appeal to the country even if the house of lords does not pass the finance bill, of which it is stated in many quarters, there is a daily increasing probability. The government's determination is said to be based on the belief that there is a greater chance for its re-election now than a year hence. The liberal newspapers make a special feature of the decision of the Unionist party regarding the treatment of the finance bill, and the prospect of their eventually deciding not to reject it, it is even more hinted that the king is using his influence to prevent the rejection of the measure and much importance is ascribed to visits prominent politicians are now making him at Balmoral castle.

AUSTRIAN GOVERNMENT TO HAVE WAR FUNDS

VIENNA, Oct. 3.—Confronted with the necessity of meeting the enormous expenditure on the military preparations in Bosnia last winter, which was occasioned through Baron Aehrenthal's annexation policy and the added heavy demands of the naval authorities for new warships, the Austro-Hungarian "common" ministers are in a very embarrassing position, as the delegations are unlikely to meet in order to consider the budget before December, and possibly not even then.

In the present situation neither the Vienna nor the Buda-Pesth Parliament is likely to approve of the War Office demands, which considerably exceeded twenty millions sterling.

The naval authorities want to build four Dreadnoughts, but it is extremely improbable that they will secure the consent of the delegations to this extent.

The acute crisis in Hungarian politics renders the Government's position still less hopeful. It is difficult to foresee the outcome, but in any case Austria's ambitious naval program is likely to meet with a sharp setback.

FAVOR VOLUNTARY MILITARY SERVICE

OTTAWA, Oct. 3.—Interesting references and recommendations concerning the military forces, as to the status of the foreign labor organization in Canada, the question of immigration and other matters, appear in the reports and addresses made at the first annual convention of the Canadian Federation of Labor, which opened here recently. Some sixty delegates from all parts of Canada are here and President J. W. Patterson, of Ottawa, was in the chair. The executive committee's report drew attention to the work of the foreign labor organizations in Canada, and asked the convention to consider the advisability of inviting the government to inquire into their operations in this country. This report also drew attention to the question of imperial defence, stating that this was at present looming large before the people of Canada. A recommendation was made that the convention place itself on record as declaring in favor of a voluntary military service, as represented by the present military system no regular army, and approving for a naval police, consistent with the needs and resources of the country, to act in harmony with the other portions of the British colonies, but preserving complete Canadian autonomy in the matter of control. All warships of military equipment should be manufactured in Canada.

KING OF SERBIA FEARS PLOT AGAINST HIS LIFE

VIENNA, Oct. 2.—Telegrams from Belgrade announce the discovery of a widespread conspiracy against King Peter of Serbia. The chief plotter is former Minister Genic, leader of the regicides, who did away with King Alexander in June, 1903.

It is understood that the discovery was due to investigations by Dr. Novakovic an intimate friend of King Peter whose suspicions were aroused by the frequent visits of Genic to Paris, where he attended meetings with an alleged friend of an English prince.

A large number of officers are compromised, and nearly all were implicated in the tragedy of 1903. King Peter has commanded that the suspected officers be drafted for service of Belgrade in order that their movements may be the better watched.

A VERY TIMELY SUGGESTION

The last issue of the Canadian Edition of Collier's Weekly, contained the following, under the heading "Honor Thy Father" which will be concurred in by a great many in this Province. King Edward will be sixty-eight years old November 9 next. The ushered birthday honors will be distributed to distinguished Canadians. Two or three knights and several Commanders of the Bath and of Michael and George will probably be made. In this matter of accolades, merit is sometimes recognized, success often. So far as knight-hoods go, the quality of merit has not, in the past, been strained. Some large contributors to the campaign found have got theirs, and some others, like Sir Hugh Graham, who gave nothing but a timely bid have not. Many good knights in the bud were too modest to push their claims, and so they blushed unseen. If white hairs and a lifelong devotion to his country are worth crowning, we submit the name of the Honorable Andrew Archibald Macdonald, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, one of the two surviving Fathers of Confederation. The other is Sir Charles Tupper. It is true that Macdonald did not take a prominent part in the conferences, but he was present at them all, and did his share in the work of uniting the Provinces. Sir Charles Tupper did far greater work but he is burdened with honors. Perhaps he could bear more. If he wants them, give them to him, he deserves them. But the only other Father left has received no recognition from his sovereign, though he has been Postmaster-General and Lieutenant-Governor of his native Province, and is now a Senator of the Dominion, to form and fashion which he gave much valuable time and counsel in his younger days. It would be a gracious act on the part of a Liberal Premier to recommend this veteran Tory empire-builder for birthday honors.

LEAPS OUT WINDOW KILLED INSTANTLY

A Native of Ontario, Suffering from Nervous Trouble, Jumps to His Death.

MARGATE, Eng., Oct. 4.—(Special)—Charles Duff Miller, Agent-General for New Brunswick in London since 1896, fell from a window here and was killed.

Miller was born in Ontario in 1849. At the time of his death, Miller was staying in a sanitarium on account of nervous trouble.

An attendant was constantly in charge of him but Miller succeeded in eluding him, and, making his way to a window, it is assumed that he jumped out, for the body was found in the yard beneath.

THE ARCTIC NOW NEAR QUEBEC

POINT AMOUR, Que., Oct. 3.—According to the members of the Canadian government steamer Arctic, Captain Bernier and his vessel reached as far north as 84 degrees, arriving at that point in August 19th last year. The Canadian flag was planted there on an island which Captain Bernier had reached on a previous expedition. The party was frozen in there early in September, and did not get clear of the ice until August 6th, 1909. The Arctic then drifted out on the ice flow from where Fisher had wintered. Fleets of game, including white bear, musk-ox, deer, fox and other fur-bearing animals was found but no seals or whales were seen. There is one live female musk-ox on board. There were two, but one perished during the trip southward by Hocking point and brass. There are also some live Arctic foxes on board the Arctic. The coldest weather experienced by the party was 57 degrees below zero. It was calm at that temperature. When the wind blew the temperature rose. There was not much snow on the heights the moss being exposed in many places. There has been no sickness whatever on board during the whole trip.

PEARY RETURNS TO HIS HOME

BAR HARBOR, Maine, Oct. 3.—After a two days' conference with General Thomas Hubbard, president of the Peary Arctic Club, Commander Robert E. Peary, accompanied by his wife, left for his home at Etah, Greenland. The explorer declared that only General Hubbard—and himself had knowledge of what was contained in the statement which would be issued later to show that Dr. Cook could not have reached the Pole. General Hubbard will express no individual opinion on the statement, saying that must be done by the Peary Arctic Club as a unanimous body. General Hubbard yesterday stated that he did not care to go on record as saying that the Peary statement proved that Dr. Cook did not find the Pole.
